Sharing Knowledge Making a Difference World Association for Sustainable Development. International Conference, 2011 Information communications technologies ICTs are generally viewed as the new vehicle to redress developmental problems The book assesses the value of such claims by analyzing the structure and workings of the global political economy GPE and its impact on and prospects for developing countries in the current techno economic context The book uses a case study of the Caribbean to illustrate the challenges and opportunities faced by small island developing states SIDS in the new techno economic paradigm The question must be asked can small island developing states such as those of the Caribbean leverage modern ICTs for growth and development against the backdrop of a yawning global digital divide Hence the book addresses the central problem of the digital divide and whether emerging ICTs offer any real economic opportunities for the Caribbean region

Proceedings of the 25th European Conference on Knowledge Management Dr. Nora Obermayer, Dr Andrea Bencsik, Narratives of Organisational Change and Learning Stefanie Reissner, 2008-01-01 Narratives of Organisational Change and Learning investigates change and learning through the comparative and contextual analysis of organisational stories It focuses on how organisational actors make sense of and learn from profound change as exemplified by three manufacturing firms from Britain South Africa and Russia The interaction between organisational change and wider social economic and political changes in the organisations environments and their impact on the organisational actors identity is examined The book also explores the complex responses to organisational change epitomised by patterns of stories prevalent in each of the three organisations as well as the important insights into often unacknowledged narrative processes of learning which result from profound change
