Sharing Susan:

Sharing Susan Eve Bunting,1993-04-09 Twelve year old Susan is shocked to find that she was switched with another baby in the hospital and that the parents who have raised her may have to give her up to her true biological parents

Sharing O. B. Rozell,1980      Sharing Secrets Christine Palumbo-DeSimone,2000 The study reveals how the female world ultimately defined what constituted a story for nineteenth century women and presents a way for today's reader to approach these sometimes puzzling works of short fiction BOOK JACKET      Sharing Milk Shannon K. Carter,Beatriz M.

Reyes-Foster,2020-10-09 The feeding of human milk to socially and biologically unrelated infants is not a new phenomenon but the Euroamerican values of individualism have generated expectations that mothers are individually responsible for feeding their own infants Using a bio communities of practice framework this dynamic new analysis explores the emotional and material dimensions of the growing milk sharing practice in the Global North and its implications for contemporary understandings of infant feeding in the US Ranging widely across themes of motherhood gender and sociology this is a compelling empirical account of infant feeding that stimulates new thinking about a contentious practice      The Sharing Economy and the Relevance for Transport ,2019-11-01

The Sharing Economy and the Relevance for Transport Volume Four in the Advances in Transport Policy and Planning series assesses both successful and unsuccessful practices and policies from around the world Individual chapters in this new release include Cars and cities in the sharing economy The future of public transport within the sharing economy Sharing vehicles and sharing rides in real time opportunities for self driving fleets Car parking in the future Car share's impact and future Bike Share and much more Provides the authority and expertise of leading contributors from an international board of authors Presents the latest release in the Advances in Transport Policy and Planning series Updated release includes the latest information on the evolving impact of The Sharing Economy and The Relevance For Transport      Sharing Territories Cara Nine,2022-03-24 In Sharing Territories Cara Nine defends a river model of territorial rights On a river model groups are assumed to be interdependent and overlapping If we imagine human settlements and territorial rights as established in river catchment areas not on lands with walls and borders the primary features of group life are not independence and distinctness Drawing on natural law philosophy Nine's theory argues for the establishment of foundational territories around geographical areas like rivers Usually lower scale political entities foundational territories overlap with and serve as the grounding blocks of larger territorial units Examples of foundational territories include not only river catchment areas but also urban areas drawn around individuals who hold obligations to collectively manage their surroundings Foundational territorial authorities manage spatially integrated areas where agents are interconnected by dense and scaffolded physical circumstances In these areas individuals cannot fulfil their natural obligations to each other without the help of collective rules As foundational territories overlap the territories of other political units Nine frames a theory of nested and shared territorial rights and argues for insightful changes to the allocation of resource rights between political groups and individuals
