Marting,2016-08-12 A native of Pomabamba Peru Dorila A Marting grew up surrounded by the tales of her native city as told by family members and local Quechua storytellers In Peruvian Short Stories Marting brings these childhood accounts to life with a narrative that is as distinctively authentic as it is universally relatable This Peruvian legend has many versions depending on who is telling the story I will relate to you what I heard a long long time ago as a child from an elderly storyteller Quechua woman named Mama Cunchina The Cave of Maria Josefa With voices spanning from the small and elderly mouse The Emigration of Domestic Animals to the all encompassing Mama Patcha Mother Earth every story is uniquely enchanting while still supporting the overall parable that is weaved throughout the collection Marting illustrates her memories with the ease of the Quechua storytellers of her youth and indeed these accounts of love loss family nature friendship and respect are as crucial and resonant today as they were during the inception of Peruvian Folklore I invite you to navigate to a foreign land and to a foreign culture and enjoy these stories as much as I have Mary L Jones Introduction The Orange Autumn Judith Thomson,2017-03-14 So the question is my friend should I hazard everything upon the turn of this one card My estate my friendship with King Louis my freedom and perhaps my life England is once more a divided nation It is 1688 and James II is on the throne of England But James is not popular and he is a Catholic The situation is dangerously volatile Although Duke of Monmouth s rebellion has failed with bloody consequences there are still many who desire to replace James with a Protestant monarch Among these are Philip Devalle who has been James open enemy in the past and Philip s brother in law Giles Fairfield who fought in Monmouth s doomed uprising Neither will prosper in a country ruled by King James However there is an alternative For Philip virtually a prisoner on his estate and Giles an exile from his native land it would mean taking great risks Failure would be disastrous for them both but success could bring great rewards The Orange Autumn is an inspired retelling of a particularly turbulent period of English history A tale of political unrest intrigue scandal and plots it will equally appeal to those with an interest in the era as well as those looking to expand upon their own historical knowledge Book of Plays for Home Amusement Silas Sexton Steele,1859 Leaving Lucifer Elizabeth Romig,2016-02-16 No doubt there will be saints and sages in our time Masters of Wisdom and great Elders There seems to be an endless stream of quotes from the sages of the past but where shall we find our great ones Indeed in this world of great confusion there must rise from this present day civilization brave souls willing to take giant steps for the preservation of our humanity No seeking no finding is what Bhante Dharmawara the venerable Buddhist monk that taught me oh so many years ago used to say Adventure and seeking is what Leaving Lucifer is all about All noble souls began at the beginning just as you must Let s honor our yearning hearts and break away from the confining influences of the brain Take this journey with me and in the end it is my hope that you will be inspired take your own
