James Alexander Thom,2010-08-11 NATIONAL BESTSELLER It takes a rare individual not only to see that history can live but also to make it live for others James Thom has that gift The Indianapolis News Mary Ingles was twenty three happily married and pregnant with her third child when Shawnee Indians invaded her peaceful Virginia settlement in 1755 and kidnapped her leaving behind a bloody massacre For months they held her captive But nothing could imprison her spirit With the rushing Ohio River as her guide Mary Ingles walked one thousand miles through an untamed wilderness no white woman had ever seen Her story lives on extraordinary testimony to the indomitable strength of one pioneer woman who risked her life to return to her own people Colonial America on Film and Television Bertil O. Österberg,2018-01-16 The early history of American settlement pioneering and independence is marked by fascinating characters and events often shrouded in legend Filmmakers have sought to capture these characters as diverse as Daniel Boone Francis Marion and Pocahontas and events as disparate as the Lost Colony the Boston Tea Party and the French and Indian War This comprehensive filmography provides production information and commentary on all films and television episodes set during the years between the first settlements in the future United States and the fledgling country s War of 1812 with Britain Films are arranged alphabetically and a detailed introduction provides a thorough overview of the period with references to films chronicling specific events Biography Index Bea Joseph,1977 A cumulative index to biographical material in books and magazines

Webster,2019-09-03 Thousands of years ago the land that would become Northern Kentucky emerged above sea level when a large portion of the continental plate bulged upward Today the region rests on the crest of that uplift known as the Cincinnati Arch And just like the fascinating geology of this region Northern Kentucky continues to grow and develop From the arrival of the Native Americans to the first European settlers in the late 1700s to the building of Ark Encounter at Williamstown in 2016 Northern Kentucky's landscape and population have changed dramatically This encompassing study delves into the region's unique past and considers its ever evolving future Provided is a wide ranging overview of Northern Kentucky's rich history including details about its early pioneers such as James Taylor Jr Simon Kenton and Daniel Boone who knew the potential of the incredibly beautiful territory they had discovered at the mouth of the Licking River The collection also chronicles significant historic moments like the Battle of Blue Licks the building of the Roebling Bridge and tragedies such as the Ohio River Flood of 1937 and the Beverly Hills Supper Club fire of 1977 Famous Northern Kentuckians such as singer and actress Rosemary Clooney artist Frank Duveneck and performer Kenny Price are also featured This well rounded study also addresses the revitalization of the region including the recent multi billion dollar riverside developments in Covington Newport and Bellevue and how Northern Kentucky has evolved into one of the most desirable places in the country
