Goodreads reviewer Where She Came From: A Daughter's Search for Her Mother's History Helen Epstein, 2019-08-09 A sequel to the groundbreaking Children of the Holocaust Where She Came From is a daughter's memoir of her mother's family. Drawing on her journalistic training, Helen Epstein demonstrates how documentary research can unearth family history and bridge the historical chasm of the Shoah. This book is at once a memoir, a family history, and a social history of Central European Jews of the 19th and 20th centuries. The three generations of women she portrays are dressmakers, the fashion salon, a refuge, and a rare institution where women could speak. What we so coldly call acculturation is a major theme of Helen Epstein's rich and absorbing new book Where She Came From. In the guise of a family memoir, she brilliantly evokes Jewish life in the Czech lands. Epstein is unsparing in her examination of the trials of transplantation, and unlike many family biographers who are in thrall to their characters, she steps out of the frame to observe herself. Ruth Gay, New York Times Book Review. In Epstein's expert and sensitive hands, truth becomes not only stranger than fiction but more magnetic, wise, and powerful. Gloria Steinem. Helen Epstein's literary pilgrimage to her past will enrich our quest for memory and understanding. Written with her superb talent of storytelling, her tale is profoundly human. Elie Wiesel My Daughter's Wedding Gretel Killeen, 2021-02-23 Nora Fawn's daughter Hope disappeared four years ago. Nora has never known why. Refusing to answer her mother's calls, emails, or texts, Hope maintained contact only with her big sister Joy. Having once considered her mothering to be the greatest achievement of her life, Nora's spent these Hope-less years searching, aching, mother-guiling, working for a famous yet talentless artist, and avoiding her own emotionally repressed mother, Daphne. But last night Hope rang out of the blue to say, "I'm coming home. I'm getting married; the wedding is in three weeks, and it's your job to organise it." Desperate to prove her worth as a mother and regain her daughter's love, Nora commits to the task, assisted by her own increasingly demented mother and her two best friends: Soula, an amateur bikini line waxer, and Thilma, whom they found in a cab in the 1980s. My Daughter's Wedding is both hilarious and profound as it explores the confounding complexity, wild terrain, mountains, valleys, and quicksand found in three generations of mother-daughter love. The Manicurist's Daughter Susan Lieu, 2024-03-12 An emotionally raw memoir about the crumbling of the American Dream and a daughter of refugees who searches for answers after her mother dies during plastic surgery. Susan Lieu has long been searching for answers about her family's past and about her own future. Refugees from the Vietnam War, Susan's family escaped to California in the 1980s after five failed attempts. Upon arrival, Susan's mother was their savvy, charismatic North Star, setting up two successful nail salons and orchestrating every success until Susan was eleven. That year, her mother died from a botched tummy tuck. After the funeral, no one was ever allowed to talk about her or what had happened. For the next twenty years, Susan navigated a series of cascading questions alone: why did the most perfect person in her life want to change her body? Why would no one tell her about her mother's life in Vietnam? And how did this surgeon, who preyed on Vietnamese immigrants, go on operating after her mother's death? Sifting through depositions, tracking down the surgeon's family and enlisting the help of spirit channelers Susan uncovers the painful truth of her mother herself and the impossible ideal of beauty The Manicurist's Daughter is much more than a memoir about grief trauma and body image It is a story of fierce determination strength in shared culture and finding your place in the world Friends' Intelligencer ,1875 Every Other Sunday ,1899 Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine ,1900 The Free Methodist ,1906
