The Girl s Own Paper founded in 1880 both shaped and reflected tensions between traditional domestic ideologies of the period and New Woman values in the context of the figure of the New Girl These selections from the journal demonstrate the efforts of its publisher the Religious Tract Society to combat the negative moral influence of sensational popular literature while at the same time addressing the desires of its audience for exciting reading material and information about topics mothers could not or would not discuss Selected fiction gives a rich sense of the conventions and the domestic ideology of the time the nonfiction prose ranges from essays on conduct and household management to articles on new opportunities in education and work The Golden Bough James George Frazer,2005-12-01 The notion of a man god or of a human being endowed with divine or supernatural powers belongs essentially to that earlier period of religious history in which gods and men are still viewed as beings of much the same order and before they are divided by the impassable gulf which to later thought opens out between them Strange therefore as may seem to us the idea of a god incarnate in human form it has nothing very startling for early man who sees in a man god or a god man only a higher degree of the same supernatural powers which he arrogates in perfect good faith to himself from Chapter VII Incarnate Human Gods In 1890 James George Frazer began publishing The Golden Bough his monumental study of myth ritual and religion which would by 1936 run to 13 volumes and establish him as a pioneer in the study of religion as an aspect of culture This abridged edition assembled in 1922 condenses this fundamental work to one readable volume that is still a source for modern anthropology thanks to its expansive discussions ancient cultish practices and their connections to the rites of modern Christianity In eloquent prose Frazer discusses legends of the woods sympathetic magic magicians as kings the worship of trees the concept of the sacred marriage the links between priestly and royal power ritual royal sacrifices the concept of eating the god the myths of Osiris Adonis Isis and other ancient deities and much more Lovers of mythology will be enraptured by this book which draws all of human belief under one unifying umbrella celebrating myth and ritual as part of the basis of all human culture Scottish anthropologist SIR JAMES GEORGE FRAZER 1854 1941 also wrote Man God and Immortality 1927 and Creation and Evolution in Primitive Cosmogonies 1935 The Golden Bough J.G.
