Shea Butter Republic Brenda Chalfin, 2004 First Published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa Shea Butter Republic Brenda Chalfin, 2004-06 This ethnographic study traces shea from a pre to post industrial commodity to provide a deeper understanding of emerging trends in tropical commoditization cosmopolitan consumption global economic restructuring and rural livelihoods Concrete City Armelle Choplin, 2023-04-03 CONCRETE CITY Armelle Choplin's Concrete City weaves a novel and engaging analysis of urbanization by tracing the journeys of cement and people making urban life in West Africa From post independence high modernist ambitions to building the opportunities to make a living the emerging transnational corridor along the West African coast provides a starting point for insights which will expand and inform understanding of both established and newly emerging urbanization processes in many different contexts Jennifer Robinson Professor of Geography University College of London UK In this very innovative and superbly illustrated book Armelle Choplin makes cement vibrant with affect politics economic interests and cultural meanings She takes us to a fascinating journey along the West African urban corridor following the social life of concrete and showing how this material shapes contemporary urbanization and everyday life Ola S derstr m Professor of Geography University of Neuch tel Switzerland Concrete City Material Flows and Urbanization in West Africa delivers a theoretically informed ethnographic exploration of the African urban world through the life of concrete Emblematic of frenetic urban and capitalistic development this material is pervasive shaping contemporary urban landscapes and societies and their links to the global world It stands and circulates at the heart of major financial investments political forces and environmental debates At the same time it epitomises values of modernity and success redefining social practices forms of dwelling and living and popular imaginaries The book invites the reader to follow bags of cement from production plant to construction site along the 1000 kilometre urban corridor that links Abidjan to Accra Lom Cotonou and Lagos combining the perspectives of cement tycoons entrepreneurs and political stakeholders but also of ordinary men and women who plan build and dream of the Concrete City With this innovative exploration of urban life through concrete Armelle Choplin delivers a fascinating journey into and reflection on the sustainability of our urban futures The Twilight of Cutting Saida Hodzic, 2017 The last three decades have witnessed a proliferation of nongovernmental organizations engaging in new campaigns to end the practice of female genital cutting across Africa These campaigns have in turn spurred new institutions discourses and political projects bringing about unexpected social transformations both intended and unintended Consequently cutting is waning across the continent At the same time these endings are misrecognized and disavowed by public and scholarly discourses across the political spectrum What does it mean to say that while cutting is ending the Western discourse surrounding it is on the rise And what kind of a feminist anthropology is needed in such a moment The Twilight of Cutting examines these and other questions from the vantage point of Ghanaian feminist and reproductive health NGOs that have organized campaigns against cutting for over thirty years The book looks at these NGOs not as solutions but as sites of problematization The purpose of understanding these Ghanaian campaigns their transnational and regional encounters and the forms of governmentality they produce is not to charge them with providing answers to the question how do we end cutting Instead it is to account for their work their historicity the life worlds and subjectivities they engender and the modes of reflection imminent critique and opposition they Beauty around the World Erin Kenny, Elizabeth Gackstetter Nichols, 2017-06-22 Taking the concept of beauty seriously this encyclopedia examines how humanity has sought and continues to seek what is beautiful in a variety of cultural contexts giving readers an understanding of how to look at beauty both intellectually and critically Is beauty ever more than skin deep Arguably yes considering that the concept of beauty and the pursuit of it has shaped cultures worldwide across every time period and has even served to change the course of history Studying beauty practices yields insight into social status wealth political ideology religious doctrine and gender expectations including gender nonconformity A truly interdisciplinary text Beauty around the World A Cultural Encyclopedia presents an insightful perspective on beauty that draws from philosophy literature sociology anthropology psychology and feminist studies giving readers a unique view of world beauty practices. This volume offers information about beauty practices from the past to the present in alphabetical entries that address terms and topics such as beards dreadlocks Geisha moko tattoos and progressive muscularity Readers will better comprehend how beauty shapes many social interactions in profound ways worldwide and that the unspoken social agreements that shape ideals of attractiveness and desirability within any given culture can matter very much The encyclopedia's entries challenge readers to consider the questions What is beauty and Why does it matter A comprehensive bibliography is a valuable resource for further research Green Consumption Bart Barendregt, Rivke Jaffe, 2020-05-15 Green lifestyles and ethical consumption have become increasingly popular strategies in moving towards environmentally friendly societies and combating global poverty Where previously environmentalists saw excess consumption as central to the problem green consumerism now places consumption at the heart of the solution However ethical and sustainable consumption are also important forms of central to the creation and maintenance of class distinction Green Consumption scrutinizes the emergent phenomenon of what this book terms eco chic a combination of lifestyle politics environmentalism spirituality beauty and health Eco chic connects ethical sustainable and elite consumption It is increasingly part of the identity kit of certain sections of society who seek to combine taste and style with care for personal wellness and the environment This book deals with eco chic as a set of activities an ideological framework and a popular marketing strategy offering a critical examination of its manifestations in both the global North and South The diverse case studies presented in this book range from Basque sheep cheese production and Ghanaian Afro chic hairstyles to Asian tropical spa culture and Dutch fair trade jewellery initiatives The authors assess the ways in which eco chic with its apparent paradox of consumption and idealism can make a genuine contribution to solving some of the most pressing problems of our time Outsourcing

Border Control Federica Infantino, 2017-03-18 This book explores the everyday practices of border control and implementation of mobility policy in the European Schengen area by analyzing consular visas services on the edges of the territory Using an original case study private contractors that implement EU visa policy on governments behalf the author focuses on visa application centers located in Morocco and run by the two major contractors of European Member States the transnational corporations VFSGlobal and TLSContact The analysis builds on ethnographic research that encompasses the making of EU visa policy at the European national and local levels It aims at uncovering the reasons that have led to the adoption of outsourcing as a normal and legitimized mode to implement EU visa policy and the effects of that choice The Odds Revisited K. A. S. Murshid, 2022-11-10 This book looks at Bangladesh at and beyond its fifty years since its formation in 1971 A comprehensive holistic narrative is constructed to track key development dynamics at the sectoral sub sectoral and macro levels This much needed exercise dispels the notion that the Bangladesh surprise can be reduced to singular dimensions such as the trauma of the 1971 war or women s empowerment and micro credit The mixture of economic history political economy and institutional and actor analysis provide fresh insights to the themes addressed A well argued case to view emerging Bangladesh as the newest member of the Flying Geese club The Odds Revisited includes a detailed review of macro and sectoral developments over the last fifty years and provides new material and insights into the rise of Bangladesh s capitalist class a socio economic perspective of the role of Dhaka based urbanization and the rise of a new middle class

Market Encounters Bianca Murillo, 2017-10-16 In Market Encounters Bianca Murillo explores the shifting social terrains that made the buying and selling of goods in modern Ghana possible Fusing economic and business history with social and cultural history she traces the evolution of consumerism in the colonial Gold Coast and independent Ghana from the late nineteenth century through to the political turmoil of the 1970s Murillo brings sales clerks market women and everyday consumers in Ghana to the center of a story that is all too often told in sweeping metanarratives about what happens when African businesses are incorporated into global markets By emphasizing the centrality of human relationships to Ghana's economic past Murillo introduces a radical rethinking of consumption studies from an Africa centered perspective The result is a keen look at colonial capitalism in all of its intricacies legacies and contradictions including its entanglement with gender Diversity, Social Justice, and Inclusive Excellence Seth N. Asumah, Mechthild Nagel, 2014-05-19 Winner of and race the 2016 NYASA Book Award presented by the New York African Studies Association When students are introduced to the study of diversity and social justice it is usually from sociological and psychological perspectives. The scholars and activists featured in this anthology reject this approach as too limiting insisting that we adopt a view that is both transdisciplinary and multiperspectival Their essays focus on the components of diversity social justice and inclusive excellence not just within the United States but in other parts of the world They examine diversity in the contexts of culture race class gender learned ability and dis ability religion sexual orientation and citizenship and explore how these concepts and identities interrelate The result is a book that will provide readers with a better theoretical understanding of diversity studies and will enable them to see and think critically about oppression and how systems of oppression may be challenged Islam in Africa South of the Sahara Pade Badru, Brigid M. Dunaway, 2013-12-18 Gendered Commodity Chains is the first book to consider the fundamental role of gender in global commodity chains It challenges long held assumptions of global economic systems by identifying the crucial role social reproduction plays in production and by declaring the household as an important site of production In affirming the importance of women's work in global production this cutting edge volume fills an important gender gap in the field of global commodity and value chain analysis With thirteen chapters by an international group of scholars from sociology anthropology economics women s studies and geography this volume begins with an eye opening feminist critique of existing commodity chain literature Throughout its remaining five parts Gendered Commodity Chains addresses ways women s work can be integrated into commodity chain research the forms women s labor takes threats to social reproduction the impact of indigenous and peasant households on commodity chains the rapidly expanding arenas of global carework and sex trafficking and finally opportunities for worker resistance This broadly interdisciplinary volume provides conceptual and methodological guides for academics graduate students researchers and activists interested in the gendered nature of commodity chains

Critical Terms for the Study of Africa Gaurav Desai, Adeline Masquelier, 2018-12-07 For far too long the Western world viewed Africa as unmappable terrain a repository for outsiders wildest imaginings This problematic notion has had lingering effects not only on popular impressions of the region but also on the development of the academic study of Africa Critical Terms for the Study of Africa considers the legacies that have shaped our understanding of the continent and its place within the conceptual grammar of contemporary world affairs Written by a distinguished group of scholars the essays compiled in this volume take stock of African studies today and look toward a future beyond its fraught intellectual and political past Each essay discusses one of our most critical terms for talking about Africa exploring the trajectory of its development while pushing its boundaries Editors Gaurav Desai and Adeline Masquelier balance the choice of twenty five terms between the expected and the unexpected calling for nothing short of a new mapping of the scholarly field The result is an essential reference that will challenge assumptions stimulate lively debate and make the past present and future of African Studies accessible to students and teachers alike

volumes offer a one stop resource for researching the lives customs and cultures of Africa's nations and peoples Unparalleled in its coverage of contemporary customs in all of Africa this multivolume set is perfect for both high school and public library shelves The three volume encyclopedia will provide readers with an overview of contemporary customs and life in North Africa and sub Saharan Africa through discussions of key concepts and topics that touch everyday life among the nations peoples While this encyclopedia places emphasis on the customs and cultural practices of each state history politics and economics are also addressed Because entries average 14 000 to 15 000 words each contributors are able to expound more extensively on each country than in similar encyclopedic works with shorter entries As a result readers will gain a more complete understanding of what life is like in Africa s 54 nations and territories and will be better able to draw cross cultural comparisons based on their reading Global Markets and Local Crafts Frederick F. Wherry, 2008-02-25 Today it is not uncommon to find items in department stores that are hand crafted in countries like Thailand and Costa Rica These traditional crafts now make up an important part of a global market They support local and sometimes national economies and help create and solidify cultural identity But these crafts are not necessarily indigenous Whereas Thailand markets crafts with a long history and cultural legacy Costa Rica has created a local handicraft tradition where none was known to exist previously In Global Markets and Local Crafts Frederick F Wherry compares the handicraft industries of Thailand and Costa Rica to show how local cultural industries break into global markets and conversely how global markets affect the ways in which artisans understand adapt and utilize their cultural traditions Wherry develops a new framework for studying globalization by considering the phenomenon from the perspective of the supplier instead of the market Drawing from interviews and extensive fieldwork shadowing artisans and exporters in their daily dealings Wherry offers a rare account of globalization in motion and what happens when market negotiations do not proceed as planned Considering economic and political forces flows of people and materials and frames that define cultural and market situations as they play out in the artisan communities of these two countries Wherry uncovers how authentic folk tradition is capitalized or created
