Kinney,2019-03-18 Jean Kinney Lecturer in Community and Family Medicine at Dartmouth Medical School was the Associate Director of the Alcohol Counselor Training Program at Dartmouth conducted between 1972 and 1978 That program was the impetus for this text Upon completion of the Alcohol Counselor Training Program she became involved with Project Cork a program established to develop and implement a model curriculum for medical student education and to create materials for health care professionals She continues to be involved in professional development initiatives in the substance abuse field In 1999 she was the first recipients of the Harold Hughes Award given annually by the National Institute of Medicine s National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism It is given in recognition for efforts to assist in the translation of scientific research into clinical practice Loosening the Grip was one of her efforts cited in this award Accessible and comprehensive Loosening the Grip remains an authoritative source for information about alcohol use and the problems associated with it while also addressing the relationship between alcohol use and other drug use This text presents the physical and psychological effects of alcohol alongside the impact of alcohol use on family and society Special attention is given to addressing the range of responses to alcohol problems prevention harm reduction brief treatment engagement in treatment and aftercare and addressing high risk drinking Along with providing a historical foundation for the discussion of substance use the book explains the facts about this complex issue in clear engaging language Loosening the Grip is widely recognized as a useful resource for future and current health care workers substance abuse clinicians school counselors mental health workers community nurses and others Addiction Counseling Competencies ,2006 How to Start and Run an Alcohol and Other Drug Information Centre ,1990 The Power & Self-control to Make & Break Habits Randy Young,2012-12-30 This book is designed to help the reader acquire the knowledge and skills to learn how to make new habits to replace old habits The reader will learn about super habits and why old habits never really die More importantly the reader will learn the key to building new habits and maintaining these new habits This book discusses how to maintain awareness using a very special habit to avoid the pitfall of relapse The reader will also become acquainted with the value of rewards or reinforcers in the acquisition and maintenance of new habits Examples help the reader understand key concepts This book also helps readers understand how various addictions can be viewed and understood as habits Simple steps help the reader understand how to exercise the power and self control to make and break habits Integrating Play Techniques in Comprehensive School Counseling Programs Jennifer Curry,Laura Fazio-Griffith,2013-05-01 Play therapy interventions are critical elements of providing responsive services within the context of comprehensive school counseling programs However many school counselors are not trained in the use of play therapy techniques during their graduate training programs as Play Therapy is not a required course based on standards set by the Council for Accreditation of Counseling and Related Education Programs CACREP 2009 Indeed while there are over 400 school counseling programs in the U S there are only 11 certified play therapy training centers Even more critically school counselors may not know which play therapy approaches and interventions are evidenced based for specific childhood concerns e.g. selective mutism, social skills deficits, parent deployment. Play therapy is a structured, theoretically based approach to counseling that builds on the normal communicative and learning processes of children as they may not have developed the complexities of language to accurately express their concerns. Carmichael 2006, Gil 1991, Landreth 2002, O'Connor. yet many school counselors are unprepared to provide these vital resources. The focus of this book is on various play techniques and the application of various play therapy theories i.e. Child Centered Play Therapy, Solution Focused Play Therapy, Cognitive Behavioral Play Therapy within comprehensive school counseling programs addressing various childhood concerns, prevention and intervention. Each chapter offers vignettes, a literature review of a specific childhood concern e.g. homelessness, separation anxiety, pragmatic interventions for the school environment and a case study to demonstrate application of techniques.

Handbook of LGBT Elders Debra A. Harley, Pamela B. Teaster, 2015-08-05. This groundbreaking resource presents a wealth of findings and perspectives previously unseen in the LGBT literature. Its focus on psychological, sociopolitical and care delivery issues affecting LGBT elders reveals both the nuanced interplay between diverse sources of identity and multiple sources of stigma and discrimination. Specific chapters highlight challenges and resiliencies impacting subpopulations e.g. racial groups, veterans, immigrants, examine employment and advocacy issues, discuss later life concerns in context and offer guidelines for relevant ethical practice. Contributors represent a wide range of fields from psychiatry and gerontology to public health and public policy, reflecting the scope and needs of this diverse and complex population. Among the topics in the Handbook: Family relationships of older LGBT adults, The intersection of identities: race, age, sexuality and care network, Bisexuality: an invisible community among LGBT elders, Implications of the Supreme Court ruling on same sex marriage, No money, no work and you're old, Disabilities among LGBT elders, responses of medicine, public health, rehabilitation and social work. Handbook of LGBT Elders is an essential reference for mental health professionals, psychologists and social workers who work with the LGBT community and the elderly as well as researchers interested in the LGBT community and aging.

ELDERLY ALCOHOLISM Michael Beechem, 2002-01-01. This text is the first of its kind to substantively integrate alcoholism, aging and grief theories into an easy to understand format for interdisciplinary undergraduate and graduate students in the behavioral and physical sciences. Written to prepare students in working with an elderly clientele, the reader is provided with elder specific practice methodology derived from experiential and theoretical content. Chapters 1 through 4 alert the readers to the nature of elderly alcoholism and accompanying aging theories. Chapter 5 underscores the challenges faced by professionals in identifying elderly alcoholism because the symptoms often mimic other diseases, namely acute dementia. Chapter 6 is a comprehensive study of elder specific populations including people of color, lesbians, gays and the homeless. Chapters 7 through 13 are essentially practice intervention chapters that include in depth discussions of such issues as strategies to encourage elderly alcoholics to enter treatment, practice values and attitudes.

intervention strategies spirituality relapse and suicide prevention strategies Also provided are on site interviews with professional counselors at elder specific alcoholism treatment programs and summaries of these interviews appear in Chapter 13 as well as actual case studies Each chapter includes study questions the glossary of terms and a comprehensive bibliography of research specific to the issues This book will also be useful to professionals who provide services to an elderly population including nurses physicians social workers and alcoholism counselors The Spectrum of Addiction Laura J.
