Lorraine Hansberry A Research And Production Sourcebook:

Lorraine Hansberry Richard Leeson, 1997-06-18 Born in the Southside of Chicago in 1930 Lorraine Hansberry and her family moved to a large house in a white neighborhood in 1938 In order to live there her father had to fight a civil rights case in the Supreme Court against segregationists Her experiences with racial discrimination fueled her strong commitment to social justice and inspired her works In 1959 her first produced play A Raisin in the Sun met the enthusiastic praise of Broadway critics and audiences alike It was the first and longest running play by an African American woman to be produced on Broadway When it won the New York Drama Circle Award for the best new drama that year Hansberry became the first black woman and the youngest recipient to earn that honor She died just a few years later in 1965 without ever fully realizing her potential This reference book is a guide to her career The volume begins with a chronology that recounts the major events in Hansberry's brief but influential life Entries are then listed for her plays including A Raisin in the Sun 1959 The Sign in Sidney Brustein's Window 1964 To Be Young Gifted and Black 1969 Les Blancs 1970 The Drinking Gourd 1972 What Use Are Flowers 1972 and the unfinished Toussaint 1986 Each entry includes a plot summary critical commentary and production information when available An annotated bibliography of works by and about Hansberry along with a list of unpublished material and archival sources complete the volume David Mamet Janice A. Sauer, David K. Sauer, 2003-09-30 The most complete record of a contemporary American dramatist available David Mamet A Resource and Production Sourcebook is the result of ten years research by a widely published drama and theatre scholar and a university bibliographic specialist Presenting a complete overview of all reviews and scholarship on Mamet the authors challenge assumptions about the playwright such as the charge that he is an antifeminist writer This comprehensive sourcebook is an essential purchase for Mamet scholars and students of American drama alike David Mamet A Resource and Production Sourcebook reflects the revolution underway in the study of drama in which not only previous scholarship but performance reviews are a necessary part of research It gives a complete listing and overview of over 250 scholarly articles and chapters of books on Mamet's plays It also presents the complete production history of each play including review excerpts The authors have produced an invaluable guide to research into this key contemporary dramatist John Guare Jane K. Curry, 2002-07-30 Best known for his plays Six Degrees of Separation and The House of Blue Leaves John Guare is a major figure in the contemporary American theater Other notable works by Guare include Bosoms and Neglect Landscape of the Body and the Lydie Breeze series His career began with off Broadway experimentation in the sixties and continues through the present In that time Guare has created many imaginative eccentric plays that reflect the chaos violence and loneliness of life in our time He frequently combines outrageous farce with painfully serious subject matter This sourcebook is both a convenient reference and a resource for further investigation of Guare's works The volume chronicles his achievements with a chronology and biographical essay It also includes summaries of his published and unpublished plays overviews of the critical reception of each work production credits a primary bibliography of dramatic and nondramatic writings and extensive annotated bibliographies of reviews and other secondary material

Edward Albee Barbara L. Horn, 2003-12-30 This volume documents the life and works of the acclaimed playwright Edward Albee His first four plays were all produced Off Broadway from 1960 1961 creating buzz that he was an up and coming avant garde playwright But his most notable accomplishment came a year later with his first full length play Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf His plays were linked with the philosophies of the European absurdists Beckett and Ionesco and the American traditional social criticism of Arthur Miller Tennessee Williams and Eugene O'Neill Intended to serve as a quick reference guide and an exhaustive resource this collection includes play synopses and critical overviews production histories and credits and locator suggestions on unpublished archival material and lists of texts anthologies that have published Albee's material The two secondary bibliographies contained within are fully annotated chronologically and alphabetically with the year of publication presenting a fuller sense of Albee's playwriting career

Conversations with Lorraine Hansberry Mollie Godfrey, 2020-12-28 Honorable Mention Recipient of the Modern Language Association Prize for Collaborative Bibliographical or Archival Scholarship Spanning from the debut of A Raisin in the Sun on Broadway in 1959 to her early death from cancer in January 1965 Lorraine Hansberry's short stint in the public eye changed the landscape of American theater With A Raisin in the Sun Hansberry 1930 1965 became both the first African American woman to have a play produced on Broadway and the first to win the prestigious New York Drama Critics Circle Award Resonating deeply with the aims of the civil rights movement Raisin also ushered in a new era of Black representation on the stage and screen displacing the cartoonish stereotypes that were the remnants of blackface minstrelsy in favor of complex three dimensional portrayals of Black characters and Black life Hansberry's public discourse in the aftermath of Raisin's success also disrupted mainstream critical tendencies to diminish the work of Black artists helping pave the way for future work by Black playwrights Conversations with Lorraine Hansberry is the first volume to collect all of her substantive interviews in one place including many radio and television interviews that have never before appeared in print The twenty one pieces collected here ranging from just before the Broadway premiere of A Raisin in the Sun to less than six months before Hansberry's death offer an incredible window into Hansberry's aesthetic and political thought In these conversations Hansberry explores many of the questions most often put to Black writers of the mid twentieth century including everything from her thinking about the relationship between art and protest universality and particularity and realism and naturalism to her sense of the relationship between Black intellectuals and the Black masses integration and Black Nationalism and African American and Pan African liberation Taken together these interviews reveal the insight intensity and eloquence that made Hansberry such a transformative figure in American letters
