Lost Time Cafe:

The Novel and Europe Andrew Hammond, 2016-10-05 This book examines the ways in which fiction has addressed the continent since the Second World War Drawing on novelists from Europe and elsewhere the volume analyzes the literary response to seven dominant concerns ideas of Europe conflict borders empire unification migration and marginalization offering a ground breaking study of how modern and contemporary writers have participated in the European debate The sixteen essays view the chosen writers not as representatives of national literatures but as participants in transcontinental discussion that has occurred across borders cultures and languages In doing so the contributors raise questions about the forms of power operating across and radiating from Europe challenging both the institutionalized divisions of the Cold War and the triumphalist narrative of continental unity currently being written in Brussels Amirosian Nights D. R.

Ransdell, 2002 The Greek island of Amiros offered everything Rachel wanted for her vacation lovely beaches leisurely afternoons at the seaside cafe and evenings of bouzouki music at the local taverna When a lucky accident lands her a job in a bouzouki band she finds herself working among the locals learning from them struggling to communicate with them loving them and finding out a lot about herself The foreign locale and locals provide the inspiration for romance and personal discovery triggered by music language and culture Friday Haynes, Matthew, 2015-03-31 On an unassuming Friday the lives of five people converge and explode in a small American town A sister returns home to reclaim herself a brother is pushed to the edge when confronted by a violent memory a father rekindles a secret high school crush an aunt questions her marriage as her husband's libido dwindles and the ghost of a local priest haunts them all Told with a unique literary voice Friday examines the languor and melancholy of the day to day life and the exaltation when a choice is finally made

Brexlit Kristian Shaw, 2021-07-29 Britain's vote to leave the European Union in the summer of 2016 came as a shock to many observers But writers had long been exploring anxieties and fractures in British society from Euroscepticism to immigration to devolution to post truth narratives that came to the fore in the Brexit campaign and its aftermath Reading these tensions back into contemporary British writing Kristian Shaw coins the term Brexlit to deliver the first in depth study of how writers engaged with these issues before and after the referendum result Examining the work of over a hundred British authors including Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Kazuo Ishiguro and Ali Smith as well as popular fiction by Andrew Marr and Stanley Johnson Brexlit explores how a new and urgent genre of post Brexit fiction is beginning to emerge Cafe

The American Café Sara Sue Hoklotubbe, 2011-04-15 2012 WILLA Literary Award Winner Best Original Softcover Fiction. When Sadie Walela decides to pursue her childhood dream of owning a restaurant, she has no idea that murder will be on the menu. In this second book in the Sadie Walela series set in the heart of the Cherokee Nation, Sadie discovers life as an entrepreneur is not as easy as she anticipated. On her first day, she is threatened by the town's resident crazy woman and the former owner of the American Caf turns up dead, engulfing the caf and Sadie herself in a cloud of suspicion and unanswered questions. Drawing on the intuition and perseverance of her Cherokee ancestry, Sadie is determined to get some answers when an old friend unexpectedly turns up to lend a hand. A diverse cast of characters including a mysterious Creek Indian, a corrupt police chief, an angry Marine home from Iraq and the victim's grieving sister and alcoholic niece all come together to create a multilayered story of denial and deceit. While striving to untangle relationships and old family secrets, Sadie ends up unraveling far more than a murder.

Murder in an Italian Café Michael Falco, 2024-09-24. Set in beautiful Positano, Italy, the latest novel in a cozy mystery series featuring a widowed B&B owner who discovers a body in one of her bedrooms before opening day. Perfect for fans of Mario Giordano and Lorenzo Carcaterra. Though she still misses her late husband Carlo, Bria couldn't be happier that their dream bed and breakfast, Bella Bella, is humming along nicely. Of course, even on the stunning Amalfi Coast, things seldom run smoothly. Like Bria's mother and mother-in-law dueling over a suitable communion site for Bria's eight-year-old son Marco, Bria is also juggling the demands of the famous Chef Lugo, his producer Massimo, and Pippa, a member of the production crew who is staying at Bella Bella for a nice long-term stay. Until Lugo mysteriously dies on camera, a victim of apparent murder. But finding out who wanted him gone is no stroll on the beach. Bria soon learns that Chef Lugo's multi-media empire is at a make-or-break tipping point and Lugo himself had racked up any number of enemies, financial, professional, and very personal. Now to save her friend's cafe from a ruined reputation, Bria must delve into the glittering surface of false alibis, pretty lies, and not-so-glamorous hidden identities to catch a murderer determined to serve up another victim.

Dark Horizons Tom Moylan, Raffaella Baccolini, 2013-12-02. First published in 2003. With essays by an international and interdisciplinary group of scholars, Dark Horizons focuses on the development of critical dystopia in science fiction at the end of the twentieth century. In these narratives of places more terrible than even the reality produced by the neo-conservative backlash of the 1980s and the neoliberal hegemony of the 1990s utopian horizons stubbornly anticipate a different and more just world The top notch team of contributors explores this development in a variety of ways by looking at questions of form politics the politics of form and the form of politics In a broader context the essays connect their textual and theoretical analyses with historical developments such as September 11th the rise and downturn of the global economy and the growth of anti capitalist movements

The Girl from the Docklands Café June Tate, 2018-08-23 Southampton 1912 Jessie is made from tough stuff At just 19 after the death of her father she opted not to follow her mother back to Ireland preferring instead to take charge of her own destiny When Jessie marries an Irishman and takes over the running of the cafe she works in it seems as though all the pieces are coming together But when destiny and a pushy local businessman have other ideas everything she has worked for is taken away bit by bit Will she find the strength to keep fighting for the life she wants in the face of personal loss gang bosses and embezzlement

Love at On Deck Café Leah Dobrinska, 2022-08-30 In Mapleton love takes a village Julia Derks loves the small town of Mapleton where she grew up and launched her business On Deck Caf What Julia doesn't love is change So when a smooth talking stranger arrives with plans to develop the site of Mapleton's cherished shuttered paper mill she doesn't even try to hide her contempt First impressions aren't everything though Samson Baker has never put down roots He charms people wherever his development firm sends him and he's dealt with his share of pushback from communities unable to recognize the value of growth and change Mapleton is no different There's just one problem and her name is Julia As Samson and Julia's worlds collide sparks as bright as Mapleton's Fourth of July Festival fireworks fly until a damaging secret threatens both their brewing relationship and their livelihoods With everything they've worked for on the line can Julia and Samson reconcile their differences save the caf and have a shot at happily ever after A heartwarming exploration of community integrity and having the courage to change course even in the face of adversity Fans of Enemies to lovers Charming small towns Secrets and self discovery PG rated summer romances will adore Love at On Deck Caf Each feel good book in the Mapleton series is a clean and wholesome standalone read but the books are much more fun when enjoyed in order Book club discussion guides are included at the end of each story

Theme Parks, Rainforests and Sprouting Wastelands , 2022-05-16 This lively and fascinating new collection of European essays on contemporary Anglophone fiction has arisen out of the ESSE 3 Conference which was held in Glasgow in September 1995 The contributors live and work in University English Departments in Bulgaria Croatia France Germany Hungary Italy The Netherlands Portugal and Spain as well as in the United Kingdom itself Essays on general theoretical aspects of the subject head and conclude the collection and there are also essays on individual writers or groups of writers such as John Fowles A S Byatt Charles Palliser Peter Ackroyd William Golding Doris Lessing Daphne du Maurier Angela Carter and Christina Stead The performative aspect of the subject matter of these essays is balanced by a locational aspect including utopian and dystopian writing in authors as diverse as Michael Crichton Jenny Diski and Salman Rushdie and the travel literature of Bruce Chatwin These essays show theoretical alertness but no single theoretical position is privileged The aim of the collection is to provide an indication of the range of work being carried out throughout European academe on Anglophone mainly British writing today State of New York Supreme Court , Brunch at Bittersweet Café Carla Laureano,2019 From the RITA Award winning author of Five Days in Skye comes a sweet romantic treat that will leave you hungry for more Baker and pastry chef Melody Johansson has always believed in finding the positive in every situation but seven years after she moved to Denver she can't deny that she's stuck in a rut One relationship after another has ended in disaster and her classical French training is being wasted on her night job in a mediocre chain bakery Then the charming and handsome private pilot Justin Keller lands on the doorstep of her workplace in a snowstorm and Melody feels like it's a sign that her luck is finally turning around Justin is intrigued by the lively bohemian baker but the last thing he's looking for is a relationship His own romantic failures have proven that the demands of his job are incompatible with meaningful connections and he's already pledged his life savings to a new business venture across the country an island air charter in Florida with his sister and brother in law Against their better judgment Melody and Justin find themselves drawn together by their unconventional career choices and shared love of adventure But when an unexpected windfall provides Melody with the chance to open her dream bakery café in Denver with her best friend chef Rachel Bishop she's faced with an impossible choice stay and put down roots with the people and place she's come to call home or give it all up for the man she loves Literary Anthropology Fernando Poyatos,1988-01-01 The traditional gulf between the theory and practice of literature and the various areas subjoined under anthropology has hindered the development of some very fruitful perspectives in the realm of poetics and the general theory of literature particularly in its narrative forms Poyatos initial idea of literary anthropology as the study of people and their cultural manifestations through their national literatures without doubt the richest source of documentation of human life styles and the most advanced form of our projection in time and space and of communicating with contemporary and future generations has been enriched by the thoughts of a multi cultural group of scholars from both anthropology and literature who at a first symposium on the subject attempted to define this area leaving the way open to many more research possibilities *Awards ... spirit and a curated directory of Tramu's favorite places to eat, drink, stay, and shop. The New Paris shows us the storied City of Light as never before. The author's vibrant and precise command of English frames this lively collection of insights about cultural change and stories regarding multiple chefs and merchants. Forbes As the culinary scene in Paris evolves, a new palate of flavors and styles of eating have emerged, redefining what is French cuisine. The New Paris documents these changes through the lens of bakers, coffee roasters, ice cream makers, chefs, and even food truck owners. A thoughtful and delicious look at how Paris continues to delight and excite the palates of visitors and locals. David Lebovitz, author of My Paris Kitchen

Tidewater Lover Janet Dailey, 2014-04-01 Sun and sand lead to a sweet and surprising romance on the Virginia coast in this Americana romance from the New York Times bestselling author of Rivals. When Lacey Andrews's cousin asks her to mind a stunning piece of shorefront property on Virginia Beach, she jumps at the opportunity. Lacey could use a vacation after dealing with a particularly unpleasant customer at work. Little does she know that her quiet retreat is about to be interrupted by the very same surly but stunning man who berated her on the phone. It seems that Lacey's cousin accidentally asked two people to house-sit, and Cole Whitfield has no intention of leaving. But as the surprise housemates spend more time together in the relaxing ocean breeze, their rivalry unwinds and romantic sparks start to fly. When the real world invades their vacation bubble, however, their sweet flirtation might quickly turn sour. With over 300 million books in print, Janet Dailey is a master of romance, proving once again her prowess in the trade in this captivating and alluring escape to the shores of the Old Dominion State.
