Smith, Russell Hughes, 2019-02-05 A generously illustrated examination of the boom in luxurious resort style scientific laboratories and how this affects scientists work The past decade has seen an extraordinary laboratory building boom This new crop of laboratories features spectacular architecture and resort like amenities The buildings sprawl luxuriously on verdant campuses or sit sleekly in expensive urban neighborhoods Designed to attract venture capital generous philanthropy and star scientists these laboratories are meant to create the ideal conditions for scientific discovery Yet there is little empirical evidence that shows if they do Laboratory Lifestyles examines this new species of scientific laboratory from architectural economic social and scientific perspectives Generously illustrated with photographs of laboratories and scientists at work in them the book investigates how lifestyle science affects actual science Are scientists working when they stretch in a yoga class play volleyball in the company tournament chat in an on site caf or show off their facilities to visiting pharmaceutical executives The book describes among other things the role of beanbag chairs in the construction of science at Xerox PARC the Southern California vibe of the RAND Corporation Malibu General Atomic La Jolla and Hughes Research Laboratories Malibu and Biosphere 2 s bionauts as both scientists and scientific subjects and interstellar laboratories Laboratory Lifestyles the title is an allusion to Bruno Latour and Steve Woolgar s influential Laboratory Life documents a shift in what constitutes scientific practice these laboratories and their lifestyles are as experimental as the science they cultivate Contributors Kathleen Brandt Russell Hughes Tim Ivison Sandra Kaji O Grady Stuart W Leslie Brian Lonsway Sean O Halloran Simon Sadler Chris L Smith Nicole Sully Ksenia Tatarchenko William Taylor Julia Tcharfas Albena Yaneva Stelios Zavos LabOratory Sandra Kaji-O'Grady, Chris L. Smith, 2024-02-06 An illustrated examination of laboratory architecture and the work that it does to engage the public recruit scientists and attract funding The laboratory building is as significant to the twenty first century as the cathedral was to the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries The contemporary science laboratory is built at the grand scales of cathedrals and constitutes as significant an architectural statement The laboratory is a serious investment in architectural expression in an attempt to persuade us of the value of the science that goes on inside In this lavishly illustrated book Sandra Kaji O Grady and Chris L Smith explore the architecture of modern life science laboratories and the work that it does to engage the public recruit scientists and attract funding Looking at the varied designs of eleven important laboratories in North America Europe and Australia all built between 2005 and 2019 Kaji O Grady and Smith examine the relationship between the design of contemporary laboratory buildings and the ideas and ideologies of science Observing that every laboratory architect and client declares the same three aspirations to eliminate boundaries to communicate the benefits of its research programs and to foster collaboration Kaji O Grady and Smith organize their account according to the themes of boundaries expression and socialization For instance they point to the South Australian Health and Medical Institute s translucent envelope as the material equivalent of institutional accountability the insistent animal imagery of the NavarraBioMed laboratory in Spain and the Hillside Research Campus s mimicry of the picturesque fishing village that once occupied its site Through these and their other examples Kaji O Grady and Smith show how the architecture of the laboratory shapes the science that takes place within it The Architecture of Industry Mathew Aitchison,2016-03-16 From the Rust Belt to Silicon Valley the intersection between architecture and industry has provided a rich and evolving source for historians of architecture In a historical context industrial architecture evokes the smoking factories of the nineteenth century or Fordist production complexes of the twentieth century This book documents the changing nature of industrial building and planning from the end of the nineteenth century to the beginning of the twenty first century Drawing on research from the United States Europe and Australia this collection of essays highlights key moments in industrial architecture and planning representative of the wider paradigms in the field Areas of analysis include industrial production factories hydroelectricity aerospace logistics finance scientific research and mining The selected case studies serve to highlight architectural and planning innovations in industry and their contributions to wider cultural and societal currents This richly illustrated collection will be of interest for a wide range of built environment studies incorporating findings from both historical and theoretical scholarship and design research

Critical Prison Design Roger Paez,2022-03-07 The newly built Mas d Enric penitentiary sparks a series of reflections on architecture s role in the problematic subject of prison design The prison is an uncomfortable institution and its architecture is often subjugated to technocratic criteria This servility forces the prison out of the socio cultural realm where it belongs thus erasing it from public discourse Mas d Enric is a new penitentiary that overturns preconceptions and posits architecture as a medium to critically rethink contemporary prison buildings The discussion is enriched by contributions from a number of influential architects and architectural theorists and is complemented by original work in film photography literature sculpture and visual arts

Industries of Architecture Katie Lloyd Thomas,Tilo Amhoff,Nick Beech,2015-11-06 At a time when the technologies and techniques of producing the built environment are undergoing significant change this book makes central architecture s relationship to industry Contributors turn to historical and theoretical questions as well as to key contemporary developments taking a humanities approach to the Industries of Architecture that will be of interest to practitioners and industry professionals as much as to academic researchers teachers and students How has modern architecture responded to mass production How do we understand the necessarily social nature of production in the architectural office and on the building site And how is architecture entwined within wider fields of production and reproduction finance capital the spaces of regulation and management techniques What are the particular

effects of techniques and technologies and above all their inter relations on those who labour in architecture the buildings they produce and the discursive frameworks we mobilise to understand them

Postmodern Spain Antonio Sánchez, 2007 Postmodern Spain examines the cultural transformation experienced by Spanish society during the late 1980s and 1990s By looking at specific aspects of culture the representation of the human subject the past and the transformation of the city this book critically re assesses the validity of postmodernism in Spain Focusing on the novels written by Juan Goytisolo during this period this book examines the representation and development of the human subject and its identification with the marginalized other s It further analyses various representations of the Spanish Civil War challenging the prevalent view of post Franco Spain as suffering from amnesia and thereby vindicates postmodern historical representations as a valid dialogue with the past The third chapter examines Barcelona s urban redevelopment analysing the transformation effected in some of its popular sites as a postmodern re formulation of the city as a fluid flexible public space Finally it brings its previous findings to bear on an analysis of the Barcelona 1992 Olympic Games It argues that these celebrations constituted a performance of Spain s new cultural identity designed for global national and local consumption Thus these cultural celebrations corroborated the emergence of postmodernism as a cultural dominant which has exceeded modern and pre modern cultural practices while paradoxically containing and enhancing both

Avery Index to Architectural Periodicals. 2d Ed., Rev. and Enl Avery Library,1995 Barcelona/Milán:

Arquitecturas modernas en contacto Gaspar Jaén i Urban,Marco Lucchini,2023-06-19 Barcelona y Milán a pesar de ser dos ciudades muy diferentes respecto a la morfología y a la historia urbana además obviamente de la diferente situación social y política que vivieron sus habitantes entre 1945 y 1977 presentan en gran parte del novecientos características tipológicas convergentes que se pueden reconocer con facilidad especialmente por lo que se refiere a muchas piezas arquitectónicas de la modernidad construidas a partir de los primeros años cincuenta cuando los arquitectos más significativos de ambas ciudades entraron en un contacto amistoso y profesional intenso y continuado que se prolongó con la incorporación de actores diferentes hasta final del siglo XX Pero los edificios que proyectaron estos arquitectos muestran afinidades más complejas y profundas de las que se podrá pensar que se derivan de un simple cambio de ideas entre profesionales y tienen que ver con aspectos comunes del genius loci de ambas ciudades y con estrategias de difusión de los principios proyectuales La interrelación entre ambas ciudades era por una parte una forma de escapar del sofocante control de la dictadura franquista pero por otra era una forma de difundir la concepción de la modernidad de la Escuela de Milán alejada del mito de la tecnología y cercana a la valoración del contexto urbano y a una visión crítica de la historia Pero esta conexión no solo fue en un sentido ya que si Milán influyó en Barcelona también Barcelona influyó en Milán y no únicamente en términos urbanos y arquitectónicos sino también políticos económicos y sociales Architecture Series: Bibliography ,1988 Barcelona Suzanne

Strum,2001 This guide looks at a broad range of architecture and urbanism in Barcelona providing an understanding of the historical and political contexts that have shaped it It focuses on significant projects built since 1990 as well as providing practical information for visitors Barcelona Architecture Guide, 1929-1994 Antoni González,Raquel Lacuesta,1995
