which intimacy was a guiding and persistent idea explored by writers across the 20th century and up to the present day. Often modernists have been celebrated for their insights into social and civilizational sickness but this book unearths a strain of modernist thought that is more complex and inspiring than this. It discusses how Bloomsbury's thinkers wrestled with the question: Does intimate life improve as sexual egalitarianism expands as taboos against same sex love, interracial love and singlehood wane and as parents and children relate less formally and often more warmly toward one another? And it discusses how many of today's major novelists such as Salman Rushdie, Zadie Smith, Ian McEwan and Rachel Cusk look to Bloomsbury's thematic and formal examples when they reformulate this question for our time.

Reader's Guide to British History David Loades, 2020-12-17 The Reader's Guide to British History is the essential source to secondary material on British history. This resource contains over 1,000 A-Z entries on the history of Britain from ancient and Roman Britain to the present day. Each entry lists 6-12 of the best known books on the subject then discusses those works in an essay of 800 to 1,000 words prepared by an expert in the field. The essays provide advice on the range and depth of coverage as well as the emphasis and point of view espoused in each publication.

Postmortem Postmodernists Laura E. Savu, 2009 This book scrutinizes the genre of the author as character with respect to three broad issues: authorship, the posthumous and cultural revisionism that arise in reading such works from a contemporary perspective. Late twentieth century fiction postmodernizes romantic and modern authors not only to understand them better but also to understand itself in relation to a past literary tradition, aesthetic paradigms, cultural formations etc. that has not really passed. Penelope Fitzgerald's The Blue Flower, Peter Ackroyd's The Last Testament of Oscar Wilde and Chatterton, Peter Carey's Jack Maggs, Michael Cunningham's The Hours, Colm Toibin's The Master and Geoff Dyer's Out of Sheer Rage. Wrestling with D.H. Lawrence, the mighty dead Harold Bloom are brought back to life, reanimated and bodied forth in new textual bodies that project a post-modern understanding of the author as a historically and culturally contingent subjectivity constructed along the lines of gender, sexual orientation, class and nationality. Laura E. Savu is a lecturer at the University of Bucharest.
