The Participator in Contemporary Art Kaija Kaitavuori,2018-08-30 The early 21st century has seen contemporary art make continued use of audience participation in which the spectator becomes part of the artwork itself In this book Kaija Kaitavuori claims that the participator is a new artistic role that does not fall under the auspices of artist or spectator and in proving such she devises a four group typology of involvement Her classification distinguishes between different forms of engagement and identifies their specific features The key criteria she proposes are how concepts of authorship and ownership shift in relation to collectively created work how contracts regulating the use and production of shared work are arranged and the extent to which involvement in making art can be regarded as democratic This highly original book thus offers students and teachers the tools with which to improve their understanding of participatory art and removes the confusing terminology that has characterized so many other discussions
