Old Roads New Highways 50 Years Of Pakistan:

The Post-Colonial States of South Asia Amita Shastri, A. Jeyaratnam Wilson, 2013-01-11 This text discusses the principal political and constitutional questions that have arisen in the states of Bangladesh India Pakistan and Sri Lanka following fifty years of independence In Sri Lanka the pressing problems have been around the inter ethnic civil war experiments with constitutional designs widespread prevalence of corruption and the recrudescence of Buddhist militancy In India it has been corruption Hindu nationalism and general political instability In Bangladesh and Pakistan it has been the role of the military the state and religion A general theme is an analysis of the malaise that is prevalent and how and why this was inherited despite the colonial legacy of parliamentary democracy the steel framework of a trained bureaucracy the independence of the judiciary and the rule of law

The Post-Colonial States of South Asia NA NA, 2016-09-27 The chapters in this volume analyse issues relating to political governance national identity economic development and regional security that have preoccupied the states of South Asia in the fifty years following independence India has been faced with the challenge of developing effective democratic structures in the world's most diverse and populous society It confronts tensions in its efforts to carry out economic reforms in a competitive resource scarce context and to maintain its commitment to secularism in the face of the growing influence of Hindu nationalism The role of the military and of religion have complicated the task of stabilising democratic structures and socio economic development in Pakistan and Bangladesh Sri Lanka's political problems have escalated due to the failures of its leadership unsuccessful constitutional experiments and unresolved ethnic differences The transition of Nepal from a centralised monarchy to a participatory political system has generated stresses in its traditional social relations and group rankings The essays by an international group of scholars explore these themes with a view to highlighting the complex processes of political change and development that are underway in the South Asian states

The Colonial and National Formations of the National College of Arts, Lahore, circa 1870s to 1960s Nadeem Omar Tarar, 2022-02-08 Utilizing archival sources this book examines the formation and evolution of the National College of Arts NCA in Lahore a pivotal institution shaping the art architecture and design landscape of contemporary Pakistan since the 19th century Theoretical analysis reveals how the NCA as a bureaucratic entity has influenced the development of design schools museums and artistic practices in both British India and Pakistan initially under the influence of British art education from South Kensington The study traces the institution's history from its metropolitan European roots during the British colonial period through the American restructuring of art education administration and pedagogy in the early years of independence It explores how frameworks of art history and anthropology have been used to construct and objectify Pakistani art and artists By deconstructing these disciplinary frameworks the book sheds light on how imperial and nationalist discourses have intersected to influence and redefine artistic and cultural identities within Pakistan

The Making of History K. N. Panikkar, T. J. Byres, Utsa Patnaik, 2002 A Marxist scholar and historian Irfan Habib has been a towering presence in the Indian intellectual scene for over four decades Professor Habib's undiminished commitment to the cause of socialism is reflected in these highly original and bold analyses of Marxist historiography and theories of socialist construction      Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 Vol. Set) Susan Sinclair, C. H.

Bleaney, Pablo García Suárez, 2012 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies      Chequered Past, Uncertain Future Tahir Kamran, 2024-08-19 Spanning thousands of years a wide ranging history of Pakistan from the Bronze Age to partition and beyond This book takes us on a sweeping journey through the ebbs and flows of Pakistan's history from the ancient Indus Valley Civilization to contemporary times Chequered Past Uncertain Future uncovers influences from Turkey Persia Arabia and Britain that have shaped Pakistan as well as showcases the region's diverse and rich tapestry of peoples and its pluralistic multicultural society The book also describes the post 1947 shift following the partition of India and the establishment of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan as the country became more religiously conservative and autocratic intensifying sectarian and ethnic divisions For most of their history the people of Pakistan have found themselves under the control of military dictators who suppress civil liberties and freedom of speech and action a trend that persists today      Annual Report to the President and to the Congress for Fiscal Year ... National
