Islam and Rationality

,2022-02-17 Islam and Rationality offers an account of Abū al-Ghazālī as a rational theologian who created a symbiosis of philosophy and theology and infused rationality into Sufism and how his work was received by later Muslim, Christian and Jewish scholars

Reasoning with God Khaled Abou El Fadl,2002 Is Islam incompatible with rational thought This is the question at the heart of this challenging study by a leading scholar Tracing the conflict between reason and religion right back to the disputes between medieval Islamic philosophers the author examines every part of the debate including such major themes as good evil and the nature of divine will In addition to providing a full survey of the debate between faith and reason he also proposes an approach for taking reasoning beyond the traditional boundaries of textual interpretation to a fully realized engagement with the divine

Islam and Rationality Frank Griffel,2015-10-20 Al-Ghazālī d. 505/1111 is one of the most influential thinkers of Islam There is hardly a genre of Islamic literature where he is not regarded as a major authority Islamic Law Sufism ethics philosophy and theology are all deeply shaped by him Yet in the past thirty years the field of Ghazālī studies has been shaken by the realization that Avicenna Ibn Sīnā d. 428/1037 and other philosophers had a strong influence on him Now after the 900th anniversary at his death the field emerges stronger than ever This second volume of Islam and Rationality The Impact of al-Ghazālī brings together twelve leading experts on al-Ghazālī who write about his thought and the impact it had on later Muslim thinkers Contributors are Anna Aytekin Akasoy Ahmed El Shamsy Kenneth Garden Frank Griffel Jules Janssens Damien Janos Taneli Kukkonen Stephen Ogden M. The Islamic Rational State and New Religious Foundations for an Islamic Liberal Theory

Ahmed Meiloud,2024-10-07 This ground breaking volume on political Islam takes the question of Islam and secularism in an entirely different direction It shows how leading Islamists use Islamic legal theory to liberate the political sphere from the narrow exegetical worldviews of classical jurists and modern fundamentalists Exploring the work of a vanguard of Islamists the book brilliantly parses out the broadlines of these Islamists liberal theory and its underpinning legal grounds This theory promises much Beyond resolving the problem of political legitimacy in Muslim majority countries it opens immense potential for reasonable overlapping consensus between traditional worldviews and modern secular perspectives Most strikingly this resolution rests not on a break with the Islamic legal heritage but on rediscovering and refining the most profound aspects of it The secret of this liberal theory lies in the broad application of the medieval concept of maqasid the Lawgiver's aims This approach shifts the focus from textual analysis emphasizing what God said to a systematic rational exploration of what He intended

Agency, Rationality, and Morality Mona Abul-Fadl ,2024-05-06 Modernity or modernism as a system of thought purporting to be enlightened and universal has brought with it a crisis of values and a secular perspective that has undermined its own foundations and is provoking a universalized state of existential angst or anomie and moral anarchy This treatise provides a reading of the Qur'anic view of man as insan against a background of the preoccupations of modernity. The author critiques the rapid devolution of society divorced from spiritual tradition in the modern context. The emphasis is on rationality, freedom and morality, and the goal is the reintegration of man and the recovery of community through a reconciliation of self and the rediscovery of the essential meaning of divine guidance in so far as it relates to human life in this world. Taking the Qur'an as a divine discourse of many tiers and depths, the work singles out aspects of the discourse on creation and takes it as a pivot for developing a view of moral man and moral community with the focus remaining on the former. The main message is one of relevance, urgency and opportunity. The urgency and the opportunity lie with man, and the relevance shines through the light of the eternal message and comes from God.

Reason & Rationality in the Quran
 Ibrahim Kalin, In this short yet timely book Dr Ibrahim Kalin based on his thorough study of the history of philosophy analyses the categories of reason and rationality within the Islamic intellectual context as it was shaped by the foundational theory underlying the Quran and as developed by the Islamic theological and intellectual tradition. Dr Kalin argues that far from being a self-standing entity, reason functions within a larger context of meaning and existence, intelligibility and moral thinking. He shows clearly how the Quranic perspective of rationality moves us beyond the internal workings of a single disengaged mind and places us with a larger context of ontological significance.

Radical Islam Rising
 Quintan Wiktorowicz, 2005-07-21 This unique book represents one of the first systematic attempts to explain why thousands of Westerners heed international calls to jihad and join radical Islamic groups. Drawing on his unprecedented access to a radical Islamic group, Quintan Wiktorowicz details the subtle process that can turn seemingly unreligious people into supporters of religious violence. The author's extraordinary fieldwork forms the basis of a detailed case study of al-Muhajiroun, a transnational movement based in London that supports Bin Laden and other Islamic terrorists. Through its rich empirical detail, the case study explains the larger question of why ordinary people join extremist movements.

Improving the Pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education in Secondary Schools
 Ayse Demirel Ucan, 2019-09-04 This timely book focusses on the central issues and questions which emerge in relation to the teaching and learning of Islam in confessional and constructivist religious education. Considering the consequences of a lack of diversity in the Islamic Religious Education curriculum, the text also explores the challenges faced by Muslim pupils in connection with secularism and radical Islam. Through rich analysis of research carried out across Muslim and public secondary schools in the UK, this book develops a meaningful pedagogy of Islamic Religious Education. In particular, the volume investigates the benefits of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory frameworks on student learning in Religious Education classrooms and illustrates how these didactic frameworks can help to ameliorate distinct problems seen across Islamic Religious Education. Chapters identify discrete pedagogical issues that arise in the confessional and constructivist approaches to Islamic Education, such as students' difficulties in relating to the concept of Islam and progressive approaches taken in public schools. In addressing these, the text proposes a new theoretical and pedagogical approach to the teaching of Islam which draws on the philosophy of Critical Realism the theories of Critical Religious Education and Variation Theory This book will be of great interest to postgraduate students researcher scholars and academics in the fields of religion and education and Islamic studies In addition it will be of interest to social equity professionals and public policy decision makers Crisis of Islamic Civilization Ali A.

Allawi,2009-04-28 Islam as a religion is central to the lives of over a billion people but its outer expression as a distinctive civilization has been undergoing a monumental crisis Buffeted by powerful adverse currents Islamic civilization today is a shadow of its former self The most disturbing and possibly fatal of these currents the imperial expansion of the West into Muslim lands and the blast of modernity that accompanied it are now compounded by a third giant wave globalization These forces have increasingly tested Islam and Islamic civilization for validity adaptability and the ability to hold on to the loyalty of Muslims says Ali A Allawi in his provocative new book While the faith has proved resilient in the face of these challenges other aspects of Islamic civilization have atrophied or died Allawi contends and Islamic civilization is now undergoing its last crisis The book explores how Islamic civilization began to unravel under colonial rule as its institutions laws and economies were often replaced by inadequate modern equivalents Allawi also examines the backlash expressed through the increasing religiosity of Muslim societies and the spectacular rise of political Islam and its terrorist offshoots Assessing the status of each of the building blocks of Islamic civilization the author concludes that Islamic civilization cannot survive without the vital spirituality that underpinned it in the past He identifies a key set of principles for moving forward principles that will surprise some and anger others yet clearly must be considered Islam and Rationality (Hardback Set) Georges

Tamer, Frank Griffel, 2022-02 Islam and Rationality offers an account of Ab mid al Ghaz l as a rational theologian who created a symbiosis of philosophy and theology and infused rationality into Sufism and how his work was received by later Muslim Christian and Jewish scholars Islam's Predicament with Modernity Bassam Tibi, 2009-02-25 This book presents an in depth cultural and political analysis of the issue of political Islam as a potential source of tensions and conflict and how this might be peacefully resolved Looking at modernity from an Islamic point of view the author analyses issues such as law knowledge and human rights Methodology of Islamic Economics Necmettin Kizilkaya, 2019-11-05 In its pursuit to equip the reader with a basic knowledge of Islamic economics this book divulges the micro foundations of the discipline and highlights the predominant schools of thought that exist in the field It explains in simple terms what Islamic economics entails and how it can be studied as a science in relation to the Holy Quran the Sunnah and the Islamic intellectual tradition based on these two sources The book familiarizes the reader with knowledge of the basic maxims of the discipline It then establishes the arguments that are presented by the proponents of religion based economics specifically Islam and apprises readers about the aforementioned schools as they exist A number of chapters consider the dimension of the dilemmas the discipline is facing and the chronological progress of the field is reviewed hence providing a comprehensive overview of the topic The book deals with the issues about the origins of Islamic economics the basic methodological questions the use of the opportunities offered by fiqh in the methodological discussions and the main problems arising from the encounter with other cultures and civilizations It offers practical solutions despite the differing schools of thought not unlike the development of conventional Economics where radical differences between Keynesian Classical and Monetarist approaches existed It concludes by incorporating some of the finest works that explain to the reader how Islamic economics may progress as a discipline This guide will provide both students and researchers in Comparative Economic Studies Islamic Economics and Islamic Finance with an essential overview of the field Bibliography of Islamic Philosophy, Volume 2 Hans Daiber, 2024-03-18 The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9789004113473
