Re Inventing Tara:

Re-inventing Tara Lennox Morrison, 2002 Television astrologer Tara MacDonald is the very celebration of celebrity slim rich and beautiful she has a life as heavenly as the constellations she surveys But whilst Tara reads the future with expert clarity her own past is more difficult to decipher Only three people in the world know that Tara was once Scarlett Fatty bum bum Macdougall the size eighteen teenager from a Glasgow tenement who became more invisible the bigger she got Until that is the day she decided to give herself the ultimate makeover They say every celebrity has something to hide but her reinvention isn't the only secret Tara's desperate to keep and now she's met journalist Jordan Holmes a man who's getting a little too close for comfort Is this modern day Cinderella about to be found out Re-Inventing Tara a Pbp Lennox Morrison, 2002-07 Reinventing Curriculum Linda Laidlaw, 2005-05-06 In this book Linda Laidlaw explores the questions What happens when children begin to write Why is it that the teaching and practice of writing seems at times to be difficult in schools How might teachers work differently to create more inviting spaces for developing literacy The premise is that written texts and literacy processes are developed within a complex weave of particular contexts or ecologies and the unique particularity of the learner's experiences histories memories and interpretations Laidlaw offers new information about writing and literacy pedagogy linked to current research in the complexity sciences and cognition and considers the possibilities that might emerge for pedagogy when alternative metaphors images and structures are considered for writing and curriculum The volume includes qualitative and narrative description of writing and literacy situations events and pedagogy and elaborates the historical theoretical and curricular background in which such instruction exists within contemporary schooling Reinventing Curriculum A Complex Perspective on Literacy and Writing addresses literacy through a focus on writing rather than on reading develops an approach to literacy and writing pedagogy that incorporates recent theories and research on learning and the complexity sciences examines perspectives on writing from both a teaching perspective and that of the work of writers makes connections between the acquisition of literacy to research in other domains examines both the benefits and the costs of literacy and challenges commonsense understandings within instruction for example that literacy teaching and learning can occur apart from other aspects of children's learning context and subjectivity or that learning occurs individually rather than collectively This book is important reading for researchers professionals teacher educators and students involved in literacy education and writing instruction and an excellent text for courses in these areas Reinventing the Body, Resurrecting the Soul Deepak Chopra, M.D., 2009-10-13 Deepak Chopra presents ten lessons to help build awareness and change the distorted energy patterns that are the root cause of aging infirmity and disease Fifteen years after his 1 New York Times bestseller Ageless Body Timeless Mind Deepak Chopra revisits the forgotten miracle the body's infinite capacity for change and renewal You cannot take advantage of this miracle Chopra says unless you are willing to completely reinvent your body transforming it from a material object to a dynamic flowing process Your physical body is a fiction Chopra contends Every cell is made up of two invisible ingredients awareness and energy Transformation can't stop with the body however it must involve the soul The soul seemingly invisible aloof and apart from the material world actually creates the body Only by going to the level of the soul will you access your full potential bringing more intelligence creativity and awareness into every aspect of your life Reinventing the Body Resurrecting the Soul delivers ten breakthroughs five for the body five for the soul that lead to self transformation In clear accessible terms Chopra shows us how to commit ourselves to deeper awareness focus on relationships instead of consumption embrace every day as a new world and transcend the obstacles that afflict body and mind Deepak Chopra has inspired millions with his profound teachings over the years His bestselling books have explored the mind body connection and the power of spirit With his latest book he invites you to experience with him the miracles that unfold when we connect the body directly to the awesome mysteries that give life meaning directly to the soul When you have completed this journey after reinventing your body and resurrecting your soul the ecstasy of true wholeness becomes possible for the very first time Reinventing Mona Jennifer Coburn,2005-01-01 With her gift for mixing sparkling humor with moments of true to life poignancy the acclaimed author of The Wife of Reilly delivers a character rich novel about following one's impulses embracing change and finally taking a chance on love Reinventing French Aid Laure Humbert,2021-05-20 An original insight into how occupation officials and relief workers controlled and cared for Displaced Persons in the French zone Reinventing the Lacandón Brian Gollnick,2022-08-23 Before massive deforestation began in the 1960s the Lacandón jungle which lies on the border of Mexico and Guatemala was part of the largest tropical rain forest north of the Amazon The destruction of the Lacandón occurred with little attention from the international press until January 1 1994 when a group of armed Maya rebels led by a charismatic spokesperson who called himself Subcomandante Marcos emerged from jungle communities and briefly occupied several towns in the Mexican state of Chiapas These rebels known as the Zapatista National Liberation Army became front page news around the globe and they used their notoriety to issue rhetorically powerful communiqués that denounced political corruption the Mexican government's treatment of indigenous peoples and the negative impact of globalization As Brian Gollnick reveals the Zapatista communiqués had deeper roots in the Mayan rain forest than Westerners realized and he points out that the very idea of the jungle is also deeply rooted though in different ways in the Western imagination Gollnick draws on theoretical innovations offered by subaltern studies to discover oral traces left by indigenous inhabitants in dominant cultural productions He explores both how the jungle region and its inhabitants have been represented in literary writings from the time of the Spanish conquest to the present and how the indigenous people have represented themselves in such works including post colonial and anti colonial narratives poetry video and photography His goal is to show how popular and elite cultures have interacted in creating depictions of life in the rain forest and to offer new critical vocabularies for analyzing forms of cross cultural expression Reinventing the Wheel Bronwen Percival,Francis Percival,2017-09-05

Reinventing the Wheel is equal parts popular science history and muckraking Over the past hundred and fifty years dairy farming and cheesemaking have been transformed and this book explores what has been lost along the way Today using cutting edge technologies like high throughput DNA sequencing scientists are beginning to understand the techniques of our great grandparents The authors describe how geneticists are helping conservationists rescue rare dairy cow breeds on the brink of extinction microbiologists are teaching cheesemakers to nurture the naturally occurring microbes in their raw milk rather than destroying them and communities of cheesemakers are producing real cheeses that reunite farming and flavor rewarding diversity and sustainability at every level Provided by publisher Reinventing New London John J. Ruddy,2000

As the twentieth century dawned New London home to a dying whaling industry was trying to reinvent itself as it had so many times before When the U S Navy and the Coast Guard arrived the city got a new lease on life That is where Reinventing New London begins chronicling the history of the Whaling City through vivid photographs taken over the next sixty years During that time the nation s first submarine base and the U S Coast Guard Academy were established and those who were stationed there helped to win two world wars But just as its future seemed assured New London found itself in ruins after the catastrophic hurricane of 1938 From the ashes of the storm the city built a seaside resort Ocean Beach Park on Long Island Sound Meanwhile New London faced its greatest challenge ever in the changing times after World War II As residents and businesses fled to suburbia the city undertook a bold campaign to reinvent itself yet again and what resulted changed New London forever Reinventing an Urban Vernacular Terry Moor,2017-03-16

With increasing population and its associated demand on our limited resources we need to rethink our current strategies for construction of multifamily buildings in urban areas Reinventing an Urban Vernacular addresses these new demands for smaller and more efficient housing units adapted to local climate In order to find solutions and to promote better urban communities with an overall environmentally responsible lifestyle this book examines a wide variety of vernacular building precedents as they relate to the unique characteristics and demands of six distinctly different regions of the United States Terry Moor addresses the unique landscape climate physical and social development by analyzing vernacular precedents and proposing new suggestions for modern needs and expectations Written for students and architects planners and urban designers Reinventing an Urban Vernacular marries the urban vernacular with ongoing sustainability efforts to produce a unique solution to the housing needs of the changing urban environment Reinventing Your Nursing Career Michael Newell,Mario Pinardo,1998

Reinventing Your Nursing Career will help you identify your career goals and take practical steps to realize them Packed with case studies practical exercises self survey tools goal setting methods personal action planners networking techniques and more you ll get the tools to develop an action plan for both professional and personal success Plus you can get continuing education credits see the instructions on the last page of the book Rites of Passage in Postcolonial Women's Writing ,2010-01-01

This volume brings a variety of new approaches and contexts to modern and contemporary women s writing

Contributors include both new and well established scholars from Europe Australia the USA and the Caribbean Their essays draw on adapt and challenge anthropological perspectives on rites of passage derived from the work of Arnold van Gennep and Victor Turner Collectively the essays suggest that women s writing and women s experiences from diverse cultures go beyond any straightforward notion of a threefold structure of separation transition and incorporation Some essays include discussion of traditional rites of passage such as birth motherhood marriage death and bereavement others are interested in exploring less traditional more fluid and or problematic rites such as abortion living with HIV AIDS and coming into political consciousness Contributors seek ways of linking writing on rites of passage to feminist postcolonial and psychoanalytic theories which foreground margins borders and the outsider The three opening essays explore the work of the Zimbabwean writer Yvonne Vera whose groundbreaking work explored taboo subjects such as infanticide and incest A wide range of other essays focus on writers from Africa the Americas Asia Australia and Europe including Jean Rhys Bharati Mukherjee

Arundhati Roy Jean Arasanayagam Victoria Nalani Kneubuhl and Eva Sallis Rites of Passage in Postcolonial Women s Writing will be of interest to scholars working in the fields of postcolonial and modern and contemporary women s writing and to students on literature and women s studies courses who want to study women s writing from a cross cultural perspective and from different theoretical positions Contributors Lizzy Attree Lopamudra Basu Katrin Berndt Gay Breyley Helen Cousins Tanya Dalziel Alexandra Dumitrescu Anna Gething Jessica Gildersleeve Sharanya Jayawickrama Kimberley M Jew Polina Mackay Alexandra W Schultheis Rachel Slater Irene Visser

Reinventing the Community College Business Model

Christopher Shults,2020-03-23 Community colleges were established to provide an accessible affordable education and have largely met this charge Access without success however does not benefit the student and traditional planning operational and financial management and infinite enrollment growth strategies have not produced positive student outcomes The Great Recession disinvestment in higher education and increasing costs and competition have further exacerbated the inability to deliver better results Community colleges need an operational framework structured for student success The community college needs a redesigned business model This publication breaks new ground by introducing the community college business model CCBM an intentionally designed operational management approach that provides a comprehensive approach to understanding students and meeting student needs by providing an exceptional educational experience Supported by a fiscal management that targets finances to support student learning and success the model guides the reader through the growth development and leveraging of the resources human physical and intellectual necessary for delivering a successful educational journey The CCBM is designed to restructure community colleges for delivery of a student value proposition built on learning and success The philosophical underpinning of the book is that student success is the ultimate measure of organizational effectiveness

Male Eating Disorders

Russell Delderfield,2018-12-05 This book takes a novel approach to the study of male eating disorders an area that is often dominated by clinical discourses The study of eating disorders in men has purportedly suffered from a lack of dedicated attention to personal and socio cultural aspects Delderfield tackles this deficiency by spotlighting a set of personal accounts written by a group of men who have experiences of disordered eating The text presents critical interpretations that aim to situate these experiences in the social and cultural context in which these disorders occur This discursive work is underpinned by an eclectic scholarly engagement with social psychology and sociology literature around masculinities embodiment and fatness belonging punishment stigma and control leading to understandings about relationships with food body and self This is undertaken with a reflexive element as the personal intersects with the professional This text will appeal to students scholars and clinicians in social sciences humanities and healthcare studies including public health Scottish Girls About Town Jenny Colgan,Isla Dewar,Muriel Gray,2004-02-09 Meet the Clanswomen International bestselling authors Jenny Colgan Isla Dewar and Muriel Gray lead off this dazzling collection of stories by popular and rising Scottish women authors A sometimes wild sometimes poignant romp through the lives of Scotswomen Scottish Girls About Town revels in the universal hilarity and strife of being a girl They re looking for something moor In Jenny Colgan s The Fringes a hapless heroine heads to the Edinburgh Fringe a massive theatrical and musical festival for a night of her own disastrous drama Isla Dewar offers up In the Garden of Mrs Pink one woman s look back at her girlhood and the life lessons she learned from an eccentric neighbor In Muriel Gray s School Gate Mums a single mother with killer instincts settles the score with one of the mothers at her son s school Whether they re racing their flatmates in a weight loss contest reconnecting with long lost friends or grappling with the men in their lives these daughters of Scotland prove that no one can top their audacious spirit and Highland charm The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education Chris Steyaert,Timon Beyes,Martin Parker,2016-06-17 The position and role of the business school and its educational programmes have become increasingly prominent yet also questioned and contested What management education entails and how it is enacted has become a matter of profound concern in the field of higher education and more generally for the development of the organized world Drawing upon the humanities and social sciences The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education imagines a different and better education offered to students of management entrepreneurship and organization studies It is an intervention into the debates on what is taught and how learning takes place demonstrating both the potential and the limits of what the humanities and social sciences can do for management education Divided into six sections the book traces the history and theory of management education reimagining central educational principles and outlining an emerging practice based approach With an international cast of authors The Routledge Companion to Reinventing Management Education has been written for contemporary and future educators and for students and scholars who seek to make a difference through their practice Psychosocial Pathways Towards Reinventing the South African University Sabrina Liccardo,2020-11-02 This book proposes a conceptual empirical framework for exploring forms of continuity and change along psychosocial pathways in South African universities

It illustrates how the psychosocial pathways are grounded in the symbolic narratives and knowledges of young scientists engineers and architects all interlocutors in the research from which this book is based Alala Mamoratwa Welile Odirile Kaiya Amirah Takalani Nosakhele Naila Ambani Khanyisile Itumeleng Ethwasa and Kgnaya provide collective standpoints in the multiplicities within and between the lived lives and told stories of young Black South African women in Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics STEM fields In doing so this compelling work advances possibilities for demythologising scientific endeavour as a white male achievement and shifting knowledge communities across gendered racialised class and national divides This book presents an innovative narrative methodology utilising the myth of the Minotaur to examine the state of the university at the heart of the hierarchical labyrinth in post apartheid South Africa Throughout the work the author wrestles with and self reflexively highlights her own positionality as a white middle class South African woman to examine how this affects the production of this research in ways which serve to preserve the colonial knowledge system With the rise of the Rhodes Must Fall and Fees Must Fall student movement in South Africa demanding for the fall of institutionalised racial hierarchies the author uses the cover image of narrative formations in the spirit of exploration to think with and through undulating networked forms that could possibly forge new psychosocial pathways towards decolonising and reinventing South African universities This work offers a unique conceptual and methodological resource for students and scholars of psychosocial and narrative theory as well as those who are concerned about the politics of higher education both in South Africa and in other contexts around the world Reinventing Babel in Medieval

French Emma Campbell, 2023-09-09 How can untranslatability help us to think about the historical as well as the cultural and linguistic dimensions of translation For the past two centuries theoretical debates about translation have responded to the idea that translation overcomes linguistic and cultural incommensurability while never inscribing full equivalence More recently untranslatability has been foregrounded in projects at the intersections between translation studies and other disciplines notably philosophy and comparative literature The critical turn to untranslatability re emphasizes the importance of translation s negotiation with foreignness or difference and prompts further reflection on how that might be understood historically philosophically and ethically If translation never replicates a source exactly what does it mean to communicate some elements and not others What or who determines what is translatable or what can or cannot be recontextualized What linguistic political cultural or historical factors condition such determinations Central to these questions is the way translation negotiates with and inscribes asymmetries among languages and cultures operations that are inevitably ethical and political as well as linguistic This book explores how approaching questions of translatability and untranslatability through premodern texts and languages can inform broader interdisciplinary conversations about translation as a concept and a practice Working with case studies drawn from the francophone cultures of Flanders England and northern France it explores how medieval texts challenge modern definitions of language text and translation and in so doing how such texts can open sites of variance and non identity within what later became the hegemonic global languages we know today
