Reimagining Social Work in Africa Sharlotte Tusasiirwe, 2023-07-07 This book explores contemporary debates on decolonisation and indigenisation of social work in Africa and provides readers with alternative models values and epistemologies for reimagining social work practice and education that can be applicable to a wide range of countries struggling with similar concerns It examines how indigenisation without decolonisation is just tokenistic since it is concerned with adapting modifying Western models to fit local contexts or generating local models to integrate into the already predominantly contextually irrelevant and culturally inappropriate mainstream Western social work in Africa By exploring decolonisation which calls for dismantling colonialism and colonial thinking to create central space for indigenous social work as mainstream social work especially in Africa it goes beyond tokenistic decolonisation to articulate some of the indigenous social work practice and social policy models values ethics and oral epistemologies that should take centre stage as locally relevant and culturally appropriate social work in Africa It also addresses the question of decolonising research methodologies highlighting some of the methods embedded in African indigenous perspectives for adoption when researching African social work The book has been written with both the coloniser colonised in mind and it will be of interest to all social work academics students and practitioners and others interested in gaining insights into how colonisation persists in social work and why it is necessary to find ways to disrupt it Re-Imagining Eve and Adam Heidi

Remembering World War II Refugees in Contemporary Portugal Verena Lindemann Lino, 2021-08-23 This book takes an innovative approach to the study of memories of transit and exile in Portugal between 1933 and 1945 in artistic media Informed by contemporary debates within memory and translation studies it develops a translational perspective on transcultural memory and explores its ethical implications This study provides an in depth analysis of Daniel Blaufuks s inter art project Sob C us Estranhos Domingos Amaral s novel Enquanto Salazar Dormia and Jo o Canijo s documentary Fantasia Lusitana It examines the heterocultural networks of signification that these artistic media mobilize to implicate the presence of World War II refugees in Portugal in contemporary negotiations of communality By approaching memory through a translational lens on culture this book also offers new perspectives on remediation memory transfer and the ethical dimensions of remembrance in the context of transcultural memory and migration Remembering with Emotion in Dynamic Psychotherapy Steven B. Sandler, 2011-06-10 This book takes a new look at dynamic psychotherapy from its most basic theory to the furthest limits of its capabilities It invites the reader to re examine a few of the most basic concepts underlying the practice of psychotherapy What is emotion What is a defense mechanism It begins with emotion theory an area of academic study that has traditionally been neglected in psychotherapy training programs Throughout the book it is argued that the patient s experience of emotion is critical for a successful outcome in therapy and that the therapist s understanding of emotion will provide a solid theoretical foundation for practice Attachment theory is also used extensively throughout the book Case examples offer interventions that are designed to translate the theory into practical applications In the middle chapters of the book these basic ideas emotion theory and attachment theory are applied in an extended case example using ample segments of verbatim dialogue Memory theory is used to explain some of the treatment failures in dynamic psychotherapy Memory theory can lead to a revised approach that provides more durable outcomes Dynamic psychotherapy has largely been a therapy of bad memories therefore a systematic approach to focusing on positive memories of early attachment experiences is outlined We must not only help the patient to face negative memories of his past we must also help revive and strengthen positive memories until they have trace dominance over negative ones Finally the possibility that dynamic psychotherapy can lead to spiritual growth is explored Early parent child experiences of oneness can serve as the developmental precursors of the spiritual experience Some of the child development literature including Mahler s notion of symbiosis is reviewed Some preliminary work with patients is presented in which they are invited to broaden their new emotional connection with a parent and others until it leads to a greater sense of spiritual connection and o

Ways of Remembering Oishik Sircar, 2024 Ways of Remembering tells a story about the relationship between secular law and religious violence by studying the memorialisation of the 2002 Gujarat pogrom postcolonial India s most litigated and mediatized event of anti Muslim mass violence By reading judgments and films on the pogrom through a novel interpretive framework the book argues that the shared narrative of law and cinema engenders ways of remembering the pogrom in which the rationality of secular law offers a resolution to the irrationality of religious violence In the public s collective memory the force of this rationality simultaneously condemns and normalises violence against Muslims while exonerating secular law from its role in enabling the pogrom thus keeping the violent legal order against India s Muslim citizens intact

The book contends that in foregrounding law's aesthetic dimensions we see the discursive ways in which secular law organizes violence and presents itself as the panacea for that very violence Remembering Paul Benjamin L. White, 2017
