The Quest for Identities Şabrî Hâfız, 2007 A fascinating study of a popular and vital genre often overlooked by literary critics

Modern Arabic Short Stories, 1967 Modern Arabic Literature Muḥammad Muşţafâ Badawî, 1992 This volume provides an authoritative survey of creative writing in Arabic from the mid nineteenth century to the present day

The Modern Arabic Short Story Mohammad Shaheen, 1989-05-05 Far from being social orthodox or merely anecdotal modern Arabic fiction is in fact significant and radical in the world context of modern fiction as this book shows It includes an introduction to and critique of the short story as well as a selection of Arabic short stories chosen and translated by the author

The Nuts and Bolts of Arabic-English Translation Ali Almannā, 2019-01-29 This book is aimed primarily at undergraduate and postgraduate students of translation and contrastive linguistics across the world as well as their instructors It does not confine itself to showing the differences between Arabic and English in terms of traditional grammar alone but gently extends to the discussion of such issues as functional grammar syntax cohesion semantics pragmatics cognitive linguistics stylistics text typology translation procedures and to a certain degree translation theories It will serve to develop a professional translation competence in all essential areas in students and trainees by providing a suitably wide range of bidirectional practice materials for them and their teachers Such competence will be developed from the basis of a contrastive study of Arabic and English and will embrace not just contrasting grammar but also such matters as awareness of collocations stylistics and cohesive devices and the identification of text types The Arabic-English Translator as

Photographer Ali Almanna, Khaled Al-Shehari, 2018-12-07 By choosing to use different linguistic approaches as a theoretical basis of their study of translation as a process of picture taking The Arabic English Translator as Photographer A Linguistic Account offers readers an original view of the translator's work In addition to laying emphasis on the importance of giving full consideration to the mental image's conjured up in the mind of the translators the book provides an accessible introduction to structural semiotics interpretive semiotics functional grammar semantics and cognitive linguistics for students and researchers who are new to the field The book can be used as a basis for post graduate students especially students of MA and PhD in Translation Studies as well as students in modern languages schools The book focuses on a specific pair of languages English and Arabic and presents the relationships generated by texts translation including adverts and other types of texts between these two languages Religion in the Egyptian Novel Christina Phillips, 2019-06-24

This is an in depth original survey of religion in the modern Arabic novel Tracing the relationship from the genesis of the form in the early 20th century to present Phillips provides a thematic exploration of the push and pull between religion and secularism as it played out on the pages of the Egyptian novel Through close readings of representative texts the book reveals the manifold ways in which Islam Christianity Sufism myth ritual and intertext have engaged in modern Arabic literature and culture more broadly Zakariyya Tamir and the Politics of the Syrian Short Story Alessandro

Columbu, 2022-12-29 Zakariyya Tamir is Syria's foremost writer of short stories and his works are widely read across the Arab world In this the first English language monograph on Tamir's entire oeuvre Alessandro Columbu examines Tamir's literary development in the context of changing political contexts from his beginnings as a short story writer on local magazines in the late 1950s until the Syrian revolution of 2011 Thus the movements from independence and Western inspired modernisation to the rise of nationalism and socialism war defeat occupation in the 1960s the emergence of authoritarianism and the cult of personality of Hafiz al Assad in the 1970s are charted in the context of Tamir's works Therein the significance of masculinity and patriarchy and its changing nature in relation to nationalism and authoritarianism are revealed as Tamir's foremost vehicles for social and political critique The role of female sexuality and its disrupting empowering nature vis vis patriarchal institutions is also explored as is the question of literary commitment and the relationship between authors and the authoritarian regime of Syria homosexuality and representations of unconventional sexualities in general An Overview of Modern Arabic Literature Pierre Cachia,1990 Studies in Modern Arabic Prose and Poetry Shmuel Moreh,2023-10-20 A Basic Bibliography for the Study of the Semitic Languages J.
