Amstutz, 1982 Civil Wars in Rwanda and Burundi Godfrey Mwakikagile, 2013 This is a historical survey and analysis of some of the bloodiest conflicts in modern times The civil wars in Rwanda and Burundi twin states in the Great Lakes region of East Africa are often explained in simplistic terms even by some political pundits as mere tribal wars rooted in ancient hatred between the Hutu and the Tutsi Ethnicity is indeed a factor But of paramount importance in this conflict between the Hutu and the Tutsi in both countries is the struggle for power although with racial overtones and the exclusion of the Hutu majority from meaningful participation in the political process Therefore the conflicts are not tribal wars but political statements as well probably more than anything else what Tanzanian President Benjamin Mkapa aptly described as military expressions of political intent In this comprehensive study the author also addresses one of the most controversial subjects today conflict resolution in Africa There are no easy answers but the author attempts to provide some of them He covers as much ground as possible trying to come up with solutions not only to the wars in Africa s Great Lakes region but in other parts of the continent as well Untold Stories of Black Leadership in Higher Education W. Franklin Evans, 2023-07-20 Higher education leadership continues to shift as new individuals move into positions of authority and management within the ranks of academia These new leaders that come from within the academic and teaching ranks share their stories experiences and challenges of not only being black gifted and educated but they speak very candidly about their journey to becoming more seasoned proficient and skilled The narratives and encounters they share provide meaningful insight into the realm of black leadership at the college level and constitute a
