Reid, 2003-02-22 Religion and Global Culture draws together the work of a group of historians of religion who are concerned with situating the contemporary study of religion within the cultural complexity of the modern world The writing of each of the volume s contributors relates to the work of leading historian of religion Charles H Long who has identified religious meanings in the contacts and exchanges of the colonial and postcolonial periods Together with Long these scholars explore religious practices in a variety of globalized contexts chapters consider such varied subjects as the rituals of African immigrant communities in the United States the making of Mohawk sweet grass and black ash baskets the religious experience of prisoners in the Nazi holding camp of Westerbork and the regional repercussions of contemporary multi national business By locating religion in the conflicted and cooperative relationships of the colonial and postcolonial periods Religion and Global Culture calls on scholars of religion to reconfigure their interpretive stances from the perspective of the material structures of the modern globalized world

Sexuality, Religion and the Sacred Loraine Hutchins, H. Sharif Williams, 2018-10-24 Sexuality Religion and the Sacred is a thoughtful collection of bisexual polysexual and pansexual scholarship on religion and spirituality It examines how religious and spiritual traditions address sexuality whilst also exploring the ways in which bisexually polysexually and pansexually active people embrace religious and spiritual practice The volume offers a comprehensive analysis of these prevalent themes by focusing on five main areas of discussion Christian and Unitarian Discourses Indigenous and Decolonizing Spiritual Discourses Feminist Spiritual Discourses Buddhist Discourses and Neo Pagan Discourses Sexuality Religion and the Sacred offers an accessible yet scholarly treatment of these topics through a collection of critical essays by academics of theology humanities cultural studies and social sciences as well as sexology professionals and clergy from various faith and spiritual traditions It gives readers an insight into the intersection of sexualities and spiritualities and attempts to disrupt this very dichotomy through its careful consideration of a wide variety of discourses This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Bisexuality      The Discipline of Religion Russell T.

McCutcheon, 2003 This volume is a critical journey through religious studies in the 21st century looking at its growth as an academic discipline and its contemporary political and social meaning      The Booklist , 1966      Convergences Dr. Nabil M. Abdel-Al, 2017-05-25 This anthology is an amalgam of the authors output in the domains of interpretation translation and literary scholarship It is a serious attempt to highlight the cardinal traits common to said fields This research is a vested trek into the inner workings of the authors profession interpretation and translation as well as his standing engagement with literary genres throughout the ages The books uniqueness resides in treating a diversity of matters interrelated in various ways although on the surface it appears to make up a queer admixture of dissimilar elements hence the title Convergences Interpretation and translation are twin vocations and between them convergence is all encompassing Both transform a message from a source to a target language Complementary and mutually supportive as they are yet there is a train of difference in the execution of these two inseparable professions the method nature and techniques involved in each Interpretation is the instantaneous the simultaneous in a word the express mode of communication and translation is the meditative the slow or the local medium of correspondence Concomitantly literature is the crucible for teleologically permeable convergences and incredible divergences It has a noble ontological message and brings out humanitys hidden treasures experiences thoughts and choices Literatures lofty missive is grounded in understanding the scenes events and characters it depicts excerpts of which feed into discourses to be interpreted and translated Clients come up with multiple interpretations depending on circumstances and the context in which texts are couched
