

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a sunset or sunrise. The sky is filled with soft, golden clouds near the horizon, transitioning into a darker blue as it goes up. In the foreground, the silhouettes of several buildings are visible against the bright horizon. A single bird is captured in flight, its wings spread, positioned between the title and the subtitle.

Goldman, 1966 Readiness for Religion Harold Loukes, 1963 Readiness for Religion Ronald Goldman, 1965 Research in Religious Education Leslie J. Francis, William K. Kay, William S. Campbell, 1996 Readiness for religion. Edited by ... Ronald J. Goldman, etc Ronald Goldman, 1966 Routledge Library Editions: Education and Religion Various, 2021-07-14 The 10 volumes in this set originally published between 1965 and 1994 draw together research by leading academics in the area of religious education and provides a rigorous examination of related key issues The volumes examine the teaching of world faiths in schools religious education in both primary and secondary schools and the teaching of morality This set will be of particular interest to students of Education and Religious Studies Readiness for Religion Ronald Goldman, 1967 Good Practice In Primary Religious Education 4-11 Derek Bastide, 2017-12-22 Intended for the use of primary head teachers class teachers and teachers in training this book examines the requirements of the 1988 Education Reform Act in respect of religious education in schools It offers guidance on ways in which religious education can be developed successfully Youth in Europe: An international empirical study about the impact of religion on life orientation Hans-Georg Ziebertz, William K. Kay, 2005 This book draws upon empirical data collected from 10 000 adolescent young people in 10 European countries The first volume of this project was about young people s life perspectives and the second about their religious attitudes and practices The current and final volume of this cross cultural study connects both research dimensions The analyses make clear that the influence of religion on values life orientation and politics differs strongly between different groups within Christianity and between Christians Jews and Muslims Many findings contain obvious surprises because they refute mainstream opinion on many topics The book gives detailed and new insights in the public relevance of the religiosity of young people across Europe All three volumes together are indispensable for scholars who work in public religious and educational contexts What is the Bible? Ronald J. Goldman, Constance M. Parker, Eric C. Rolls, 1970 Learning to Give Ken Russell, Joan Tooke, 2016-05-04 Learning to Give as Part of Religious Education attempts to answer the question what is actually to go on in a lesson about life or reality It takes as its starting point a sure ground of adolescent concern the compassion for human suffering which is normally awakened and keenly felt in the middle teens It then proceeds to inform this compassion it explores the depth and shape of the need it amasses the facts of the situation it illustrates the human meaning of it with quotation from biography and poetry and personal documents it describes the efforts made in active compassion to relieve the need and it makes suggestions of ways in which the young can share in the work of relief Finally it marches on to biblical and other statements about the human situation that set these specific agonizing points of suffering against the vast problem of evil viewed in the light of a belief in a God who cares thus lifting the human adventure from its sublunar situation on to a cosmic level Orthodox Revivalism in Russia Milena Benovska, 2020-10-12 Orthodoxy has achieved a large scale revival in Russia following the collapse of Communism However paradoxically although there is a high level of identification with Orthodoxy there is in fact a low level of church attendance This book based on in depth ethnographic fieldwork explores the social background and moral attitudes of the little flock of believers who actively participate in religious life It reveals that the complex moral beliefs of the faithful have a disproportionately high impact on Russian society overall that among the faithful there is a strong emphasis on striving for personal perfection but that also there are strong collective ideas concerning religious nationalism and the synergy between the secular and the religious Education about Religions and Worldviews Anna Halafoff, Elisabeth Arweck, Donald Boisvert, 2018-02-02 This volume presents the findings of a number of empirical and theoretical studies on education about religions and worldviews ERW conducted in the Western societies of Britain Ireland Canada Norway Finland New Zealand Australia and Canada Educational programmes about diverse religions and worldviews began to be investigated and implemented as strategies to encourage interreligious understanding and social cohesion particularly following the 2005 London bombings when a fear of youth radicalisation and home grown terrorism became prevalent In addition as a growing number of people in Western societies and young people especially declare themselves to have no religious affiliation state actors are currently grappling with the reality that we are living in increasingly multifaith and non religious societies and government education systems have become places of contestation as a result of these changes This volume examines ERW research and policies in a number of diverse places in the hope of identifying common themes overlapping insights and best practices that can inform research and policy for religious literacy and interreligious understanding in other contexts This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Intercultural Studies

Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk, Gerdien Bertram-Troost, Markus Friederici, Céline Béraud, 2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14 16 year age group in Europe see the relevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored The World's Religions: The Study of Religion, Traditional and New Religion Peter Clarke, Stewart Sutherland, 2002-11 Examines the primitive traditional non mainstream religion and also 20th century sects such as the Moonies and Scientology Looks at the nature of religion the general philosophical issues Written by international specialists Montesquieu's 'The Spirit of the Laws' ,2024-02-06 The Spirit of the Laws not only systematizes the foundational ideas of separation of powers and balances and checks it provides the decisive response to the question of whether power in the nation state can be limited in the aftermath of the Westphalian settlement of 1648 It describes a civilizational change through which power becomes domesticated with built in resistance to attempts to absolutize or make total political power As such it is the Bible of modern politics now made more accessible to English readers than it ever has been Froebel Journal ,1967 Religion and Spirituality for Diverse Women Thema Bryant-Davis, Asuncion Miteria Austria, Debra M. Kawahara, Diane J. Willis Ph.D., 2014-09-30 This collection of essays considers the role of spirituality and religion in the lives of American women from various ethnic backgrounds showing how faith empowers those in populations often marginalized in the United States Religion and spirituality are sources of strength and resilience for many women particularly ethnically diverse women This thought provoking text examines this psychological trend exploring the specific ways in which women from diverse backgrounds have benefited from their faith traditions the various spiritual pathways they have chosen and the impact of those choices on their lives Essays in this informative compilation show how women from African American Latina American Indian Asian American and Caucasian backgrounds recover from difficulties and traumas with the help of their faith Contributors consider why women are more likely to endorse religious engagement than men why ethnically marginalized women tap into spirituality for comfort more than any other population and why many believers embrace religion as a coping mechanism throughout their lives from adolescence to older adulthood The work suggests ways for counselors leaders and religious figures to utilize this knowledge to bolster the well being of those they serve
