KS2: Personal Response to Texts - Fiction

Can you summarise
what you have read?

Who was your favourite character?

Why were they your favourite?

How do the characters develop or change through

Encourage pupils to share their personal response to fiction books that they have had read to them or that they read themselves. They can give their responses to characters and events in the stories and think about the themes within the book.

The resources provided will help prompt discussions about books, encouraging pupils to analyse and justify their opinions with the aim to promote participation in 'book talk' and help promote a love of reading.

There are two versions of the worksheet in this pack for Years 3/4 and Years 5/6, with questions focusing on objectives from the programme of study for reading for each stage.

Resources included

- Personal response to fiction texts worksheet - Years 3/4
- Personal response to fiction texts worksheet - Years 5/6
- Personal response to fiction texts question cards

National Curriculum programme of study links

Year 3/4 Reading - comprehension

There should be regular discussion...

Reading And Writing Brand New Activities For Key Stage :

A Guide to Teaching Practice Louis Cohen, Lawrence Manion, Keith Morrison, Dominic Wyse, 2010-06-17 A Guide to Teaching Practice is the major standard text for all students on initial teacher training courses in the UK. Authoritative yet accessible, it covers the important basic skills and issues that students need to consider during their practice, such as planning, classroom organization, behaviour management, and assessment. The book's focus on the quality of teaching and learning, and consideration of the latest regulations and guidelines, ensures that it fits comfortably within TTA and OfSTED frameworks. In addition, comprehensively revised and fully updated, this fifth edition features brand new chapters on the foundation stage, legal issues, learning and teaching, and using ICT in the classroom, as well as new material on numeracy, literacy, children's rights, progress files, and gifted and talented children. This book is the most respected and widely used textbook for initial teacher training courses and will be an essential resource for any student teacher. Caminos 2 -

Teacher's Book Segunda Edición Niobe O'Connor, Amanda Rainger, 2003-09-16 A school Spanish course for beginners. Caminos Segunda Edición has been fully revised and updated to cover the QCA Scheme of Work for Spanish. It is fully differentiated with activities at two levels of difficulty, and additional material on differentiated worksheets provides practice in all four skills at two levels of ability. Additions to the second edition include a stronger focus on grammar, improved and extended ICT offerings, and regular and rigorous assessment. The course has been improved to include comments from users, giving teachers the confidence that their students are provided with all the necessary support. Caminos segunda edición is fully differentiated with activities at two levels of difficulty. Additional material on differentiated worksheets provides even more practice in all four skills at two levels of ability. Teachers Resource Helena Rigby, Betty Root, 1994 The New Reading 360 series is designed to provide a solid literary foundation for infants and build on previous literacy knowledge for juniors. Teachers' resources provide suggestions and tips for lessons and also include photocopiable masters for class use.

Resources in Education, 1998 The Really Practical Guide to Primary English Diana Bentley, 1999 This book contains clear chapter objectives, suggestions for further reading on each topic, and a glossary explaining key terms that the new or trainee teacher will need to understand. The authors, who have all taught English in the primary setting, are experienced teacher trainers and respected practitioners in their own specialist fields. Teachers as Curriculum Designers for Transcultural Communicative Competence Jennifer Eddy, 2025-08-21 What do language instructors consider when faced with new curriculum guidelines? How can teacher leaders encourage learner autonomy and creativity through relevant, purposeful, and novel pupil deliverables? How does this experience change how teachers view their profession? This book guides educators on the design of MFL heritage and community language curriculum and assessment tasks, providing a blueprint for any revision initiative, even within a prescribed national context. This framework, implemented with Curriculum for Wales, engages teachers in design for spiral progression of intercultural themes within MFL heritage and community language curricula. It provides a model for other national curriculum initiatives to encourage uptake via creative task design for both teacher and learner autonomy With language uptake a concern globally this book is applicable to any MFL or heritage language setting This book includes voices from the field where teachers explain their process and how their teacher autonomy provided a model for their pupils and increased their confidence with languages Including 20 exemplars in English with cultural content and instructional strategies for French Spanish German and Welsh this book looks at universal intercultural themes to facilitate application to all languages and cultures
