Reading Chinua Achebe Language And Ideology In Fiction:

Reading Chinua Achebe Simon Gikandi, 1991 Simon Gikandi has set out to reveal the very nature of Achebe's creativity its prodigious complexity and richness its paradoxes and ambiguities

The Fiction of Chinua Achebe Jago Morrison, 2009-07-23 Since the emergence of Things Fall Apart in 1958 Chinua Achebe has come to be regarded by many as the Godfather of modern African writing Over 150 full length studies of his work have been published together with many hundreds of scholarly articles This Reader's Guide enables students to navigate the rich and bewildering field of Achebe criticism setting out the key areas of critical debate the most influential alternative approaches to his work and the controversies that have so often surrounded it The Guide examines Achebe's key novels with the main focus on Things Fall Apart and also discusses his less well known short fiction Including discussion of important Nigerian scholarship that is often inaccessible this is an invaluable introduction to the work of one of Africa's most important and popular writers

A study on the writing style of Chinua Achebe Dr. Ashish Gupta, 2024-03-08 Chinua Achebe was a master that mastered a variety of distinct approaches that authors may use to create tales There are many different ways that writers can tell stories When it comes to creating stories authors have the capacity to use a variety of techniques One of the narrative techniques that Achebe utilised was referred to as flashback and it was included into his work However Achebe utilised a variety of approaches and one of those methods was flashback Whenever we get to this point in the story the story will take us on a trip through time to show us something that took place in the past This book delves into the rich tapestry of Achebe's writing style examining the intricate threads that weave together his exploration of Igbo culture the clash between tradition and colonialism the multi dimensional characters he breathes life into the narrative structures that captivate readers the language and diction that form a linguistic bridge between worlds the social commentary that critiques historical injustices and the symbolism and imagery that elevate his works to realms of profound meaning The work of Achebe is not only a reflection of a particular cultural environment rather it is a mirror that is held up to the intricacies of the human experience As we begin our investigation we will travel across the landscapes of Nigeria's pre colonial and colonial history We will also navigate the twisting routes of Achebe's narratives which merge the past and the present in a seamless manner The individuals that we come across are not only figments of our imagination rather they are manifestations of the internal tensions moral conundrums and the indomitable spirit that characterises mankind in the face of hardship The unfolding of this investigation takes place against the backdrop of Achebe's linguistic artistry which is a dance that captures the spirit of cultural hybridity through the merging of English and Igbo expressions

Stylistic Approaches to Nigerian Fiction D. Tunca, 2014-08-07 Drawing on the discipline of stylistics this book introduces a series of methodological tools and applies them to works by well known Nigerian writers including Abani Adichie and Okri In doing so it demonstrates how attention to form fosters understanding of content in their work as well as in African and postcolonial literatures more widely

Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford s Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa s Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum s Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa s Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola s The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe s Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives Foundational African

Writers Bhhekizizwe Peterson, Khwezi Mkhize, Makhosazana Xaba, 2022 The essays in this collection were crafted in celebration of the centenaries in 2019 of Peter Abrahams Noni Jabavu Sibusiso Cyril Lincoln Nyembezi and Es kia Mphahlele all of whom were born in 1919 All four centenarians lived rich and diverse lives across several continents In the years following the Second World War they produced more than half a century of foundational creative writing and literary criticism and made stellar contributions to institutions and repertoires of African and black arts and letters in South Africa and internationally The range of the centenarians imaginations critical analyses and social interventions spanned disciplinary divides This volume in the same spirit draws on approaches that are equally transdisciplinary Two aims thread through the contributors reflections on the complexities of black existence and of intellectual and cultural life in the twentieth century The first is the exploration of some of the centenarians key texts and cultural projects that shaped their legacies In doing so the volume contributors trace a number of divergent intellectual and aesthetic lineages in their works and organisational activities The second aim is a consideration of the ways in which these foundational writers legacies continue to resonate today confirming their status as crucial contributors to modern African and diasporic black arts and letters Borderlands, 2021-11-08 Boundaries borderlines limits on the one hand and rites of passage contact zones in between spaces on the other have attracted renewed interest in a broad variety of cultural discourses after a long period of decenterings and delimitations in numerous fields of social psychological and intellectual life Anthropological dimensions of the subject and its multifarious ways of world making represent the central challenge among the concerns of the humanities The role of literature and the arts in the formation of cultural and personal identities theoretical and political approaches to the relation between self and other the familiar and the foreign have become key issues in literary and cultural studies forms of expressivity and expression and question of mediation as well as new enquiries into ethics have characterized the intellectual energies of the past decade The aim of Borderlands is to represent a variety of approaches to questions of border crossing and boundary transgression approaches from different angles and different disciplines but all converging in their own way on the post colonial paradigm

Topics discussed include globalization cartography and ontology transitional identity ecocritical sensibility questions of the application of post coloniality gender and sexuality and attitudes towards space and place As well as studies of the cinema of the settler colonies the films of Neil Jordan and Othering in Canadian sports journalism there are treatments of the Nigerian novel South African prison memoirs and African women s writing Authors examined include Elizabeth Bowen Bruce Chatwin Mohamed Choukri Nuruddin Farah Jamaica Kincaid Pauline Melville Bharati Mukherjee Michael Ondaatje and Leslie Marmon Silko     The African Imagination Abiola Irele,2001 F Abiola Irele is an expert on the anglophone and francophone traditions in post colonial African literature This collection of his essays examines African literary traditions in the broad sense and places the work of individual authors in context     Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart Harold Bloom,2010 Things Fall Apart set in Nigeria about a century ago is widely regarded as Chinua Achebe s masterpiece Considered one of the most broadly read African novels Achebe s work responded to the two dimensional caricatures of Africans that often dominated Western literature This invaluable new edition of the study guide contains a selection of the finest contemporary criticism of this classic novel
