Reading Barbara Pym:

Reading Barbara Pym Deborah Donato, 2005 Reading Barbara Pym stakes out new territory in Pym criticism by questioning the assumptions and predispositions by which her novels have been received and judged Early in Pym's career reviews of her novels likened her books in relaxed fashion to delicious tastes and smells Later when mentioned twice in a TLS survey as one of the century's ten most underrated novelists secured and altered her critical reception and since her death in 1980 commentary in oppositely vigilant fashion discovered in Pym's novels academic themes and gender political issues ripe for exploration But the traditional concerns of academic and popular criticism have sidestepped the more challenging task of locating the power and quality of Pym's narrative the reasons her novels are important to read personally as well as study academically Reading Barbara Pym Deborah A. Interdonato, 1996 "All this Reading" Frauke Elisabeth Lenckos, Ellen J. Miller, 2003 The nineteen essays in this volume examine the theme of reading in Pym's books notably the idea that the author is engaged in an ongoing dialogue with those readers for whom reading is a reciprocal act

The Reality behind Barbara Pym's Excellent Women Robin R. Joyce, 2023-02-20 This book analyses Barbara Pym's published and unpublished work through a new image that of the troublesome woman It details the political nature of her work highlighting her feminist ideas which are hidden in village like settings and revealed by troublesome women By exploring Pym's written work published and unpublished diaries and notebooks the book shows that this material gives credence to Hilary Pym's interpretation of her sister as a complex person The Pleasures of the Text Elizabeth Locey, 2002-01-15 Why was Violette Leduc's 1954 novel Thérèse et Isabelle not published in its entirety until November 2000 Under threat of scandal and obscenity charges French publisher Gallimard withheld the novel but Leduc continued to write of her life as a woman writer in wartime Paris frankly depicting her own and imagined lesbian experiences Mentored by Simone de Beauvoir and a contemporary of French twentieth century luminaries Sartre Camus Genet and Cocteau Leduc is however known best as France's great unknown writer In The Pleasures of the Text Elizabeth Locey restores Leduc to her rightful place in the canon bringing to light her singular and important contributions to contemporary literary theory Locey reads Leduc's works from the perspective of reader seduction which erodes the divide between body and text Situating Leduc within a continuum with Emma Bovary and Roland Barthes at its extremes Locey investigates Leduc's use of the erotic touch look and voice to seduce her readers More than an accessible introduction to an overlooked writer The Pleasures of the Text confronts and challenges the philosophical debate between pornography and erotica and pins down some of the often slippery ways pleasure is mapped onto the body of the reader The Making of Barbara Pym Emily Stockard, 2021-11-10 The Making of Barbara Pym offers new insights into Pym's formative years as a writer during which she honed a complex view of the necessity of change on individual and cultural levels Supported by newly published archival material this comprehensive study of Pym's early work explores her personal and fictional pre war and wartime writing including unpublished and posthumously published works before looking closely at Some Tame Gazelle and Excellent Women published during Britain's post war austerity period Of central importance is a new recognition of Pym's use of social roles particularly those of women as proper avenues for change The book traces how Pym came to devise characters whose individual development can be seen as analogous to or representative of larger cultural movements Pym uses the spinster figure to embody the forward looking cultural perspectives that she endorsed and then finally in Jane and Prudence to figure the end of Britain's austerity period The Rhetoric of Women's Humour in Barbara Pym's Fiction Naghmeh

Varghaiyan,2021-04-20 In this study of three of Barbara Pym's novels Naghmeh Varghaiyan drawing on examinations of women's humour by Eileen Gillooly Regina Barreca and others shows how the humorous female discourse in Some Tame Gazelle Excellent Women and Jane and Prudence undermines patriarchal culture and subverts both female and male stereotypes such as that of the spinster and of the Byronic hero Varghaiyan reveals how the rhetoric of women's humour enables Pym's female characters to survive in the patriarchal culture and to unsettle it The Pleasure of Reading Eric Macfarlane,2019-07-23 The Pleasure of Reading reflects on the joys of owning and reading books It looks at the situations that lead people to become keen readers and the ways in which parents and teachers can encourage children's love of stories It is critical of traditional methods of studying literature that deter many children from regarding reading as a pleasurable activity The book also looks at the interests and passions that motivate novelists and the wide range of subjects on which they choose to write the kind of stories they tell the themes that they explore and the skill with which they handle their plots characters and settings Particular attention is given to the novelist's role as a protester against injustice persecution and the abuse of power The Pleasures of Reading Catherine Sheldrick Ross,2014-06-27 Based on years of ground breaking research this book supplies a look at the unique relationship between each text and the individual reader that results in a satisfying pleasurable and even life changing reading experience Following up on her critically acclaimed Reading Matters What the Research Reveals about Reading Libraries and Community Catherine Sheldrick Ross takes a new look at pleasure reading through 30 thought provoking essays based on themes arranged from A to Z In short lively chapters she discusses topics ranging from Alexia Bad Reading and Changing Lives to Romance Fiction Self help Titles Vampires and Year of Reading Drawing on her own research as well as other published sources Ross comments on the significance of each theme provides examples of the phenomenon and develops the topic chronologically through further examples or through reversals The essays are unified by an underlying theory of reading that views readers as sense makers actively engaged in reading themselves into the text and reading the texts back into their own lives It gives educators and librarians insights into their roles with readers and offers a message about the importance of pleasure reading A short list of resources for further reading is supplied with each topic A Reading Diary Alberto Manguel,2011-02-04 The must have literary book of the season Over the course of a year the bestselling author of A History of Reading spends a month with each of his 12 favourite books allowing us to observe both the heart of the reading experience and how life around us can be illuminated by what we read. From June 2002 to May 2003, Alberto Manguel set out to reread twelve of the books he likes best and to share with us his gentle readers his impressions and experiences in doing so. We travel with him as he leaves Canada to set up house in a medieval presbytery in France, visits his childhood home in Argentina, and embarks on trips to various other places, always carrying a book in his hand. The result is an immensely enjoyable collection for every lover of reading, something between an intimate diary, a collection of literary thoughts, and the best travel memoir. A Reading Diary ranges from reflections on much-loved writers (Margaret Atwood, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, H. G. Wells, Cervantes) to seductive introductions to others about whom you will want to know more (such as Sei Shonagon and Adolfo Bioy Casares), simultaneously providing insights into the world of today, its changing seasons and pleasures, its shifting politics and wars, all illuminated by the great novel he is reading at the time. A Reading Diary is a walk through a year's worth of best-beloved books in the company of an eclectically learned friend. Touching on themes of home and wandering, memory and loss, Alberto Manguel perfectly traces the threads between our reading and our lived experience.

Excerpt from A Reading Diary, June Saturday: We have been in our house in France for just over a year, and already I have to leave to visit my family in Buenos Aires. I don't want to go. I want to enjoy the village in summer, the garden, the house kept cool by the thick ancient walls. I want to start setting up the books on the shelves we have just had built. I want to sit in my room and work. On the plane, I pull out a copy of Adolfo Bioy Casares's The Invention of Morel, the tale of a man stranded on an island that is apparently inhabited by ghosts, a book I read for the first time thirty-three years ago.
