Seeing Catalonia:

Catalonia's Human Towers Mariann Vaczi, 2023-07-18 The building of human towers castells is a centuries old traditional sport where hundreds of men women and children gather in Catalan squares to create breathtaking edifices through a feat of collective athleticism The result is a great spectacle of effort and overcoming tension and release Catalonia's Human Towers is an ethnographic look at the thriving castells practice a symbol of Catalan cultural heritage and identity amid debates around national autonomy and secession from Spain While the main function of building castells is to grow community through a low cost intergenerational and inclusive leisure activity Mariann Vaczi reveals how this unique sport also provides a social base image and vocabulary for the independence movement Highlighting the intersection of folklore performance and sport Catalonia's Human Towers captures the subtle processes by which the body becomes politicized and ideology becomes embodied with all the desires risks and precarities of collective constructions Seeing in Spanish Ryan Prout, Tilmann Altenberg, 2011-05-25 Seeing in Spanish brings together 22 chapters which share a focus on aspects of visual cultures from the Spanish speaking world Together these chapters address film photography cover art body art posters television architecture ekphrasis biography murals graffiti and digital photo montage Between Don Quixote and Daddy Yankee the essays move from the seventeenth century to the present and traverse Europe the Americas and cyberspace The book is divided into five sections The first of these on Spain includes chapters on the representation of women on LP covers in Spain in the 60s and 70s portrayals in Spanish cinema of Saint Teresa Luis Buñuel's adaptation of Tristana urban and rural space in recent Spanish documentary film Catalan television fine art in Don Quixote and visions of adoption in three narratives by Spanish writers and filmmakers The second section on Mexico and Peru includes chapters on the fragmentary body in images of Mexico the art of Abraham Angel Jesú s Ruiz Durand's agrarian reform posters Diego Rivera's murals and the role of artistic production in staging the 2006 Oaxaca conflict The third section on Cuba looks at the portrayal of women and of children in recent cinema from the island It also examines Nancy Morejón's celebration of the life and art of exiled Cuban artist Ana Mendieta Section four includes chapters on Chile and Argentina It addresses street art and graffiti new forms of publishing Chilean cinema after Pinochet and Violeta Parra's appliqué and collage works Section five embraces Colombia Bolivia and virtual spaces The contributions to this last section of the book examine childhood in Colombian cinema the online creativity of pro and anti fans of reggaeton and the photographic diaries of T Ifor Rees the UK's first ambassador to Bolivia In addition to the geo political structure which underpins the book's five sections the introduction suggests pathways through the contributions focussed on public art and graffiti women children cyberspace and diplomacy and reconstruction and disintegration Seeing in Spanish includes 50 illustrations stills from films photographs reproductions of paintings and screen grabs from the internet which complement the chapters analyses of aspects of Hispanic visual cultures To aid accessibility footnotes throughout the book provide English translations of all references from texts in other languages Taken together the book's 22 chapters make a valuable contribution to the existing literature on figures like Don Quixote and Saint Teresa. They also break new ground in approaches to novel areas of scholarship such as sleeve design, artisanal book production and digital image manipulation. The book will appeal to students and scholars of Spain and Latin America as well as to a general readership with an interest in the visual cultures of the Spanish speaking world.

A Citizen's Democracy in Authoritarian Times Thomas S. Harrington, 2019-01-08 Agents of sedition who are heedlessly destroying Spain's consolidated democracy. Xenophobes simply interested in protecting their own wealth who are behind the rhetoric, not that different from the tribal authoritarians coming to the fore in Hungary and northern Italy. These are but two of the many narrative tropes the Spanish government and the establishment press in Europe and the US are rolling out to counter the rise of separatist sentiment in Catalonia. In this book Thomas S. Harrington, an American with a deep familiarity with Catalan culture and history, argues that far from being a threat to democracy in Europe, the scrupulously peaceful and people-driven movement for independence in Catalonia is perhaps the best hope we have for spurring its much hoped-for renewal.

Migration and the Construction of National Identity in Spain Désirée Kleiner-Liebau, 2009 Public debate about immigrant integration has often led to a heightened awareness or even a collective redefinition of identity. Such processes are studied through the unique example of Spain.

Marginal Voices, Marginal Forms, 2023-11-27 Diaristic writing has often been relegated to the fringes of literary studies as a marginal cultural activity. This volume seeks to challenge that marginality by exploring some of the wide-ranging forms of literary practice encompassed by diaristic writing in Europe from the Renaissance to the present day. The volume deals with questions of the value and status of the diary, of the functioning of the diary in society and history and of the reception and interpretation of the multifarious forms of first person daily writing The volume investigates diaries across national borders and linguistic boundaries so as to make the hitherto marginal place of the private journal a site of fruitful interdisciplinary encounters Australian British Catalanian French German and Italian critics examine diaries dating from the sixteenth to the twentieth century within the context of the literature history and literary history of Catalonia England France Germany and Italy A prime concern of the essays in this collection is to highlight the cultural generic and historical diversity of the diary while emphasising the points of convergence between different texts and differing critical approaches to the texts The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of European and comparative literature

Conflict, Cultural Heritage and Peace Colin Breen, 2023-06-30 Conflict Cultural Heritage and Peace offers a series of conceptual and applied frameworks to help understand the role cultural heritage plays within conflict and the potential it has to contribute to positive peacebuilding and sustainable development in post conflict societies Designed as a resource guide this general volume introduces the multiple roles cultural heritage plays through the conflict cycle from its onset subsequent escalation and through to resolution and recovery In its broadest sense it questions what role cultural heritage plays within conflict how cultural heritage is used in the construction and justification of conflict narratives how are these narratives framed and often manipulated to support particular perspectives and how we can develop better understandings of cultural heritage and work towards the better protection of cultural heritage resources during conflict It moves beyond the protection paradigm and recognises that cultural heritage can contribute to building peace and reconciliation in post conflict environments The study offers a conceptual and operational framework to understand the roles cultural heritage plays within conflict cycles how it can be targeted during war and the potential cultural heritage has in positive peacebuilding across the conflict lifecycle Conflict Cultural Heritage and Peace offers an invaluable introduction to cultural heritage at all stages in conflict scenarios which will benefit students researchers and practitioners in the field of heritage environment peace and conflict studies

Contemporary Minority Nationalism Michael Watson, 2013-09-13 Minority nationalism is a significant not to say potent force in the modern world In many countries new problems of and for minority nationalism have recently surfaced This book presents a wide ranging examination of the state of minority nationalism in the 1970s and 1980s It considers many different cases in detail Britain Ireland the Soviet Union Canada France Spain and South Africa It explores the political and socio economic circumstances surrounding minority nationalism analyses its successes and failures in recent years and looks at an exhaustive range of issues the structures and politics of minority nationalist movements relations with governments ideology attitudes to human rights and so on Interestingly it views both Afrikaners in South Africa and Protestants in Northern Ireland as cases of minority nationalists in dominant positions finding it increasingly difficult to maintain their positions

Localism and the Design of Political Systems Rick Harmes, 2020-12-30 This book examines localism as a political idea and policy approach and explains what localism is about why it is growing in importance and how it relates to other themes in politics Illustrated with case studies from the United Kingdom mainland Europe and the Indian sub continent the book analyses localism in conceptual and theoretical terms and locates it within the overall landscape of political thought Key themes covered in the book include place space and scale decentralization and devolution multi level governance public value democracy and empowerment and political design With the focus on the bottom up constructivist aspects of localism the book argues that localism is most likely to work successfully in a political order where sovereignty is distributed across various social spheres and levels of government It offers a comprehensive view of localism by synthesizing its various strands and creating a distinctive framework for design and evaluation This book will be of particular interest to scholars students and practitioners of localism particularly within local and regional government public administration and policy human and political geography and urban studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Migration Within the EU Context, Seen through a Multidisciplinary and Plurilingual View Francesca Cappellini, Paolo Gambatesa, Alvaro Dickson Molinares Valencia, Jan Pokorný, 2025-07-11 Explore the intricate interplay between law language and migration in the 21st century with this cutting edge collection It offers a fresh interdisciplinary approach from the perspective of early career scholars and legal practitioners with expertise in law and linguistics This collection aims to provide insights into today's global migration landscape through the lens of corpus linguistics and analysis of relevant legislation and case law It focuses on challenges faced by migrants at national and supranational levels and examines the transformative potential of inclusive integration Designed for legal scholars linguists policymakers and anyone interested in human rights and migration this book challenges conventional arguments and offers actionable insights In an increasingly interconnected world this volume aims to become essential reading for those dedicated to fostering social cohesion and inclusivity By bridging the gap between law linguistics and migration studies it empowers readers to contribute meaningfully to the ongoing migration discourse

Knowledge of God and the Development of Early Kabbalah Jonathan Dauber, 2012-08-01 In Knowledge of God and the Development of Early Kabbalah Jonathan Dauber offers a fresh consideration of the emergence and early development of Kabbalah against the backdrop of a re evaluation of the relationship between early Kabbalistic and philosophic discourse He argues that the first Kabbalists adopted a philosophic ethos that was foreign to traditional Rabbinic Judaism but had taken root in Languedoc and Catalonia under the influence of newly available philosophical materials In this ethos the act of investigating God was accorded great religious significance and it was its adoption by the first Kabbalists that helped spur them to engage in their investigations of God and in so doing develop Kabbalah

Nationalism and Intra-State Conflicts in the Postcolonial World Fonkem Achankeng, 2015-09-28 This book highlights the complexities of nationalism and the struggles of different groups left unaddressed within the nation states of a postcolonial world The central question is what happened to the worldly and radical visions of freedom liberty and equality that animated intellectual activists and policy makers from Woodrow Wilson in the 1920s This book analyzes the outcome of lumping disparate groups of people together under one nation state and holding them together against the knowledge of the incompatibility theory of plural states In a world of arbitrarily and colonially mapped sovereign states groups and nations with distinctive histories and cultures trapped within the borders of sovereign states want the freedom to decide their own destinies This book challenges deconstructs and decolonizes Western epistemologies related to postcolonial state formation and maintenance In examining the freedom concept that no human group ought to be determining the independence of other human groups this book constructs an alternative conceptualization of nations and peoples rights in the twenty first century in which radical hopes and global dreams are recognized as central to internal nationalism struggles

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula César Domínguez, Anxo Abuín González, Ellen Sapega, 2016-10-20 Volume 2 of A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula brings to an end this collective work that aims at surveying the network of interliterary relations in the Iberian Peninsula No attempt at such a comparative history of literatures in the Iberian Peninsula has been made until now In this volume the focus is placed on images Section 1 genres Section 2 forms of mediation Section 3 and cultural studies and literary repertoires Section 4 To these four sections an epilogue is added in which specialists in literatures in the Iberian Peninsula as well as in the sub disciplines of comparative history and comparative literary history search for links between Volumes 1 and 2 from the point of view of general contributions to the field of Iberian comparative studies and assess the entire project that now reaches completion with contributions from almost one hundred scholars
