Intellectual Property Law in Africa Caroline B. Ncube, 2023-06-29 Examining the harmonisation of Intellectual Property policy law and administration in Africa this book evaluates the effectiveness of efforts to establish continental Intellectual Property institutions and frameworks It also considers sub regional initiatives led by the regional economic communities and the regional Intellectual Property organisations focusing on relevant protocols and agreements that address Intellectual Property as well as the implementing institutions The book assesses the progress of such initiatives with particular reference to the current socio economic status of African states It argues that that harmonisation initiatives need to be crafted in a way that is supportive of the developmental goals of African states and advocates for due consideration of individual states unique conditions and aspirations This book will be of great relevance to scholars and policy makers with an interest in Intellectual Property law and its harmonisation in Africa

Intellectual Property and International Trade: The TRIPS Agreement Carlos M. Correa, Abdulqawi A. Yusuf, 2016-06-27 The Agreement on Trade Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS is the most far reaching and comprehensive legal regime ever concluded at the multilateral level in the area of intellectual property rights IPR Compared to prior IPR conventions TRIPS constitutes a major qualitative leap which radically modifies not only the context in which IPR are considered internationally but also their substantive content and the methods for their enforcement and dispute settlement This much welcomed treatise now in its third edition thoroughly updates its comprehensive analysis of the substantive provisions of the Agreement and their actual interpretation and application in different jurisdictions with new material on the burgeoning case law and on major changes in plant variety protection As in previous editions the book may be relied upon for in depth clarification of such matters as the following standards established under the agreement enforcement measures social and legal issues legal and policy possibilities offered legislative latitude allowed to WTO Member States incorporation of TRIPS into domestic law protection of integrated circuit design protection of innovation and R challenges raised by ongoing technological changes access to medicines protection of confidential undisclosed information and interface between competition law and intellectual property protection With fifteen chapters contributed by a distinguished panel of experts representing diverse parties international organisations legal practice government policy and academia the third edition offers an incomparable framework for understanding the background principles and complex provisions of the TRIPS Agreement Thoroughly revised and updated the third edition will be of great value to all professionals and business people concerned with international trade It stimulates further discussion and analysis in this area of growing importance to international law and international economic relations particularly regarding the possibilities offered by the Agreement and the loose ends that may need consideration in the future at the national or international level

The Policy Space in International Intellectual Property Law Emmanuel Kolawole Oke,2022-04-19 The Policy Space in International Intellectual Property Law presents a critical and original examination of the policy space in international intellectual property law through the unique lens of glocalisation Distinguishing between the unregulated local space and the regulated glocal space as distinct components of this policy space it contends that it is within the glocal space that states can resist or adapt the globalising waves flowing from the international intellectual property system It discusses both the contours and the components of this glocal space It further highlights the important role that the WTO s adjudicatory bodies play in preserving this glocal space in international intellectual property law

Negotiating Health Pedro Roffe,Geoff Tansey,David Vivas-Eugui,2012-04-27 In developing countries access to affordable medicines for the treatment of diseases such as AIDS and malaria remains a matter of life or death In Africa for instance more than one million children die each year from malaria alone a figure which could soon be far higher with the extension of patent rules for pharmaceuticals Previously access to essential medicines was made possible by the supply of much cheaper generics manufactured largely by India from 2005 however the availability of these drugs is threatened as new WTO rules take effect Halting the spread of malaria and HIV AIDS is one of the eight Millennium Goals adopted at the UN Millennium Summit which makes this a timely and topical book Informed analysis is provided by internationally renowned contributors who look at the post 2005 world and discuss how action may be taken to ensure that intellectual property regimes are interpreted and implemented in a manner supportive to the right to protect public health and in particular to promote access to medicines for all

Intellectual Property Law in Poland Piotr Machnikowski,Agnieszka Górnica-Mulcahy,2017-06-20 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this monograph provides a survey and analysis of the rules concerning intellectual property rights in Poland It covers every type of intellectual property right in depth copyright and neighbouring rights patents utility models trademarks trade names industrial designs plant variety protection chip protection trade secrets and confidential information Particular attention is paid throughout to recent developments and trends The analysis approaches each right in terms of its sources in law and in legislation and proceeds to such legal issues as subject matter of protection conditions of protection ownership transfer of rights licences scope of exclusive rights limitations exemptions duration of protection infringement available remedies and overlapping with other intellectual property rights The book provides a clear overview of intellectual property legislation and policy and at the same time offers practical guidance on which sound preliminary decisions may be based Lawyers representing parties with interests in Poland will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative intellectual property law Law and Development John Hatchard, Amanda Perry-Kessaris, 2003-03-12 This new book is an edited collection of papers arising from a conference on Law and Development in the twenty first century held in 2001 It is in honour of the work of Dr Peter Slinn Intellectual Property Law in China Peter Ganeva, Thomas Pattloch, Christopher Heath, 2005-01-01 This is one in a series of country reports on the intellectual property systems of Asia The authors and editors note the difficulty of obtaining authentic source material but nevertheless provide as comprehensive a view of China's intellectual property protection as possible
