Mills,2009-07-01 Stranded in the Philippines is based on the memoirs of Professor Henry Roy Bell and his wife Edna After graduation from Emporia College in Kansas they had gone to the Philippines in 1921 to teach at Silliman a missionary school founded by Presbyterians in 1901 The Bell family was stranded in the Philippines after the attack on Pearl Harbor This is their story from then until they were evacuated by a submarine on February 6 1944 When the Japanese occupied their island of Negros Prof Bell first took his family into the hills to avoid Japanese soldiers on the coast But in time some of Bell s recent students climbed to the Bell family s retreat and persuaded Bell to support them in their harassment of Japanese soldiers but only in food Yet in time the young men acquired enough arms on their own to clash with the nearby enemy garrison They inflicted heavy losses and fatally wounded the garrison commander By steps he became fully involved with the resistance He became a major in the island wide guerrilla force which he helped organize an intelligence network for MacArthur's headquarters. Despite the organizing success the Bells were facing certain capture. With the help from the now well organized guerrilla forces the family crossed the island for evacuation by the huge cargo submarine Narwhal when it delivered arms and ammunition for the guerrillas the night of the rendezvous.

The Unwanted John McKendrick Hughes, 2005-05-20 The Unwanted is the personal memoir of John McKendrick Hughes a Canadian farmer who also happened to be an Major in the local militia who joined the army in 1915. Upon his arrival in England in the fall of 1916 John discovered that the British Army did not want Canadian militia officers whom they considered to be rank amateurs. Unwanted by the British Army but not allowed by the Canadian government to return home John determined to serve his country in any way he could. He did this by becoming an Agricultural Officer for the British 2nd Army one of many unwanted Canadian officers who served in ways they could not have imagined when they enlisted. Working at Army Headquarters John rubbed shoulders on a daily basis with dozens of high ranking officers many of whom were members of the British upper class. As an outsider he was able to see them simply as men not as lords, dukes and earls yet by virtue of his HQ posting and his own skills as a farmer and organizer he was often treated as an insider one of the club. The work John was doing raising food for the Army immediately behind the front lines was new to everyone involved. There were no regulations detailing how it was to be done and he often had to improvise as he went along breaking the rules that applied to other military operations aided and abetted by his commanding officers who often made sure he didn't know the rules. After the war John was seconded to the Armistice Commission and posted to Cologne Germany where he inspected agricultural equipment and enjoyed a season of opera. He returned to Canada in 1919.
