Rex Miller,Bill Latham,Brian Cahill,2016-10-24 A clear roadmap for the new territory of education Education in the U S has been under fire for quite some time and for good reason The numbers alone tell a very disconcerting story according to various polls 70% of teachers are disengaged Add to that the fact that the United States ranks last among industrialized nations for college graduation levels and it s evident there s a huge problem that needs to be addressed Yet the current education system and its school buildings with teachers standing in front of classrooms and lecturing to students have gone largely unchanged since the 19th century Humanizing the Education Machine tackles this tough issue head on It describes how the education system has become ineffective by not adapting to fit students needs learning styles perspectives and lives at home This book explains how schools can evolve to engage students and involve parents It serves to spread hope for reform and equip parents educators administrators and communities to Analyze the pitfalls of the current U S education system Intelligently argue the need to reform the current landscape of education Work to make a difference in the public education system Be an informed advocate for your child or local school system If you re a concerned parent or professional looking for a trusted resource on the need for education reform look no further than Humanizing the Education Machine This illuminating resource provides the information you need to become a full partner in the new human centered learning

The Protection of Non-Traditional Trademarks Martin Senftleben,2019-01-11 This volume offers a detailed analysis of the issues related to the protection of non traditional marks In recent years the domain of trademark law and the scope of trademark protection has grown exponentially Today a wide variety of non traditional marks including colour sound smell and shape marks can be registered in many jurisdictions However this expansion of trademark protection has led to heated discussions and controversies about the impact of the protection of non traditional marks on freedom of competition and more generally on socially valuable use of these or similar signs in unrelated non commercial contexts These tensions have also led to increasing litigation in this area across several jurisdictions This book provides an overview of the debate and state of the law surrounding non traditional marks at the international regional and national level In particular this book addresses relevant international treaties administered by the World Intellectual Property Organization WIPO and the Agreement on Trade Related Aspects to Intellectual Property Rights TRIPS as well as several regional and national legislations and leading judicial decisions in order to examine current law and practice culminating in critical reflections and suggestions on the topic This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 3 0 licence It is free to read
