Charles Freeman,2023-02-07 A monumental and exhilarating history of European thought from the end of Antiquity to the beginning of the Enlightenment 500 to 1700 AD tracing the arc of intellectual history as it evolved setting the stage for the modern era With more than 140 illustrations 90 in full color Charles Freeman lauded historical scholar and author of The Closing of the Western Mind A triumph The Times London explores the rebirth of Western thought in the centuries that followed the demise of the classical era As the dominance of Christian teachings gradually subsided over time a new open mindedness made way for the ideas of morality and theology and fueled and formed the backbone of the Western mind of the late Middle Ages the Renaissance and beyond In this wide ranging history Freeman follows the immense intellectual development that culminated in the Enlightenment from political ideology to philosophy and theology as well as the fine arts and literature He writes in vivid detail of how Europeans progressed from the Christian minded thinking of Saint Augustine to the more open minded later scholars such as Michel de Montaigne leading to a broader more humanist way of thinking He explores how the discovery of America fundamentally altered European conceptions of humanity religion and science how the rise of Protestantism and the Reformation profoundly influenced the tenor of politics and legal systems with enormous repercussions and how the radical Christianity of philosophers such as Spinoza affected a rethinking of the concept of religious tolerance that has influenced the modern era ever since The Journal of Prison Discipline and Philanthropy ,1911 The Christian Advocate ,1924 1832-1836 Thomas Carlyle,1888 Newspaper World ,1929 Pennsylvania Journal of Prison Discipline and Philanthropy ,1911 The 20th Century Council of Europe,2002-01-01 This publication contains the papers presented at the final conference of a Council of Europe project on teaching resources for 20th century European history which was held in March 2001 The conference brought together distinguished historians and writers from across Europe to discuss a range of issues regarding the teaching of 20th century European history and to assess teaching resources which encourage historical critical analysis amongst teachers and students Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1903 India News ,1961 Oliver Optic's Magazine Oliver Optic,1867 M-libraries Mohamed Ally,Gill Needham,2008 Mobile Phone Ownership is considerably more ubiquitous than internet access via personal computers more and more people around the world are carrying a tiny mobile device of some kind in their pocket or handbag The environment in which people find and use information is changing we are busier we are constantly on the move and whether we are shopping booking a holiday or looking for train times we expect instant results What does all this mean for libraries The development of networked technologies opened up huge opportunities for libraries to make their resources and services accessible to their users regardless of distance The opportunity to deliver these to users via their mobile phones PDAs and other handheld devices will be as significant a challenge Indeed if libraries choose to ignore this challenge they are in danger of being left behind in an increasingly competitive world of information provision and services This authoritative collection of contributions from experts in the field based on the First International M Libraries Conference explores the technical and social context for m libraries describes a range of global initiatives with lessons learned and discusses the potential for future development

BOOK JACKET Tinderbox James Andrew Miller, 2021-11-23

Tinderbox tells the exclusive explosive uninhibited true story of HBO and how it burst onto the American scene and screen to detonate a revolution and transform our relationship with television forever The Sopranos Game of Thrones Sex and the City The Wire Succession HBO has long been the home of epic shows as well as the source for brilliant new movies news making documentaries and controversial sports journalism By thinking big trashing tired formulas and killing off cliches long past their primes HBO shook off the shackles of convention and led the way to a bolder world of content opening the door to all that was new original and worthy of our attention In Tinderbox award winning journalist James Andrew Miller uncovers a bottomless trove of secrets and surprises revealing new conflicts insights and analysis As he did to great acclaim with SNL in Live from New York with ESPN in Those Guys Have All the Fun and with talent agency CAA in Powerhouse Miller continues his record of extraordinary access to the most important voices this time speaking with talents ranging from Abrams J J to Zendaya as well as every single living president of HBO and hundreds of other major players Over the course of more than 750 interviews with key sources Miller reveals how fraught HBO's journey has been capturing the drama and the comedy off camera and inside boardrooms as HBO created and mobilized a daring new content universe and in doing so reshaped storytelling and upended our entertainment lives forever
