Looking For Orlando:

Sally Potter Catherine Fowler, 2010-10-01 This survey of Sally Potter's work explores her cinematic development from the feminist reworking of La Bohème in Thriller to the provocative contemplation of romantic relationships after 9/11 in Yes. Catherine Fowler traces a clear trajectory of developing themes and preoccupations and shows how Potter uses song, dance, performance and poetry to expand our experience of cinema beyond the audiovisual. Potter has relentlessly struggled against predictability and safe options. Again and again her works grapple with the complexities of being a woman in charge. Instead of the quest to find a romantic partner that drives mainstream cinema, Potter's films feature characters seeking answers to questions about their sexual, gendered, social, cultural and ethnic identities. They find answers by retelling stories, investigating mysteries and traveling and interacting with people. At the heart of Potter's work is a concern with the ways narrative circumscribes women's ability to act, speak, look, desire and think for themselves. Her first two films, Thriller and The Gold Diggers, largely deconstruct found stories, clichés and images. By contrast, later films like Orlando and The Tango Lesson create new and original narratives that place female acts, voices, looks, desires and thoughts at their center. Fowler's analysis is supplemented by a detailed filmography, bibliography and an extensive interview with the director. The Body and the Screen Kate Ince, 2017-01-12 Winner of the British Association of Film, Television and Screen Studies Best Book Prize 2018. Since the 1980s, the number of women regularly directing films has increased significantly in most Western countries. In France, Claire Denis and Catherine Breillat have joined Agnès Varda in gaining international renown, while British directors Lynne Ramsay and Andrea Arnold have forged award-winning careers in feature film. This new volume in the Thinking Cinema series draws on feminist philosophers and theorists from Simone de Beauvoir on to offer readings of a range of the most important and memorable of these films from the 1990s and 2000s, focusing as it does so on how the films convey women's lives and identities. Mainstream entertainment cinema traditionally distorts the representation of women, objectifying their bodies, minimizing their agency and avoiding the most important questions about how cinema can do justice to female subjectivity. Kate Ince suggests that the films of independent women directors are progressively redressing the balance, reinvigorating both the narratives and the formal ambitions of European cinema. Ince uses feminist philosophers to interpret such films as Sex Is Comedy, Morvern Callar, White Material and Fish Tank anew, suggesting that a philosophical understanding of female subjectivity as embodied and ethical should underpin future feminist film study. The Bloomsbury Look Wendy Hitchmough, 2020-10-02 An in-depth study of how the famed Bloomsbury Group expressed their liberal philosophies and collective identity in visual form. Fascinating and wide-ranging, it will be enjoyed by both Bloomsbury aficionados and newcomers alike. Lucinda Willan. V.A. Magazine. The Bloomsbury Group was a loose collective of forward-thinking writers, artists and intellectuals in London, with Virginia Woolf, John Maynard Keynes and E.M. Forster among its esteemed members. The group's works and radical beliefs spanning literature, economics, politics and non-normative relationships changed the course of 20th century culture and society Although its members resisted definition their art and dress imparted a coherent distinctive group identity Drawing on unpublished photographs and extensive new research The Bloomsbury Look is the first in depth analysis of how the Bloomsbury Group generated and broadcast its self fashioned aesthetic One chapter is dedicated to photography which was essential to the group s visual narrative from casual snapshots to amateur studio portraits to family albums Others examine the Omega Workshops as a design center and the evidence for its dress collections spreading the Bloomsbury aesthetic to the general public Finally the book considers the group s extensive participation in 20th century modernism as artists models curators critics and collectors The Shakespeare Trade Barbara Hodgdon,1998 Hodgdon s work should be required reading for anyone concerned with Shakespeare s cultural capital at the end of the twentieth century South Atlantic Review The Literary Digest ,1919 Vanished at Sea Tina Dirmann,2008-01-02 Dirmann tells the true story of Skylar Deleon a former child actor on the TV series Power Rangers who was charged of the 2004 double murder of a wealthy retired couple in Long Beach California photos Original Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith,Francis Walton,1887 County Reports and Maps ... Braxton and Clay Counties West Virginia Geological and Economic Survey,1917 County Reports ,1917 Braxton and Clay Counties West Virginia Geological and Economic Survey,Ray Vernon Hennen,1917 The Plays & Poems Robert Greene,1905 The Plays & Poems of Robert Greene Robert Greene,1905 The Christian Union Henry Ward Beecher,1887 First Comes Love, then Comes Malaria Eve Brown-Waite,2010-04-13 In this hilarious memoir a pampered city girl falls head over little black heels in love with a Peace Corps poster boy and follows him literally to the ends of the earth Eve Brown always thought she would join the Peace Corps someday although she secretly worried about life without sushi frothy coffee drinks and air conditioning But with college diploma in hand it was time to put up or shut up So with some ambivalence she arrived at the Peace Corps office sporting her best safari chic attire to casually look into the steps one might take to become a global humanitarian ala Angelina Jolie But when Eve meets John her dashing young Peace Corps recruiter all her ambivalence flies out the window She absolutely must join the Peace Corps and win John s heart in the process After spending a year in the jungle in Ecuador she runs back to the states vowing to stay within easy reach of a decaf cappuccino for the rest of her days Just as she s getting reacquainted with the joys of toilet paper John gets a job with CARE and Eve must decide if she s up for life in another third world outpost Before you can say pass the malaria prophylaxis the couple heads off to Uganda and the fun really begins if you call having rats in your toilet fun Fortunately in Eve s case you certainly can because to her every experience is an adventure to embrace and the pages come alive with all of the poignant and uproarious details From intestinal parasites to getting caught in a civil war culture clashes to unexpected friendships First Comes Love then Comes Malaria is an honest and laugh out loud look at Eve s misadventures as an aspiring do gooder and her search for love and purpose which she finds in the last place she expected Queer Looks Martha Gever,Pratibha Parmar,John Greyson,1993

Queer Looks is a collection of writing by video artists filmmakers and critics which explores the recent explosion of lesbian and gay independent media culture A compelling compilation of artists statements and critical theory producer interviews and image text works this anthology demonstrates the vitality of queer artists under attack and fighting back Each maker and writer deploys a surprising array of techniques and tactics negotiating the difficult terrain between street pragmatism and theoretical inquiry finding voices rich in chutzpah and subtlety From guerilla Super 8 in Manila to AIDS video activism in New York Queer Looks zooms in on this very queer place in media culture revealing a wealth of strategies a plurality of aesthetics and an artillery of resistances
