Rhetoric, Religion and the Civil Rights Movement, 1954-1965 Davis W. Houck, David E. Dixon, 2006 V 2 Building upon their critically acclaimed first volume Davis W Houck and David E Dixon s new Rhetoric Religion and the Civil Rights Movement 1954 1965 is a recovery project of enormous proportions Houck and Dixon have again combed church archives government documents university libraries and private collections in pursuit of the civil rights movement s long buried eloquence Their new work presents fifty new speeches and sermons delivered by both famed leaders and little known civil rights activists on national stages and in quiet shacks The speeches carry novel insights into the ways in which individuals and communities utilized religious rhetoric to upset the racial status quo in divided America during the civil rights era Houck and Dixon s work illustrates again how a movement so prominent in historical scholarship still has much to teach us
