The Scandinavian Model Robert Erikson,1987 Part I of this book is devoted to the development of Scandanavian societies from agrarian societies to modern industrial economies and welfare states Three of the chapters in Part II analyse particular welfare problems those of inequality poverty and redistribution the final essay deals with women s position in the welfare state The papers included in Part III present theory and methods of welfare research On Top of the World Bruce O. Solheim,2000-01-30 An examination of the political and social characteristics particular to Scandinavia which have made women s rise to power more rapid than in other regions of the world this study also explores how the resulting election of women has provided valuable evidence of the impact of women leaders and their leadership style Solheim begins with a critical survey of feminist scholarship regarding the equality difference debate and the application of such research on the position of women in international politics He concludes in this respect that leadership style may have less to do with gender than one might initially suspect Archival research and interviews with women in leadership roles provide the reader with a closer look at the Scandinavian system a view that will challenge gender stereotypes around the world On Top of the World explores the Nordic political systems in great detail and analyzes systemic factors such as multi party electoral systems and consensus seeking cultural institutions which contribute to the rise of so many women leaders Solheim compares and contrasts the political rise of two Nordic women leaders to power and influence and for the purpose of cross cultural comparison one woman leader from the developing world A final chapter ties together the theoretical framework and the case studies to suggest a direction for future research Northern Europe Trudy Ring,Noelle Watson,Paul Schellinger,2013-10-28 First published in 1996 Volume 2 of the International Dictionary of Historical Places covers Northern Europe British Isles to Russia out of a set of five The dictionary spans from Aachen to Ypres and includes an index by country This five volume set presents some 1 000 comprehensive and fully illustrated histories of the most famous sites in the world Entries include location description and site details and a 3 000 to 4 000 word essay that provides a full history of the site and its condition today An annotated further reading list of books and articles about the site completes each entry Europe Andrew John Herbertson,1919 *Descriptive geographies from original sources, selected by F.D.
