English Literature for the IB Diploma David James,Nic Amy,2011-08-04 For students studying the revised Language A Literature syllabus in English for the IB Diploma Written by experienced practising IB English teachers this new title is a clear and concise guide to studying the revised Language A Literature syllabus in English for the IB Diploma Available in print and e book formats it covers all parts of the Language A Literature programme at both Standard and Higher Levels and contains a wide variety of text extracts including works originally written in English and World literature in translation Integrated into the coursebook are information and guidance on assessment Theory of Knowledge opportunities Extended Essay suggestions and activities to help students read think discuss write and present ideas Children of Lucifer Ruben van Luijk,2016-05-02 If we are to believe sensationalist media coverage Satanism is at its most benign the purview of people who dress in black adorn themselves with skull and pentagram paraphernalia and listen to heavy metal At its most sinister its adherents are worshippers of evil incarnate and engage in violent and perverse secret rituals the details of which mainstream society imagines with a fascination verging on the obscene Children of Lucifer debunks these facile characterizations by exploring the historical origins of modern Satanism Ruben van Luijk traces the movement s development from a concept invented by a Christian church eager to demonize its internal and external competitors to a positive anti religious identity embraced by various groups in the modern West Van Luijk offers a comprehensive intellectual history of this long and unpredictable trajectory This story involves Romantic poets radical anarchists eccentric esotericists Decadent writers and schismatic exorcists among others and culminates in the establishment of the Church of Satan by carnival entertainer Anton Szandor LaVey Yet it is more than a collection of colorful characters and unlikely historical episodes The emergence of new attitudes toward Satan proves to be intimately linked to the ideological struggle for emancipation that transformed the West and is epitomized by the American and French Revolutions. It is also closely connected to secularization that other exceptional historical process which saw Western culture spontaneously renounce its traditional gods and enter into a self-imposed state of religious indecision. Children of Lucifer makes the case that the emergence of Satanism presents a shadow history of the evolution of modern civilization as we know it. Offering the most comprehensive account of this history yet written, van Luijk proves that in the case of Satanism the facts are much more interesting than the fiction.

The Arts of Deception James W. Cook, 2001. In The Arts of Deception James Cook explores the distinctly modern mode of trickery designed to puzzle the eye and challenge the brain. Upsetting the normally strict boundaries of value, race, class, and truth, the spectacles offer a revealing look at the tastes, concerns, and prejudices of America's very first mass audiences.

God and the Gothic Alison Milbank, 2018. Alison Milbank provides a complete reimagining of the Gothic literary canon to examine its engagement with theological ideas, tracing its origins to the apocalyptic critique of the Reformation, female martyrs, and to the Dissolution of the monasteries now seen as usurping authorities.

Paradise Preserved Max F. Schulz, 1985. Examines the ways in which the idea of an earthly paradise inspired English life and thought in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.
