Neglected Poems And Other Creatures:

Neglected Poems and Other Creatures Barry Humphries, 1991 Collection of previously unpublished poems including some by the author's famous stage characters Sir Les Patterson Dame Edna Everage and Barry Mackenzie Some of them were previously published in magazines such as TPRivate Eye and TQuadrant A Portrait of the Artist as Australian Paul Matthew St. Pierre, 2004 This book is the first critical assessment of Humphries' entire oeuvre especially his career as an author Arguing that Humphries is one of Australia's greatest writers the author reveals a multi-faceted artist whose success is rooted in the British music hall tradition Dadaism and grotesquerie Being Australian has also fundamentally shaped the performer and writer and the author's defence of Humphries against charges of expatriatism is pertinent to the debate on Australian national identity Encyclopedia of Post-Colonial Literatures in English Eugene Benson, L.W.

Conolly, 2004-11-30 Post Colonial Literatures in English together with English Literature and American Literature form one of the three major groupings of literature in English and as such are widely studied around the world Their significance derives from the richness and variety of experience which they reflect In three volumes this Encyclopedia documents the history and development of this body of work and includes original research relating to the literatures of some 50 countries and territories In more than 1 600 entries written by more than 600 internationally recognized scholars it explores the effect of the colonial and post colonial experience on literatures in English worldwide Sharper 1980-2013 Lowell

The Forgotten Fifties John Murphy,Judith Smart,1997 Some of Australia s leading historians present new perspectives on social and cultural life in the 1950s The 1950s is usually treated in the popular media as a metaphor for an Australia that was complacent monocultural banal and domesticated On the other hand historical writing about the decade has long been dominated by accounts of political and foreign policy conflict the Labor Split the Cold War and the seemingly endless long summer of Robert Menzies This collection assembles some of Australia s leading historians to present new perspectives on the 1950s Focusing on social and cultural themes they reveal a decade full of contradictions which belie the common simplistic accounts of the time Ranging from the education of the young Barry Humphries to the idea of an Australian identity in the lead up to the 1956 Olympics these essays also include the personal recollections of three leading historians providing a lively and critical insight into the Australia of the period Drawing out themes such as style sexuality modernism the suburbs travel writing and immigrant assimilation the authors excavate the experience of everyday life and the attitudes that characterised the 1950s They present a past that despite having shaped our lives continues to be disputed in contemporary Australia The Ancient Guild of Tycoons Matthew Condon,1994 Brucey Bird is the tycoon administrator of an island whose idyllic landscape thinly conceals the shiploads of debris dumped on its shores Matthew Condon s bizarre imagination creates a wittily pertinent fable of Australian history The 1.-6. Part of Miscellany Poems Containing Variety of New Translations of the Antient Poets Dryden,1727 Post-Koiné: Studies of Non-Anthropocentric (Poetic) Languages Anita Jarzyna,2025-09-25 In this book you will come across an authorial formula of extrahuman community and communication The formula includes languages polemical with the narrow model of community that often excludes certain human and non human beings Alternative languages are sensitive to the codes of violence directed against animals so as to inclusively create a new interspecies non antagonistic collectivity What especially seeks such alternative languages is poetry It not only represents the true character of existing relationships with animals or determines their shape but also can interfere in them suspend the control of logocentric order and as a result reduce the ambiguous human guardianship over animals that in turn requires the verification and questioning of the guardianship s position in language This publication treats Polish poetry as a statement equal with if not precursory for the discursive calls for the abolition of anthropocentric dominance The book proves that critical reflection on the language that consolidates the community redefines our attitude toward animals The Great Encounter Raj Kumar Gupta,1986 Art and Suburbia Chris McAuliffe,1996 Concerntrates on Australian suburbia Methodism and England Maldwyn Edwards,2017-06-28 This book is the last of a trilogy of books dealing with the social and political aspects of Methodism In John Wesley and the Eighteen Century the story was taken down to the death of John Wesley In After Methodism I dealt with the middle period which ended with the Fly Sheet Agitation And in this book I have completed the study by describing the place of Methodism in the life of England from the fall of Jabez Bunting to the union of the three great Methodist Churches in 1932 I began the work on this last period of Methodist history in 1935 and it has occupied much of my leisure time ever since The three books are I hope of value not only to those who are Methodists but also to those who are interested in the history of England during the last 200 years From the Preface The Oxford Book of Modern Australian Verse Peter Porter,1998 The noted Australian poet Peter Porter has produced an anthology of modern Australian poetry commencing in 1945 Almost 130 are represented from the great names of the 1950s and 1960s to the youngest generation of Australian poets Romanticism and Animal Rights David Perkins,2003-10-23 In England in the second half of the eighteenth century an unprecedented amount of writing urged kindness to animals This theme was carried in many genres from sermons to encyclopedias from scientific works to literature for children and in the poetry of Cowper Wordsworth Coleridge Clare and others Romanticism and Animal Rights discusses the arguments writers used and the particular meanings of these arguments in a social and economic context so different from the present After introductory chapters the material is divided according to specific practices that particularly influenced feeling or aroused protest pet keeping hunting baiting working animals eating them and the various harms inflicted on wild birds The book shows how extensively English Romantic writing took up issues of what we now call animal rights In this respect it joins the growing number of studies that seek precedents or affinities in English Romanticism for our own ecological concerns

Australian Literary Studies ,1993 The Poetics of Ruins in Renaissance Literature Andrew Hui,2017-01-02 The Renaissance was the Ruin naissance the birth of the ruin as a distinct category of cultural discourse one that inspired voluminous poetic production For humanists the ruin became the material sign that marked the rupture between themselves and classical antiquity In the first full length book to document this cultural phenomenon Andrew Hui explains how the invention of the ruin propelled poets into creating works that were self aware of their absorption of the past as well as their own survival in the future Lesser Living Creatures of the Renaissance Keith Botelho,Joseph Campana,2023-01-06 Lesser Living Creatures examines literary and cultural texts from early modern England in order to understand how people in that era thought about and with insect and arachnid life The conversations in this two volume set address the collaborative multigenerational research that produced early modern natural history and provide new insights into the old question of what it means to be human in a world populated by beasts large and small Volume 2 Concepts explores ideas that cut across species insect and otherwise both building on and invigorating critical vocabularies developed over nearly two decades of early modern animal studies The contributors explore topics such as the medical and culinary consumption of insects extermination campaigns the auditory and emotive effects of a swarm insects and politics and notions of infestation stinging and creeping Throughout they illuminate how early modern science and literature worked as intersecting systems of knowledge production about the natural world and show definitively how insect life was and remains intimately entangled with human life In addition to the editors contributors to this volume include Lucinda Cole Frances E Dolan Lowell Duckert Andrew Fleck Rebecca Laroche Jennifer Munroe Amy L Tigner Jessica Lynn Wolfe Derek Woods and Julian Yates On the Celebrated and Neglected Poems of Andrew Marvell Claude J. Summers,Ted-Larry Pebworth,1992 Andrew Marvell is one of the most enigmatic and elusive 17th century poets The 12 new essays collected in this volume explore both the unity and the diversity the brilliance and the depth reflected in his notoriously subtle and complex poetry

Neglected Poems And Other Creatures: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Neglected Poems And Other Creatures : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
