Noël Carroll and Film Mario Slušan, 2019-01-30 Noël Carroll is one of the most prolific widely cited and distinguished philosophers of art but how specifically has cinema impacted his thought This book one of the first in the acclaimed Film Thinks series argues that Carroll's background in both cinema and philosophy has been crucial to his overall theory of aesthetics Often a controversial figure within film studies as someone who has assertively contested the psychoanalytic semiotic and Marxist cornerstones of the field his allegiance to alternative philosophical traditions has similarly polarised his readership Mario Slušan proposes that Carroll's defence of the notions of truth and objectivity provides a welcome antidote to anything goes attitudes and postmodern scepticism towards art and popular culture including film Carroll's thinking has loosened the grip of continental philosophers on cinema studies from Maurice Merleau-Ponty to Gilles Deleuze and Jacques Lacan by turning to cognitive and analytical approaches Slušan goes further to reveal that Carroll's methods of evaluation and interpretation in fact usefully bridge gaps between these opposing sides to look at artworks anew Throughout Slušan revisits and enriches Carroll's definitions of popular art mass art horror humour and other topics and concludes by tracing their origins to this important thinker's relationship with the medium of cinema

Film, Art, and the Limits of Science Malcolm Turvey, 2025-04-26 There is currently a vigorous debate in film studies and related disciplines about the extent to which scientific paradigms like evolutionary psychology and neuroscience can explain the cinema and other artforms This debate tends to devolve into extreme positions with many film scholars and other humanists insisting that science has little or no role to play in the study of the arts while a minority contends that it is always needed to fully account for cultural phenomena like film Malcolm Turvey advocates for a more moderate position He argues that while the sciences can explain much about film and the other arts there is much about these phenomena that only humanistic methods can account for He thereby mounts a trenchant defence of the purpose and value of humanistic explanation one that nevertheless acknowledges and welcomes the legitimate contribution of the sciences to the study of the arts

Positioning Art Cinema Geoff King, 2019-01-24 Art cinema occupies a space in the film landscape that is accorded a particular kind of value From films that claim the status of harsh realism to others which embody aspects of the tradition of modernism or the poetic art cinema encompasses a variety of work from across the globe But how is art cinema positioned in the film marketplace or by critics and in academic analysis Exactly what kinds of cultural value are attributed to films of this type and how can this be explained This book offers a unique analysis of how such processes work including the broader cultural basis of the appeal of art cinema to particular audiences Geoff King argues that there is no single definition of art cinema but a number of distinct and recurrent tendencies are identified At one end of the spectrum are films accorded the most heavyweight status offering the greatest challenges to viewers Others mix aspects of art cinema with more accessible dimensions such as uses of popular genre frameworks and exploitation elements involving explicit sex and violence Including case studies of key figures such as Michael Haneke Pedro Almod var and Jean Pierre and Luc Dardenne this is a crucial contribution to understanding both art cinema itself and the discourses through which its value is established

The Oxford Handbook of Aesthetics Jerrold Levinson,2005-01-27 The Oxford Handbook of Aesthetics has assembled 48 brand new essays making this a comprehensive guide available to the theory application history and future of the field John Dewey and the Artful Life Scott R. Stroud,2015-09-10 Aesthetic experience has had a long and contentious history in the Western intellectual tradition Following Kant and Hegel a human s interaction with nature or art frequently has been conceptualized as separate from issues of practical activity or moral value This book examines how art can be seen as a way of moral cultivation Scott Stroud uses the thought of the American pragmatist John Dewey to argue that art and the aesthetic have a close connection to morality Dewey gives us a way to reconceptualize our ideas of ends means and experience so as to locate the moral value of aesthetic experience in the experience of absorption itself as well as in the experience of reflective attention evoked by an art object Aesthetic Experience Richard Shusterman,Adele Tomlin,2010-09-28 In this volume a team of internationally respected contributors theorize the concept of aesthetic experience and its value Exposing and expanding our restricted cultural and intellectual presuppositions of what constitutes aesthetic experience the book aims to re explore and affirm the place of aesthetic experience in its evaluative phenomenological and transformational sense not only in relation to art and artists but to our inner and spiritual lives

Transfigurations Asbjørn Grønstad,2008 In many senses viewers have cut their teeth on the violence in American cinema from Anthony Perkins slashing Janet Leigh in the most infamous of shower scenes to the 1970s masterpieces of Martin Scorsese Sam Peckinpah and Francis Ford Coppola to our present day undertakings in imagining global annihilations through terrorism war and alien grudges Transfigurations brings our cultural obsession with film violence into a renewed dialogue with contemporary theory Gr nstad argues that the use of violence in Hollywood films should be understood semiotically rather than viewed realistically Tranfigurations thus alters both our methodology of reading violence in films and the meanings we assign to them depicting violence not as a self contained incident but as a convoluted network of our own cultural ideologies and beliefs Reframing Theology and Film Robert K. Johnston,2007-11 Identifies and explicates the areas that are currently being overlooked or undervalued in the current discussions of theology and film
