Disha Experts,2021-02-04 The Indian Partition in Literature and Films Rini Bhattacharya Mehta,Debali Mookerjeea-Leonard,2014-12-17 This book presents an examination of fictional representations in books and films of the 1947 Partition that led to the creation of the sovereign nation states of India and Pakistan While the process of representing the Partition experience through words and images began in the late 1940s it is only in the last few decades that literary critics and film scholars have begun to analyse the work The emerging critical scholarship on the Partition and its aftermath has deepened our understanding of the relationship between historical trauma collective memory and cultural processes and this book provides critical readings of literary and cinematic texts on the impact of the Partition both in the Punjab and in Bengal The collection assembles studies on Anglophone writings with those on the largely unexplored vernacular works and those which have rarely found a place in discussions on the Partition It looks at representations of women s experiences of gendered violence in the Partition riots and how literary texts have filled in the lack of the human dimension in Partition histories The book goes on to highlight how the memory of the Partition is preserved and how the creative arts relation to public memory and its place within the public sphere has changed through time Collectively the essays present a nuanced understanding of how the experience of violence displacement and trauma shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in the Indian subcontinent Mapping the diverse topographies of Partition related uncertainties and covering both well known and lesser known texts on the Partition this book will be a useful contribution to studies of South Asian History Asian Literature and Asian Film Blockbuster Secret Codes BradyGames,BradyGames Staff,1998-09 Entertainment Industry Economics Harold L.
