Soho on Screen Jingan Young, 2022-05-13 Despite Soho s rich cultural history there remains an absence of work on the depiction of the popular neighbourhood in film Soho on Screen provides one of the first studies of Soho within post war British cinema Drawing upon historical cultural and urban studies of the area this book explores twelve films and theatrically released documentaries from a filmography of over one hundred Soho set productions While predominantly focusing on low budget exploitation films which are exemplars of British and international filmmaking Young also offers new readings of star and director biographies from Laurence Harvey to Emeric Pressburger and in so doing enlivens discussion on filmmaking in a time and place of intense social transformation technological innovation and growing permissiveness

Designing for the Movies Laurence Irving, 2005 Irving's time in Hollywood marked the end of the silent film years and these memoirs depict the effect on the industry with astute and penetrating portraits of those who felt the change dramatically Anyone with even the slightest interest in the history of filmmaking and its early characters will not want to miss this insightful account

BOOK JACKET

Life is Beautiful, But Not for Jews Kobi Niv, 2003-09-29 Roberto Benigni's romantic comedy Life is Beautiful enjoyed tremendous success everywhere it was shown In addition to winning almost every possible film award including three Oscars lavish praise and film reviews it grossed over a quarter of a billion dollars the most profitable Italian movie ever Very few have questioned the movie until now With sharp uncompromising logic and eye opening insight Niv analyzes the film and its script scene by scene to show why Life is Beautiful is very far from being the innocent charming and heartwarming film it appears to be The author argues that the film not only lends support to the central arguments of Holocaust deniers but is actually a quasi theological Christian parable which seeks to justify the extermination of Jews in the 20th century as divine punishment for the sin of the crucifixion of Jesus two thousand years ago Life is Beautiful But Not for Jews is a riveting book that simply and concisely raises some important and complex ideas about film and psychology in post Holocaust civilization It also serves as an elementary course in the appreciation of films and artistic texts in general and in deciphering their deeper meanings teaching the reader to more clearly grasp the hidden significance of cultural processes This is the first English translation of the Hebrew text

The Crime Films of Anthony Mann Max Alvarez, 2014 Anthony Mann 1906 1967 is renowned for his outstanding 1950s westerns starring James Stewart Winchester 73 The Naked Spur The Man from Laramie But there is more to Mann's cinematic universe than those tough Wild West action dramas featuring conflicted and secretive heroes This brilliant Hollywood craftsman also directed fourteen electrifying crime thrillers between 1942 and 1951 among them such towering achievements in film noir as T-Men Raw Deal and Side Street Mann was as much at home filming dark urban alleys in black and white as he was the prairies and mountains in Technicolor and his protagonists were no less conflicted and secretive than his 1950s cowboys In these Mann crime thrillers we find powerful stories of sexual obsession The Great Flamarion the transforming images of women in wartime and postwar America Strangers in the Night Strange Impersonation exploitation of Mexican immigrants Border Incident studies of the criminal mind He Walked by Night and Civil War bigotry The Tall Target Mann's forceful camera captured such memorable and diverse stars as Erich von Stroheim Farley Granger Dennis O'Keefe Claire Trevor Richard Basehart Ricardo Montalban Ruby Dee and Raymond Burr The Crime Films of Anthony Mann features analysis of rare documents screenplays story treatments and studio memoranda and reveals detailed behind the scenes information on preproduction and production on the Mann thrillers Author Max Alvarez uses rare and newly available sources to explore the creation of these noir masterworks Along the way the book exposes secrets and solves mysteries surrounding the mercurial director and his remarkable career which also included Broadway and early live television

Somerset Maugham and the Cinema Robert Calder, 2024-02-13 William Somerset Maugham 1874 1965 was one of the most prominent and productive authors of the twentieth century and his works have been among the most cinematically transformed in history For more than five decades adaptations of his plays stories and novels dominated movie theaters and later television screens More than ninety individual works were filmed and for many filmgoers his name was a greater draw than that of the director Works such as Of Human Bondage The Letter The Painted Veil Rain The Razor's Edge and others were produced multiple times with starring roles sought by actors like Bette Davis Gloria Swanson Greta Garbo Lionel Barrymore Charles Laughton and Bill Murray This study of the famous author explores the relationship between literature and film what is involved in adaptation and how best to judge films based on celebrated books Robert Calder the world's leading scholar of Maugham's work offers fascinating production histories insight into both fortunate and misguided casting decisions shrewd analyses of performances and film techniques and summaries of public and critical responses Maugham's characters were often conflicted iconoclastic and morally out of step with their times which may have accounted for the popularity of his fiction Most of Maugham's works could be adapted to satisfy the tastes of moviegoers and the demands of the Hays Office censors if not the expectations of their author

The British Boxing Film Stephen Glynn, 2021-08-20 This book constitutes the first full volume dedicated to an academic analysis of the sport of boxing as depicted in British film Through close textual analysis production and reception histories and readings that establish social cultural and political contexts the book explores the ways in which prizefighters amateur boxers managers and supporters from Regency gentry to East End gangsters are represented on the British screen Exploring a complex and controversial sport it addresses not only the pain versus reward dilemma that boxing necessarily engenders but also the frequently censorious attitude of those in authority with boxing's social development facilitating a wider study around issues of class gender and race latterly contesting the whole notion of Britishness Varying in scope from Northern circuit comedies to London based ladsploitation films from auteur entries by Alfred Hitchcock to programme fillers by E J Fancey the boxing film also serves as a prism through which one can trace major historical shifts in the British film industry
