Reaching Out Interpersonal Effectiveness And Self Actualization By Johnson 8th Edition:

Needs Assessment Phase III Laurie Stevahn, Jean A. King, 2010 Ultimately the value of any needs assessment lies in whether it leads to action plans for improving and enhancing the organization or group for which it was conducted In practice this may be more difficult than it would seem This book takes the reader through a journey of getting results utilized and then evaluating the needs assessment itself Pitfalls to avoid along the way are thoughtfully illuminated A major highlight of the text is the double dozen techniques that can be used to make the trip a special experience The text explains where the techniques best fit into making utilization a reality

The Story Has a Secret Robert D. Brehm M.A., 2021-03-26 Robert's therapeutic autobiography begins with his experience as a child flying out of the window in a car accident and ends with the pandemic twilight zone of COVID 19 He uses his background in psychology to examine projection errors of the mind that have plagued mankind for centuries What is unique is that Robert uses examples from his own life re enacting events using therapeutic techniques providing the reader insight into the secret of life's stories While the book could be used as a college text it is written for multi age and education levels As Robert moves from his first formative experience to his later life as a teacher counselor and Psychodramatist he introduces the reader to important psychological concepts Robert's book is part memoir and psychological guide The Secret in the Story is written as a sequel to the Story has a Secret Robert shows you how to apply the same therapeutic perspective to your own life and to examine memories turning them into your memoirs that can lead you to a more fulfilling life
