Bottigheimer, 2012-02-23 2012 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Most early fairy tale authors had a lot to say about what they wrote Charles Perrault explained his sources and recounted friends reactions His niece Marie Jeanne Le Ritier and her friend Marie Catherine d'Aulnoy used dedications and commentaries to situate their tales socially and culturally while the raffish Henriette Julie de Murat accused them all of taking their plots from the Italian writer Giovan Francesco Straparola and admitted to borrowing from the Italians herself These reflections shed a bright light on both the tales and on their composition but in every case they were removed soon after their first publication Remaining largely unknown their absence created empty space that later readers filled with their own views about the conditions of production and reception of the tales What their authors had to say about Puss in Boots Cinderella Sleeping Beauty and Rapunzel among many other fairy tales is collected here for the first time newly translated and accompanied by rich annotations Also included are revealing commentaries from the authors literary contemporaries As a whole these forewords afterwords and critical words directly address issues that inform the contemporary study of European fairy tales including traditional folkloristic concerns about fairy tale origins and performance as well as questions of literary aesthetics and historical context
