A Reading Strategies Course

4

Read and Think! is a course in reading strategies for students in grades 4-6. The course is designed to help students develop the skills and strategies they need to become successful readers. The course is divided into four units, each focusing on a different reading strategy. Unit 1 focuses on the strategy of making predictions. Unit 2 focuses on the strategy of making inferences. Unit 3 focuses on the strategy of making connections. Unit 4 focuses on the strategy of making conclusions. Each unit contains a series of lessons, each with a set of reading passages and questions. The questions are designed to help students understand the passages and apply the reading strategies they have learned.
