H. Dettmar, William Richey, 1999 Considering the work of such artists as Madonna George Clinton U2 Elvis Costello and Nirvana the contributors deftly combine the rigors of scholarship with the energy of rock journalism to provide an analysis at once critical contextualized and enthusiastic While a number of scholars have recently turned their attention to rock and pop music most of their work has focused on providing sweeping cultural contexts for its popularity rather than exploring the music itself Now in Reading Rock and Roll Kevin Dettmar and William Richey have gathered a wealth of erudite original and clever writings that perform close readings of rock music often with surprising results The authors in this volume view rock and roll as having had affinities with postmodernism from its inception With its mongrel pedigree drawing on blues folk R and B and bluegrass and its relation to mass media and high tech modes of production rock music has been self conscious and full of irony from the beginning These essays regularly call attention to the allusiveness and intertextuality of rock and roll whether it is Kurt Cobain undermining the Beatles M C Hammer stealing from Rick James's Super Freak or U2's use of Johnny Cash's legendary voice From a careful examination of the roles of addictions and female sexuality in the remakings of Courtney Love and Madonna to the politics of George Clinton's uses and abuses of language to the referencing of Elvis Costello in two recent novels and the use of 1970s rock in several recent film soundtracks these essays are as varied as the artists they consider Informal and theoretically informed Reading Rock and Roll is an important investigation of the music that more than any other has defined our century      So You Want to Be a Rock N' Roll Bride Diane Saks, 2001-06-25 How do you know that you should buy So You Want To Be A Rock N Roll Bride 1 Your daughter's bedroom wall is covered with posters of Aaron Carter 2 Your phone line is busy every afternoon until evening because your daughter is on the web looking up information about Ricky Martin 3 You know all the words to The Backstreet Boys songs and you are 40 years old 4 Part of your daughter's E mail address is Timberlake 5 The screensaver on your daughter's computer is covered with pictures of Justin Timberlake 6 Your daughter knows more about Justin Timberlake than she knows about Abraham Lincoln who is the subject of tomorrow's history quiz 7 Your daughter wants to camp out tonight in front of the record store so that she can be the first in line to buy the latest N Sync C D that she just can't live without 8 Your daughter marks her calendar so that she
