Reader In The Anthropology Of Religion:

A Reader in the Anthropology of Religion, 2008 Magic, Witchcraft, and Religion: A Reader in the Anthropology of Religion Pamela Moro, James Myers, 2009-09-18 This comparative reader takes an anthropological approach to the study of religious beliefs and practices both strange and familiar The engaging articles on all key issues related to the anthropology of religion grab the attention of students while giving them an excellent foundation in contemporary ideas and approaches in the field The multiple authors included in each chapter represent a range of interests geographic foci and ways of looking at each subject Divided into 10 chapters this book begins with a broad view of anthropological ways of looking at religion and moves on to some of the core topics within the subject such as myth ritual and the various types of religious specialties A Reader in the Anthropology of Religion Michael Lambek, 2001-12-31 A Reader in the Anthropology of Religion is a collection of some of the most significant classic and contemporary writings on the anthropology of religion It includes both material whose theme is religion in a straightforward and obvious sense as well as material that has expanded how we might look at religion and the horizons of what we mean by religion linking it to broader questions of culture and politics Anth 11 Pamela Moro, 2010 Magic Witchcraft and Religion: A Reader in the Anthropology of Religion James Myers, Pamela Moro, Professor, 2012-09-27 Magic Witchcraft and Religion A Reader in the Anthropology of Religion takes an anthropological approach to the study of religious beliefs and practices both strange and familiar The engaging articles on all key issues related to the anthropology of religion grab the attention of students while giving them an excellent foundation in contemporary ideas and approaches in the field The multiple authors included in each chapter represent a range of interests geographic foci and ways of looking at each subject Features of the ninth edition include new study questions and articles as well as updated discussions on religion illness healing and death Magic, Witchcraft, and Religion Pamela Myers-Moro, 2009 The Anthropology of Islam Reader Jens Kreinath, 2012 The Anthropology of Islam Reader brings together a rich variety of ethnographic work offering an insight into various forms of Islam as practiced in different geographic social and cultural contexts Topics explored include Ramadan and the Hajj the Feast of Sacrifice and the representation of Islam An extensive introduction and bibliography helps students develop their understanding of the variety of methodological and theoretical approaches involved in the anthropological study of Islam In his selections Jens Kreinath highlights the diversity of practices and themes that were formative for this field of study making this essential reading for students of Islam at undergraduate and graduate level The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African

Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa

Ritual and Belief David Hicks, 2001 This revision of our highly successful First Edition reader for the Anthropology of Religion course includes eleven all new articles new Religion in the News boxes in every chapter significantly expanded Introductions to every chapter a brand new chapter on modern cults a list of website resources for every chapter an improved glossary and expanded Commentaries

Religion and the Individual: Belief, Practice, and Identity Douglas J. Davies, Michael J. Thate, 2018-07-05 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Religion and the Individual Belief Practice and Identity that was published in Religions

Reading with Anthropology Louise Joy Lawrence, 2005 The social science of anthropology has been used in recent years to open up fascinating new ways of understanding biblical texts In this fresh and stimulating study Louise Lawrence argues that anthropology and theology need not be enemies but can become constructive dialogue partners in the search to understand the Bible better Like a museum curator she guides readers around seven anthropological exhibits where selected biblical texts are analysed with resources from anthropology Themes include spirit inspired religious healers power and violence sex and gender body and emotion and social memory The dialogue opened up here between biblical books and the study of other cultures promises fresh insights on well known texts Reading with Anthropology will be of equal interest to biblical scholars seeking a way in to the use of anthropology in their discipline and to anthropologists wishing to better appreciate biblical cultures

The Appropriation of Native American Spirituality Suzanne Owen, 2008-01-01 A fascinating and important volume which brings together new perspectives on the objections to and appropriation of Native American Spirituality

Tertullian the African David E. Wilhite, 2011-06-24 Who was Tertullian and what can we know about him This work explores his social identities focusing on his North African milieu Theories from the discipline of social cultural anthropology including kinship class and ethnicity are accommodated and applied to selections of Tertullian's writings In light of postcolonial concerns this study utilizes the categories of Roman colonizers indigenous Africans and new elites The third category new elites is actually intended to destabilize the other two denying any essential Roman or African identity Thereafter samples from Tertullian's writings serve to illustrate comparisons of his own identities and the identities of his rhetorical opponents The overall study finds Tertullian's identities to be manifold complex and discursive Additionally his writings are understood to reflect antagonism toward Romans including Christian Romans which is significant for his so called Montanism and Romanized Africans While Tertullian accommodates much from Graeco Roman literature laws and customs he nevertheless retains a strongly stated non Roman ness and an African ity which is highlighted in the present monograph International Review of Biblical Studies, Volume 54 (2007-2008) Bernhard Lang, 2009-04-30 Formerly known by its subtitle Internationale Zeitschriftenschau f r Bibelwissenschaft und Grenzgebiete the International Review of Biblical Studies has served the scholarly community ever since its inception in the early 1950 s Each annual volume includes approximately 2 000 abstracts and summaries of articles and books that deal with the Bible and related literature including the Dead Sea Scrolls Pseudepigrapha Non canonical gospels and ancient Near Eastern writings The abstracts which may be in English German or French are arranged thematically under headings such as e g Genesis Matthew Greek language text and textual criticism exegetical methods and approaches biblical theology social and religious institutions biblical personalities history of Israel and early Judaism and so on The articles and books that are abstracted and reviewed are collected annually by an international team of collaborators from over 300 of the most important periodicals and book series in the fields covered

Stories, Senses and the Charismatic Relation Jamie Barnes, 2020-10-13 Stories Senses and the Charismatic Relation offers a uniquely intimate and auto ethnographic exploration of Christian experience rendering a deep phenomenological account of how devotional worlds become real how they are experienced shaped constituted and performed by those who live them The book starts from a reflexive exploration of the author's own experiences of the divine considers the spiritual journeys of family members and the spiritual community of which he was a part and draws on ethnographic fieldwork in the southern Balkans where that community was based Jamie Barnes considers three main elements firstly the role that sensory aspects of experience play in constituting one's lived world and one's ideas about the kinds of beings inhabiting it secondly how stories and metaphors are tactically employed not only in the process of expressing aspects of past experience but also in shaping and forming both desired worlds and future pathways thirdly how such sensed narrated and lived worlds are tentatively held together in hope trust and love through charismatic relationships of devotion with a divine Other This unusual and innovative ethnography offers a unique and reflexive view from within the world of Christian experience
