Connecting Reading & Writing in Second Language Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela, 2004-08-20

Academic writing often requires students to incorporate material from outside sources like statistics ideas quotations paraphrases into their own written texts a particular obstacle for students who lack strong reading skills In Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction Alan Hirvela contends that second language writing students should be considered as readers first and advocates the integration of reading and writing instruction with a survey of theory research and pedagogy in the subject area Although the integrated reading writing model has gained popularity in recent years many teachers have little more than an intuitive sense of the connections between these skills As part of the popular Michigan Series on Teaching Multilingual Writers Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction will provide invaluable background knowledge on this issue to ESL teachers in training as well as teachers who are already practicing
