New York Magazine, 1980-07-21 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Dispersion Stéphane Dufoix, 2016-11-28 Winner of the 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Award In The Dispersion St phane Dufoix skillfully traces how the word diaspora first coined in the third century BCE has over the past three decades developed into a contemporary concept often considered to be ideally suited to grasping the complexities of our current world Spanning two millennia from the Septuagint to the emergence of Zionism from early Christianity to the Moravians from slavery to the defence of the Black cause from its first scholarly uses to academic ubiquity from the early negative connotations of the term to its contemporary apotheosis St phane Dufoix explores the historical socio semantics of a word that perhaps paradoxically has entered the vernacular while remaining poorly understood Le

Tumulte Noir Jody Blake, 1999-01-01 Jody Blake demonstrates in this book that although the impact of African American music and dance in France was constant from 1900 to 1930 it was not unchanging This was due in part to the stylistic development and diversity of African American music and dance from the prewar cakewalk and ragtime to the postwar Charleston and jazz Successive groups of modernists beginning with the Matisse and Picasso circle in the 1900s and concluding with the Surrealists and Purists in the 1920s constructed different versions of la musique and la danse negre Manifested in creative and critical works these responses to African American music and dance reflected the modernists varying artistic agendas and historical climates Coal Age, 1912 Vols for 1955 1962 include Mining guidebook and buying directory The American Bookseller, 1877 Africans on African-Americans Yekutieli Gershom, 2016-07-27 Between the end of the nineteenth century and the outbreak of World War 2 Africans displaced by colonial rule created an African American myth a myth which aggrandized the life and attainments of African Americans despite full knowledge of the discrimination to which they were subjected The myth provided Africans in all parts of the continent with much needed succour and underpinned various religious educational political and social models based on the experience of African Americans whereby Africans sought to better their own lives The Colonial Origins of Modern Social Thought George Steinmetz, 2025-02-25 A new history of French social thought that connects postwar sociology to colonialism and empire In this provocative and original retelling of the history of French social thought George Steinmetz places the history and development of modern French sociology in the context of the French empire after World War II Connecting the rise of all the social sciences with efforts by France and other imperial powers to consolidate control over their crisis ridden colonies Steinmetz argues that colonial research represented a crucial core of the nascent academic discipline of sociology especially between the late 1930s and the 1960s Sociologists who became favored partners of colonial governments were asked to apply their expertise to such social problems as detribalization urbanization poverty and labor migration This colonial orientation permeated all the major subfields of sociological research Steinmetz contends and is at the center of the work of four influential scholars Raymond Aron Jacques Berque Georges Balandier and Pierre Bourdieu In retelling this history Steinmetz develops and deploys a new methodological approach that combines attention to broadly contextual factors dynamics within the intellectual development of the social sciences and sociology in particular and close readings of sociological texts He moves gradually toward the postwar sociologists of colonialism and their writings beginning with the most macroscopic contexts which included the postwar reoccupation of the French empire and the turn to developmentalist policies and the resulting demand for new forms of social scientific expertise After exploring the colonial engagement of researchers in sociology and neighboring fields before and after 1945 he turns to detailed examinations of the work of Aron who created a sociology of empires Berque the leading historical sociologist of North Africa Balandier the founder of French Africanist sociology and Bourdieu whose renowned theoretical concepts were forged in war torn late colonial Algeria
