Long Term Imprisonment:

Long-Term Imprisonment Timothy J. Flanagan, 1995-04-06 With recent sentencing law changes at the state and national level the United States will continue to use long term confinement more than any other nation in the world In this authoritative yet accessible volume scholars correctional authorities researchers and prisoners examine the use of long term incarceration as a response to crime the effects of long term incarceration and the strategies used by long term inmates to adjust to confinement Long Term Imprisonment explores the prison experience of both male and female inmates and discusses the correctional management challenges posed by long term incarceration The core of this collection edited by Timothy Flanagan is a set of articles first published in The Prison Journal the official journal of the Pennsylvania Prison Society and the oldest journal in the field of corrections These articles are complemented with research reports on the effects of long term confinement a comprehensive analysis of long term inmates currently confined in American and Canadian prisons and essays written by long term prisoners If you are interested in the use and operation of prisons and in the impact of these institutions on the people confined within them this book is for you In addition to students studying imprisonment the book informs correctional administrators and policymakers about the nature of long term inmate population and the impact of long term imprisonment Timothy Flanagan began studying the effects of long term incarceration over two decades ago when he conducted one of the first major studies of prisoners serving long sentences Since then many changes have occurred in corrections and sentences practices that have greatly increased sentence lengths and the number of prisoners serving long sentences The collection of the essays contained in Long Term Imprisonment represents the most comprehensive up to date and definitive review of literature regarding the effects of long term incarceration on prisoners Flanagan provides readers with a variety of perspectives of long term imprisonment by including articles written by prison researchers corrections officials and long term prisoners This book is must reading for anyone interested in life in prisons and the unique world of the long term prisoner Kevin N Wright Binghamton University

Long-Term Imprisonment and Human Rights Kirstin Drenkhahn, Manuela Dudeck, Frieder Dünkler, 2014-07-11 Prisons and imprisonment have become a commonplace topic in popular culture as the setting and rationale for fiction and documentaries and most people seem to have a clear notion of what it is like in prison ranging from the idea of the prison cell as a cosy nook with fast internet access to that of a dungeon with a hard bed and a diet of bread and water But what is prison really like Do prisoners have the same rights as everyone else What are the similarities and differences between prisons in different European countries This book answers all of these questions whilst also presenting cutting edge research on the living conditions of long term prisoners in Europe and considering whether these conditions meet international human rights standards Bringing together leading experts in the field with comprehensive coverage of the issues in Belgium Croatia Denmark England Finland France Germany Lithuania Poland Spain and Sweden this book offers the first comparative study on the subject Whereas past research in this area has concentrated on the Anglo American experience this book offers a truly comparative European approach and pays due attention to the differences in prison systems between the post Soviet countries and continental Europe This book will be key reading for academics and students of criminology criminal justice and penology and will also be of interest to students and practitioners of law

Young Men's Experiences of Long-Term Imprisonment Rachel Tynan,2019-01-15 Long sentenced young people are a small but significant part of the juvenile prison population The current approach to young people convicted of serious crime speaks to wider issues in criminal and social justice including the idealisation of some childhoods processes of racialisation and identity and the sociology of the body Analysing the relationships between biography trauma and habitus reveals the ways in which class racial and legal status are experienced and resisted Young Men's Experiences of Long Term Imprisonment Living Life considers the need for the reinvigoration of prison ethnography and calls for a phenomenological approach to understanding youth crime and punishment An insightful ethnographic study on imprisoned 15 to 17 year olds in England this volume examines how young people experience long term imprisonment manage their time and imagine and shape their futures Drawing on observations interviews and correspondence Tynan situates long term imprisonment of young men within the wider social context of criminal and social justice and analyses constructs and practices that locate responsibility for crime with individuals and communities Young Men's Experiences of Long Term Imprisonment Living Life will be of interest to students and researchers interested in the sociology of prisons punishment and youth justice and qualitative research methodology

English Society and the Prison Alyson Brown,2003 This social history analyses a period in which the modern prison faced serious challenges both on practical philosophical grounds These included the use of prison to victimise the poor the disaffected political activists the failure to establish the prison as a satisfactory means of punishment

Life Imprisonment and Human Rights Dirk van Zyl Smit,Catherine Appleton,2016-12-01 In many jurisdictions today life imprisonment is the most severe penalty that can be imposed Despite this it is a relatively under researched form of punishment and no meaningful attempt has been made to understand its full human rights implications This important collection fills that gap by addressing these two key questions what is life imprisonment and what human rights are relevant to it These questions are explored from the perspective of a range of jurisdictions in essays that draw on both empirical and doctrinal research Under the editorship of two leading scholars in the field this innovative and important work will be a landmark publication in the field of penal studies and human rights

Problems of Long-term Imprisonment A. E. Bottoms,Roy Light,1987 Papers from the Eighteenth Cropwood Round Table Conference held at Madingley Hall Cambridge March 19 21 1986 organized by the Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge

Life Imprisonment Dirk Van Zyl Smit,Catherine Appleton,2019-01-14 Life imprisonment has replaced the death penalty as the most common sentence imposed for heinous crimes worldwide Consequently it has become the leading issue of international criminal justice reform In the first survey of its kind Dirk van Zyl Smit and Catherine

Appleton argue for a human rights based reappraisal of this harsh punishment The Long Term Alice Kim, Erica Meiners, Jill Petty, 2018-10-09 The voices of those experiencing life in the long term are often not heard This collection of essays and personal stories from the people most impacted by long term incarceration in Statesville Prison bring light to the crisis of mass incarceration and the human cost of excessive sentencing Compelling moving narratives from those most affected by the prison industrial complex make a compelling case that death by incarceration is cruel and unusual punishment Implemented in the 1990 s and 2000 s harsh sentencing policies commonly labeled tough on crime became a bipartisan political agenda These policies had real impacts on families and communities particularly as they caused the removal of many non white and poor individuals from cities like Chicago The Long Term brings into the light what has previously been hidden a counter narrative to the tough on crime agenda and an urgent plea for a more humane criminal justice system The book is a critical contribution to the current debate around challenging the mass incarceration and ending mandatory sentencing especially for non violent offenders Federal Prisons Journal , 1991 Life Imprisonment from Young Adulthood Ben Crewe, Susie Hulley, Serena Wright, 2019-12-20 This book analyses the experiences of prisoners in England Wales sentenced when relatively young to very long life sentences with minimum terms of fifteen years or more Based on a major study including almost 150 interviews with men and women at various sentence stages and over 300 surveys it explores the ways in which long term prisoners respond to their convictions adapt to the various challenges that they encounter and re construct their lives within and beyond the prison Focussing on such matters as personal identity relationships with family and friends and the management of time the book argues that long term imprisonment entails a profound confrontation with the self It provides detailed insight into how such prisoners deal with the everyday burdens of their situation feelings of injustice anger and shame and the need to find some sense of hope control and meaning in their lives In doing so it exposes the nature and consequences of the life changing terms of imprisonment that have become increasingly common in recent years 12th Conference of Directors of Prison Administration (CDAP) European Committee on Crime Problems, Council of Europe, 1999-01-01 By Mr Peter BEST Prisons, Punishment, and the Family Rachel Condry, Peter Scharff Smith, 2018 Every year millions of families are affected by the imprisonment of a family member Children of imprisoned parents alone can be counted in millions in the USA and in Europe It is a bewildering fact that while we have had prisons for centuries and the deprivation of liberty has been a central pillar in the Western mode of punishment since the early nineteenth century we have only relatively recently embarked upon a serious discussion of the severe effects of imprisonment for the families and relatives of offenders and the implications this has for society This book draws together some of the excellent research that addresses the impact of criminal justice and incarceration in particular upon the families of offenders It assembles examples of recent and ongoing studies from eight different countries in order to not only learn about the secondary effects and collateral consequences of imprisonment but also to understand what the experiences and lived realities of prisoners families means for the sociology of punishment and our broader understanding of criminal justice systems While punishment and society scholarship has gained significant ground in recent years it has often remained silent on the ways in which the families of prisoners are affected by our practices of punishment This book provides evidence of the importance of including families within this scholarship and explores themes of legitimacy citizenship human rights marginalization exclusion and inequality

Punishment to the Death Penalty in China Gui Huang,2024-04-17 This book presents a study of alternative penalties to the death penalty in China aiming to promote theoretical exploration of death penalty reform in China as well as long term penal reform Currently China is endeavouring to control the use of the death penalty and is gradually moving towards its abolition The factors influencing the choice of the punishment option to replace the death penalty are complex and varied and include the traditional punishment culture penalty concepts the political system the punishment system public opinion and human rights etc Given the differences between China and developed Western democratic states when we examine these influencing factors we cannot ignore the culture of the punishment and the special political and legislation system in China In this light this work examined and analysed the factors that influence the choice of punishment option to replace the death penalty in this special political system with its clearly Chinese characteristics Criminal policy and public opinion are two significant and typical factors involving obvious political considerations in China The former normally reflects and carries out the will of the Government as expressed to the national management the latter responds to the majority of citizens view on the current legal system and it is to a great extent the basis for national leadership s running of the country Even though life imprisonment without release hereinafter LWOR has been stipulated by the Ninth Amendment for the crime of corruption it should not be the preferable option as the alternative sanction to the death penalty because it is a kind of cruel torture and violates the constitutional principle of human rights protection On the contrary life imprisonment with possibility of release hereinafter LWPR would be an option but the termination mechanisms for inmates should be set out in accordance with the principle of proportional justice aggravated life imprisonment can be chosen to replace the death penalty in China In addition there needs to be improvements made to the relevant criminal systems By examining China's death penalty reform and long term imprisonment reform this book not only explains the methodology of the reform theoretically but also pays attention to the issues of legislation and judicial practice This book is of interest to scholars and researchers in the fields of criminal justice penal reform issues and crime control in China
