in teams networks the evolution and diffusion of preferences the connection between biology and economics artificial life simulations and experimental economics Second the book recognizing that students learn by doing and that most game theory texts are weak on problems is organized around problems and introduces principles through practice Finally the quality of the problems is simply unsurpassed and each chapter provides a study plan for instructors interested in teaching evolutionary game theory Reflecting the growing consensus that in many important contexts outside of anonymous markets human behavior is not well described by classical rationality Gintis shows students how to apply game theory to model how people behave in ways that reflect the special nature of human sociality and individuality This book is perfect for upper undergraduate and graduate economics courses as well as a terrific introduction for ambitious do it yourselfers throughout the behavioral sciences

Walk the Barrio Cristina Rodriguez, 2022-06-15 Immigrant communities evince particular and deep relationship to place Building on this self evident premise Walk the Barrio adds the less obvious claim that to write about place you must experience place Thus in this book about immigrants writing and place Cristina Rodriguez walks neighborhood streets talks to immigrants interviews authors and puts herself physically in the spaces that she seeks to understand The word barrio first entered the English lexicon in 1833 and has since become a commonplace not only of American speech but of our literary imagination Indeed what draws Rodriguez to the barrios of Los Angeles New York Miami and others is the work of literature that was fueled and inspired by those neighborhoods Walk the Barrio explores the ways in which authors William Archila Richard Blanco Angie Cruz Junot Diaz Salvador Plascencia Hector Tobar and Helena Maria Viramontes use their U S hometowns as both setting and stylistic inspiration Asking how these writers innovate upon or break the rules of genre to render in words an embodied experience of the barrio Rodriguez considers for example how the spatial map of New Brunswick impacts the mobility of Diaz's female characters or how graffiti influences the aesthetics of Viramontes's novels By mapping each text's fictional setting upon the actual spaces it references in what she calls barriographies Rodriguez reveals connections between place narrative form and migrancy This first person interdisciplinary approach presents an innovative model for literary studies as it sheds important light on the ways in which transnationalism transforms the culture of each Latinx barrio effecting shifts in gender roles the construction of the family definitions of social normativity and racial ethnic national and linguistic identifications
