The Limits of Forgiveness Maria Mayo, 2021-05-06 Demystifying an unrealistic ideal Maria Mayo questions the contemporary idealization of unconditional forgiveness in three areas of contemporary life so called Victim Offender Mediation involving cases of criminal injury the work of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission in post apartheid South Africa and the pastoral care of victims of domestic violence She shows that an emphasis on unilateral and unconditional forgiveness puts disproportionate pressure on the victims of injustice or violence and misconstrues the very biblical passages especially in Jesus teaching and actions on which advocates of unconditional forgiveness rely

Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon, 2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of

Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century Matthew Through the Centuries Ian Boxall, 2018-11-26 The reception of the Gospel of Matthew over two millennia commentary and interpretation Matthew Through the Centuries offers an overview of the reception history of one of the most prominent gospels in Christian worship Examining the reception of Matthew from the perspectives of a wide range of interpreters from Origen and Hilary of Poitiers to Mary Cornwallis and Bob Marley this insightful commentary explains the major trends in the reception of Matthew in various ecclesial historical and cultural contexts Focusing on characteristically Matthean features detailed chapter by chapter commentary highlights diverse receptions and interpretations of the gospel Broad exploration of areas such as liturgy literature drama film hymnody political discourse and visual art illustrates the enormous impact Matthew continues to have on Judeo-Christian civilization Known as the Church's Gospel Matthew's text has been the subject of apologetic and theological controversy for hundreds of years It has been seen as justification for political and ecclesial status quo and as a path to radical discipleship Matthew has influenced divergent political spiritual and cultural figures such as Francis of Assisi John Ruskin Leo Tolstoy Dietrich Bonhoeffer and Mahatma Gandhi Matthew's interest in ecclesiology provides early structures of ecclesial life such as resolution of community disputes communal prayer and liturgical prescriptions for the Eucharist and baptism A significant addition to the acclaimed Blackwell Bible Commentaries series Matthew Through the Centuries is an indispensable resource for both students and experts in areas including religious and biblical studies literature history politics and those interested in the influence of the Bible on Western culture The Lord's Prayer and the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew's Gospel Charles Nathan Ridlehoover, 2019-12-26 Charles Nathan Ridlehoover examines the Lord's Prayer in Matthew's Gospel focusing on the prayer's centrality and showing how this centrality affects our reading of the Sermon on the Mount and subsequently the prayer itself Ridlehoover argues that the Lord's Prayer is structurally lexically and thematically central to the Sermon on the Mount and the means through which disciples of Jesus are empowered to live out the kingdom righteousness it defines In turn the Sermon on the Mount clarifies what the answer to the petitions of the Lord's Prayer might look like in the life of the disciple of Jesus Whilst the centrality of the Lord's Prayer has been noted by previous commentators this centrality and its intended purpose has not hitherto been defined or examined in great depth Ridlehoover fills this gap with a closely argued and in depth study ranging from methodology and the structure of the prayer itself to examining the Father will forgiveness and evil petitions and the relevance of word and deed for hearers and doers Ridlehoover s examination of the relationship between the Sermon and Prayer advances studies in compositional criticism and intratextuality Speaking Jesus David Buttrick, 2002-01-01 Once again renowned homiletician David Buttrick has written a highly practical book that conveys and makes contagious his excitement for the theological task of preaching In Speaking Jesus Buttrick delineates the theological issues inherent in the Sermon on the Mount and presents a homiletical strategy for preaching its meaning and relevance In Part One Buttrick gives a general overview of the text and raises central theological issues imperative to its preaching particularly the authenticity of Jesus words and the sermon s relevance for today In Part Two he offers his commentary on Jesus Sermon on the Mount provides suggestions for preaching and includes some of his own sermons as examples
