Lotus Blossoms:

The Lotus Blooms in the Pond Adibah Amin,2010 Chikamatsu C. Andrew Gerstle,Chikamatsu,2002-09-04

Chikamatsu Monzaemon 1653-1725 often referred to as Japan's Shakespeare and a god of writers was arguably the most famous playwright in Japanese history and wrote more than 100 plays for the kabuki and bunraku theaters. Today the plays of this major literary figure are performed on kabuki and bunraku stages as well as in the modern theater and forty-nine films of his plays have been made; thirty-one of them from the silent era. Translations of Chikamatsu's plays are available, but we have few examples of his late work in which he increasingly incorporated stylistic elements of his shorter contemporary dramas into his longer period pieces. Translator C. Andrew Gerstle argues that in these mature history plays Chikamatsu depicted the tension between the private and public spheres of society by combining the rich character development of his contemporary pieces with the larger political themes of his period pieces. In this volume Gerstle translates five plays, four histories and one contemporary piece never before available in English, that complement other collections of Chikamatsu's work, revealing new dimensions to the work of this great Japanese playwright and artist. Xiaochen actually managed to catch up to a trend she crossed it. Fortunately, he was not a pushover. Xiao Mianyang. However, now that he had just met two of their opponents, Lin Xiaochen felt that he would never be able to escape from their grasp in this lifetime. He Yun Zixi shouldn't have married Lin Xiaochen into the Duke's Palace. This beautiful lady was actually a wolf, and her stature was so tall and sturdy like he was nothing but Xiao Mianyang in front of her. This Hong Tai Lang even brought his own children and ran amok in the martial arts world. A Shuang Er girl whom he had not seen for many years could only hold her forehead and sigh. Metalwork in Medieval Islamic Art Eva Baer,1984-06-30 Neither a Borrower

Richard A. Serrano,2017-12-02 In his studies of borrowing from distant poetic traditions, Serrano aims to uncover the heterogeneity of influences and intentions in the most canonical of texts: Mallarmé (1842-98), Segalen (1878-1919), Wang Wei (701-61), the Classic of Poetry (8th century BCE), Buhturi (821-97), and the Qur'an (7th century CE). Arguing among other things that Mallarmé was really a Chinese poet, that ancient Chinese poets discovered the workings of film imagery, and that the Qur'an's apparently disjointed narrative is profoundly lyrical, Serrano intends to overturn accepted notions of how to read individual works. He brings methodologies from the study of one literature to bear on the reading of another. Human and Aquatic Beings: Interactions in and beyond the Eastern Mediterranean (3rd—1st Millennia BCE) Christina Tsouparopoulou, Lærke Recht,2025-01-01 This volume examines the role of fish and molluscs in everyday life as well as in terms of their impact on social structures and as part of ideological and symbolic expression. Given the prevalence of dependence on water in various forms in all regions of the Eastern Mediterranean, Egypt, and Western Asia, it is no wonder that fish and other aquatic species made an impact on human lives. Yet this topic remains rather understudied. Until recently, ongoing projects in marine and freshwater species and their interaction with humans and the environment either focus on the European marine ecosystem or on themes other than the social interactions of humans and aquatic species The chapters in this volume explore questions related to fishing practices and technologies social status human fish mollusc relations including potential over exploitation and fish molluscs in ritual practices e g as temple offerings festival consumption burial offerings and ideology and religion e g associated with supernatural beings or sacred space as hybrid creatures and as represented in luxury goods The volume also examines aquatic species as a nonalimentary resource for example as jewellery inlays dyeing and medicinal purposes The material under investigation includes faunal remains worked and unworked fishing gear and related tools iconography and written sources Many chapters also integrate multiple lines of evidence ranging from stylistic contextual and iconographic analyses to zooarchaeological investigations This volume is relevant to archaeologists zooarchaeologists biologists and anyone interested in human animal relations and or the archaeology of the early Eastern Mediterranean and surrounding regions
