Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911 2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott s 1896 1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois s transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois s contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois s work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life The Tears of Things Peter Schwenger, 2006 We surround ourselves with material things that are invested with memories but can only stand for what we have lost Physical objects such as one s own body situate and define us yet at the same time they are fundamentally indifferent to us The melancholy of this rift is a rich source of inspiration for artists Peter Schwenger deftly weaves together philosophical and psychoanalytical theory with artistic practice Concerned in part with the act of collecting The Tears of Things is itself a collection of exemplary art objects literary and cultural attempts to control and the transformative nature of tradition Chapters 1 and 2 turn from the mid 20th century master Se n Riord in to the contemporary poet Cathal Searcaigh because the comparison and contrast highlights significant aspects of the amazing development of Irish poetry and indeed society in the period Here importantly the word development is meant in a neutral way the image used is that of a zig zag movement in the pattern of the continuing Irish tradition Chapter 3 returns to the slightly earlier major Irish language poet M irt n Dire in In doing so it returns home from the internationalism of the previous chapter on Searcaigh to Ireland a major focus and concern for the more solely traditionalist Dire in This switch back in time geography social mores or outlook fits and illustrates Sewell s concept of the zig zag movement of a country s culture as it proceeds from generation to generation The positioning therefore has a thematic purpose The fourth and final chapter focuses on the contemporary poet Nuala N Dhomhnaill who has managed to synthesise tradition and modernity central concerns of this book and who in doing so has become the current trail blazer of Irish poetry in either language Women encapsulated associations of mystery and enchantment with Asia This book probes the collective anxieties around gender race and sexuality lurking under the surface of this ornate style derided by some eighteenth century critics as monstrous and unnatural In interconnected essays Iris Moon unpacks Chinoiserie s language of curiosity and exoticism Here close looking at garnitures plates tea cups and saucers reveals how the desire to collect and possess porcelain created entrenched cultural myths of the Asian woman and how it later extended into such mediums as photography and film In addition sixteen readings by contemporary artists and scholars of works ranging from the sixteenth century to the present respond to this fraught history by asking how we can engage in meaningful dialogues about Chinoiserie today A Dictionary of the
