Love Hard Jason Wren, 2021-03-17 Most of us have a fundamental misunderstanding of love We think it is about us We believe it is about how someone or something makes us feel When something or someone fails to give us the positive feeling we want we move on and look for something else This type of love requires little effort By making it about us and how we feel we miss the many opportunities presented to us every day to have lasting and meaningful impact To truly love is hard It is not a feeling but an action It requires us to be intentional and outwardly focused on others rather than internally focused on our own feelings When we love hard our lives have real meaningful lasting positive impact on the world around us In Love Hard Jason

Wren uses stories from his and others lives to show how all of us can learn to love hard and thus have significant and lasting impact

Adopting the Melody of Phrase: An Emotional Symphony within Love In Action Experiencing The Joy Of Serving

In a world taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of fast transmission, the melodic splendor and emotional symphony produced by the written word often disappear in to the backdrop, eclipsed by the constant sound and interruptions that permeate our lives.
